Raiders Score 2 in 7th; Edge Oratory in UCT, 2-1

(walk), Dallas Lorenzetti and Josh Canavan added the other singles.

"After the first inning as soon as it was a 1-2-3 inning, I knew it was going to be a tough game. We battled, they battled. I think in the seventh inning something just clicked and that helped us out," Wilkinson commented.

"He didn't blow us out of the water but he had good stuff. He pitched smart to us and we just couldn't get to him but we were able to pull it out at the end of the game. Oratory made nice plays but in the end, we did what we had to do," Dieu said.

"He was mixing up his stuff well. He had us pretty much guessing at the plate. We did what we had to do in the last inning," Ramos said.

The Raiders posed a threat in five of the first six innings beginning with the first inning when Gale beat out an infield single, sped to second on defensive plays in the fourth. Catcher Chris Smith quickly fielded a bunt and threw to first in time for the first out. Dieu performed a split at first to grab a throw from third and then he fielded a slow chopper down the line and tagged the runner unassisted for the third out.

The fateful seventh inning provided additional drama. After Lorenzetti's long fly ball was hauled in by leftfielder Jack Coyne, Canavan laid down a perfect bunt single. Gale punched a slow grounder to third and appeared to beat the throw to first but the umpire signaled an "Out" call. After some enthusiastic protesting, the call stood for out No. 2 then Ramos rapped an RBI single to center. With Dieu at the plate, Ramos stole second. Dieu concentrated and bounced the game-winning single into leftfield.

"That [call] broke my heart," expressed Wilkinson. "Two outs and Josh at second base but Jonny came up with two strikes and a 1-2 count and did what he had to do driving the ball to left-center. Josh scored then got to second base and Mike drove him in. Can't get much better than that!"

"I got a 1-2 count. I had to put the ball in play, make something happen and I got the runner in," Ramos added.

"I hit a 1-2 fastball. My goal was just to put it in play, make something happen again and I was able to do that. Jonny did the heavy lifting for us, the hard part. I was happy to have the opportunity to make Oratory make a play. I was able to do that and Jonny made the score," Dieu explained.

The Raiders advanced to the UCT quarterfinal round on Saturday, May 4,to face third-seeded Union, 16-1 victors over Plainfield.

SAFE AT SECOND BASE...Raider senior Jonny Ramos steals second base after rapping the game-tying single in the seventh inning. Ramos then scored the winning run off Mike Dieu's single to leftfield.

Ramos' sacrifice bunt and advanced to third on Dieu's groundout but Meisner struck out the next batter. Wilkinson wiggled a one-out single in the second but Oratory second baseman John Meehan turned a second-to-first double play to end the inning.

In the fourth inning, Cuccurullo hacked a two-out single and Stines followed with his single but Meisner got the next batter to ground out to short. In the fifth with one man out, Lorenzetti singled over third, Canavan reached first on a force out and Gale beat out another infield single but Meisner fanned the next batter to escape damage. With two outs in the sixth, Stines reached safely on an error and Wilkinson walked but Angelo DiNizo's grounder back to the mound resulted in the third out.

Other than the one-run fifth inning, Oratory posed no other threats but the Raiders pulled off three straight fine with base hits, I'm doing my job. That's all I can do right now, especially in the three spot I just want to get on base, move the runners over," Lawrence said.

STEALING SECOND BASE...Blue Devil Erica Lawrence slides into second base safely in the first inning as Summit shortstop Kasey Walsh gets the throw. The Blue Devils topped Summit, 14-4, in five innings.

Howell singled, scored and had an RBI and Romano, who was needed to bat in the leadoff spot last year, has settled in very well in her cleanup spot with an RBI double, a single, a stolen base and a run scored.

Just two days before, the Blue Devils knocked off No. 6 Middletown North, 8-6, in an 11-inning classic, and Romano blasted a pair of home runs and added a single.

"I definitely feel more comfortable in that spot. Last year I moved around, so I really think I found my place," Romano commented.

A number of underclassmen have been making plenty of noise also with the bats. Freshman Kalea Calugay rapped a pair of singles, scored twice and swiped two bases. Freshman Alivia Macaluso doubled, singled, walked, scored three times and had two RBI. Junior Julia Gagliardi had a two-run single, doubled and scored once. Sophomore Molly Stogner slashed a two-run single, walked and scored both times. Sophomore pitcher Michaela Hobson singled twice, had an RBI and her courtesy runner, sophomore Allie Fernandez, scored once.

"It's good to have all the returners back. I think we definitely are a strong core to the team but these new underclassmen that are coming up bring a whole new game to us. It's a lot more travel ball players and people with a lot of experience. I think it's good to bring even more strength to this core team that we already have. I think we are definitely going places this year," Lawrence said.

"I agree. Some of the girls we've brought up, freshmen, sophomores all really contribute. They are really doing their job and have really been stepping up despite being underclassmen. Us as seniors, we really appreciate that. When everybody is doing their job, things happen and we win games," Romano added.

"I think it's a special group. I think that we have a really nice mix of veterans, who are taking control and kind of showing the younger kids the ropes. And then we got a really great group of underclassmen, who are excited to play and doing a good job. They are definitely melding off the field. On the field, they trust each other and they pick each other up. When one is struggling, somebody else steps right in to fill the role. That makes them feel really comfortable. We are not a one woman show. We are a 14 women show," Blue Devil Head Coach Caitlin Cheddar emphasized.

Calugay has been performing very well in the leadoff spot but her effectiveness in centerfield has been superb as she chased down a long drive
