

Elm Café Owner Mortarula Hopes New Restaurant Lime Will Add Mexican Flavor to Downtown Westfield

By STEVEN KRAKAUER
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

WESTFIELD — The Elm Street Café at 79 Elm Street has enjoyed much success since it's opening a little over six months ago. So what better reason for the owners of the Café to open up a new restaurant in the Town of Westfield, right next door to the Elm Street Café?

The new restaurant, "Lime," will be a blend of Mexican and Continental cuisine. Although the Westfield Planning Board has yet to approve the plan, the owner of the Elm Street Café and soon-to-be owner of Lime, Joe Mortarula, said he hopes it will be approved at the September 11 meeting.

The building of The Elm Street Café was delayed four months due to the Planning Board, Mr. Mortarula

Camie Delaney Honored by Burgdorff ERA

WESTFIELD — Camie Delaney of Mountainside, a Broker Associate with Burgdorff ERA's Westfield office, has been honored with Saleswoman of the Month for July with sales of two units amounting to over $1 million.

The tentative date for the opening of Lime is scheduled for mid to late fall. The restaurant should be approximately the same size as it's sister restaurant, The Elm Street Café, next door, with capacity peeking around 45. The head chef will also be the same for both locations, however adding a more Mexican spin on the variety of foods, as well as broadening the menu to many seafood items.

Elm Street Café has already begun to sample some of the possible menu items for Lime's by making them specials and seeing the diner's responses.

The front entrance of Lime will, according to Mr. Mortarula, be a "mirror image" of Elm Street Café's entrance.

The management of Elm Street Café has been pleased so far with the success of the restaurant. Mr. Mortarula said, "We (the management) couldn't be happier. We couldn't ask for a better response."

The Mohave Grille located on 235 North Avenue is another restaurant in the Southwestern realm. It also just recently received an award by the Westfield Board of Health by scoring an "excellent" rating for health standards, a rare compliment.

Nicole Zarrillo, manager of Mohave, is not worried about the new "Lime." She said, "I don't think it will have any effect. In fact I think it will bring more people into the town and in turn will result for more customers for us (Mohave Grille). We have been very successful in the past."

Although Mohave Grill is classified in the Southwestern line of fare, the menu ranges from Spanish to Asian to Italian.

Westfield, a haven for restaurant comings and goings, has seen many Italian restaurants in it's time, yet a low number of Mexican/Southwestern cuisine. The overload of Italian restaurants causes diners to think elsewhere, said Mr. Mortarula.

"We filled the void with a Contimental restaurant (Elm Street Café), and now we're filling the void of a Mexican restaurant in Westfield," he said.
