

Margie B. Clark, 81, Had Worked At McGinn School for 12 Years

Margie B. Clark, 81, of Fanwood died on Tuesday, February 8, in Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Born in Storm Lake, Iowa, she had lived in Chicago before moving to Fanwood 21 years ago.

Mrs. Clark had been employed by McGinn Elementary School in Scotch Plains for 12 years before retiring in 1992.

She was predeceased by her husband, Harry J. Clark, in 1984.

Surviving are a daughter, Jane Lundstrom of Fanwood; a son, Brian J. Clark of Paoli, Pa.; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Private funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood.

February 17, 2000

James F. Murphy, 52, Was President Of Roofing and Sheet Metal Company

James F. Murphy, 52, of Martinsville died on Friday, February 11, in Our Lady of Mercy Medical Center in Martinsville.

Born in Queens, he grew up in Springfield. He had lived in Mountainside before moving to Martinsville 13 years ago.

Mr. Murphy was President of J. Murphy Roofing & Sheet Metal Inc. of Middlesex for the past 23 years.

In 1969, he graduated from Pershing College in Nebraska with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics.

Surviving are Susan Murphy, his wife of 29 years; a son, Patrick Murphy; a daughter, Ellen Murphy.

Gertrude Conroy, 89

Gertrude "Jerry" Mattson Conroy, 89, of Boca Raton, Fla., died on Sunday, February 6, in The Quadrangle in Haverford, Pa.

Born in Jersey City, she had lived in Westfield for 27 years before moving to Florida 20 years ago.

During her residency in Florida, Mrs. Conroy helped to establish the South East Florida Alzheimers Association and was Treasurer of the Golden Harbour Yacht Club.

She was a lifetime member of the Seraphic Society.

Surviving are a daughter, Patricia C. Conn of Haverford, Pa., and two grandchildren.

A gathering of friends to celebrate her life was held on Saturday, February 12, at the home of her daughter.

Arrangements were under the direction of Stuard Funeral Directors in Ardmore, Pa.

February 17, 2000

Roberta Rumpf, 79

Roberta Rumpf, 79, of Mountainside died on Monday, February 7, in Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Born in Bridgeport, Conn., Mrs. Rumpf had lived in Elizabeth and Edison before relocating to Mountainside three years ago.

Surviving are a son, Arthur Rumpf; a daughter, Barbara Macpherson, and four grandchildren.

Private services were under the direction of the Gosselin Funeral Home in Edison.

February 17, 2000

Charles A. Macaluso, 67, Honored For Commitment to Environment

Charles Anthony Macaluso, 67, of Tampa, Fla., died on Friday, February 4, in Tampa General Hospital.

Born in New York City, he had lived in Brooklyn, Westfield and Essex Fells before moving to Sarasota, Fla. six months ago.

A pioneer in the waste management industry in New Jersey and Connecticut, Mr. Macaluso was President of New York Caring, a family-owned business in Manhattan.

He was a partner in four restaurants in La Jolla, Calif. during the mid-1980s and mid-1990s and was named Chief Executive Officer of MICRO Technologies, headquartered in Denver.

Mr. Macaluso received the Governor's Humanitarian Award from Nelson A. Rockefeller and the Outstanding Man of the Year Award from former New York Governor Hugh Carey for his efforts in environmental conservation.

He was named an Honorary Commissioner of the Environmental Protection Agency of the State of New York, Chairman of the New York Chapter of CHIL (Children with Learning Disabilities), a consultant to the Italian Conservation Department in Rome, Italy, and an honorary mayor of Chelsea, N.Y.

Mr. Macaluso graduated from Seton Hall University in South Orange and from St. John's Law School in New York.

Surviving are his wife, Dorothy Macaluso; two daughters, Giancarla Gronikowski and Merrilee Logue; a son, Roy Macaluso; a stepdaughter, Terri Cottrell; two sisters, Maria McDonald and Josephine Macaluso, and four grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, February 19, in Notre Dame Church of North Caldwell.

February 17, 2000

Obituaries

Dorothy Smith-Lewis, 87, Social Worker; Volunteered for Red Cross Disaster Relief

Dorothy Dunn Smith-Lewis, 87, of Westfield died on Wednesday, February 9, in the Westfield Center, Genesis ElderCare Network in Westfield.

Born in Winchester, Mass. on December 20, 1912, the daughter of Edna Eastman and George Elliot Dunn, she had lived in Westfield and Maine before returning to Westfield many years ago.

Mrs. Smith-Lewis had been a social worker with the Family and Children's Society of Plainfield for 25 years before retiring. She specialized in family counseling and adoption services.

She also volunteered with the American Red Cross in assisting with disaster relief in Kentucky and Massachusetts.

Mrs. Smith-Lewis graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Douglass College in New Brunswick in 1934 and earned a Master of Social Work Degree from the New York School of Social Work, now an affiliate of Columbia University, in 1936.

She was predeceased by her two husbands, Sanford Clarke Smith in 1962 and Gomer Lewis in 1996.

Surviving are two sons, George Smith of Lambertville and James Smith of Whitefield, Me.; a daughter, Dr. Nancy Naro Watts of Walkington, England; a stepdaughter, Barbara Van Meter of Bridgeton; a stepson, Richard Gary Lewis; a sister, Priscilla Lee of Westfield; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held on Saturday, February 12, in the First United Methodist Church in Westfield. Interment took place at Fryeburg Cemetery in Fryeburg, Me.

Local arrangements were under the direction of the Gray Funeral Home, 318 East Broad Street in Westfield.

February 17, 2000

Alexander A. Barbarise, 61, Retired Conesco Sales Director and Trainer

Alexander A. Barbarise, 61, of Vernon Hills, Ill. died on Sunday, February 13, at Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Born and raised in Westfield, he had lived in Piscataway for 14 years, Manalapan for seven years and Buffalo Grove, Ill. for seven years before moving to Vernon Hills eight years ago.

Mr. Barbarise had been a Regional Sales Director and trainer for Conesco in Schaumburg, Ill. for seven years before retiring in 1999. Prior to that, he had been employed with Washington National Insurance Company for 25 years as a regional manager in New Jersey and as Director of Training in Evanston, Ill.

He served in the United States Army from 1957 until 1959.

He was a graduate of Holy Trinity High School in Westfield, where he was active in the Boy Scouts and in the Barbershop Quartet.

He held an associate's degree from Union College in Cranford.

Surviving are his wife, Amy (Sabino) Barbarise; two sons, Brian Barbarise of Englishtown and Kevin Barbarise of Hainesville, Ill.; three daughters, Laura Navas of Round Lake Beach, Ill., Karen Buchholtz of Kenosha, Wis. and Kimberly Magnan of Addison, Ill.; his parents, Anthony and Mary Del Conte Barbarise of Toms River; a sister, Dolores Engel of Aberdeen; three grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

The funeral will take place at 9 a.m. on Saturday, February 19, from the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Avenue in Westfield, followed by a Funeral Liturgy at 10 a.m. at the Holy Trinity Roman

February 17, 2000

Theresa A. Caprara, 83, Was Retired As Supervisor from Chase Chemical

Theresa A. Caprara, 83, of Mountainside died on Thursday, February 10, in Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Born in Newark, she moved to Mountainside five years ago.

Mrs. Caprara had been a supervisor with the Chase Chemical Company in Newark, where she worked for 15 years before retiring in 1978.

Surviving are her husband, Peter

F. Caprara; a daughter, Mary Ann Capriglione; a son, Philip Caprara; three brothers, Jerry Pagano, Basil Pagano and Biase Pagano; two sisters, Ann Pagano and Sister Nicolina Pagano, and two grandchildren.

A Mass was offered on Monday, February 14, in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Newark, following the funeral from the Galante Funeral Home in Union.

February 17, 2000

Alexander Kitt, 78, Was Navy Veteran; Saw Action in Pacific in World War II

Alexander Kitt, 78, of Scotch Plains died on Tuesday, February 8, at home.

Born in Carteret, he lived in Scotch Plains for most of his life. He was a graduate of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School.

Mr. Kitt had worked at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Lyons for many years before retiring.

He served in the Civilian Conservation Corps for two years prior to entering the United States Navy in 1942. During World War II, he served on the USS Indiana and the USS North Carolina in the South Pacific.

Valda Wygledowski, 71

Valda A. Wygledowski, 71, of Mountainside died on Wednesday, February 9, at home.

Born in Latvia, she came to the United States after World War II. She had lived in South Orange and in Irvington before relocating to Mountainside several years ago.

Surviving are her husband, Stefan Wygledowski; two daughters, Sondra Wygledowski and Beatrice Quinn, and two grandchildren.

A Mass was offered on Saturday, February 12, at Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church in Mountainside following the funeral from the Parkway Wozniak Memorial Home in Clark.

February 17, 2000

Twice he was at sea during a torpedoing.

Mr. Kitt was a life member of American Legion Post No. 209 and a parishioner of St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church, both in Scotch Plains.

He was predeceased by two brothers, John Kitt and Michael Kitt.

Surviving are his wife, Dorothy Kitt; two brothers, George Kitt of Los Angeles and Tymko Thomas Kitt of Bedminster, and five sisters, Julia Richter of Flemington, Mary Prejean of Abbeville, La., Helen Adams of Ethel, La. and Ann Shreiber and Sophie Chaubin, both of Baton Rouge, La.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, February 13, in the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood, American Legion Post No. 209 also held services on Sunday.

Interment took place at the Veterans Administration National Cemetery at Indiantown Gap in Annville, Pa.

February 17, 2000

Marion Robson, 82

Marion Doerfer Robson, 82, of Greensboro, N. C., died on Monday, February 7, at Well Spring Health Care in Greensboro.

Born on September 16, 1917 in Westfield, she was a graduate of Westfield High School. She had lived in the Westfield-Scotch Plains area until 1978, when she relocated to Tequesta, Fla. Mrs. Robson moved to Greensboro in 1997.

She was a homemaker.

Surviving are two sons, John Robson of Montreal, Quebec, Canada and Jeff Robson of Greensboro; a brother, Charles Doerfer of Ohio, and five grandchildren.

A memorial service was held on Friday, February 11, in the Well Spring Retirement Community Auditorium in Greensboro.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association, 2550 Highway 1, North Brunswick, 08902.

February 17, 2000

Edmund C. Allen, 91, Taught Latin; Was Principal of Tamaques School

Edmund C. Allen, 91, died on Thursday, February 10, in the Medical Facility of Normandy Farms Estates in Blue Bell, Pa.

Born on August 16, 1908 in Wallingford, Conn., the son of the late Clifton and Elizabeth Fowler Allen, he had lived in Westfield before moving to Normandy Farms Estates in 1984.

Mr. Allen, who began his education career as a Latin teacher at the Hill School in Pottstown, Pa., later taught Latin in the Westfield school district until 1952.

He subsequently became an elementary school principal, retiring from Tamaques Elementary School in Westfield in 1971.

Mr. Allen graduated from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn. in 1930. He received a master's degree in education from the Univer-

February 17, 2000

Rose White, 81

Rose McCurnin White, 81, of Cranford died on Tuesday, February 15, at Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Born in Bayonne, she had lived in Roselle for 25 years and Westfield for 20 years before moving to Cranford in 1990.

A homemaker, she was active with the Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church parish in Westfield and a member of its Senior Social Club.

Surviving are her husband of 56 years, Robert A. White; two daughters, Susan Parker and Sister Kathleen White; two sons, Robert P. White and James C. White; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial will take place at 10 a.m. on Friday, February 18, in the Holy Trinity Church. Interment will be at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield.

Friends may visit at the Dooley Funeral Home, 218 North Avenue in Cranford, today, Thursday, February 17, from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

Memorial donations may be made to the Benedictine Sisters Monastery Expansion Fund, Emmanuel Monastery, 2229 Joppa Road, Lutherville, Md., 21093.

February 17, 2000

MASTER MEMORIALS
1171 E. Broad St.
Westfield, NJ
233-2350

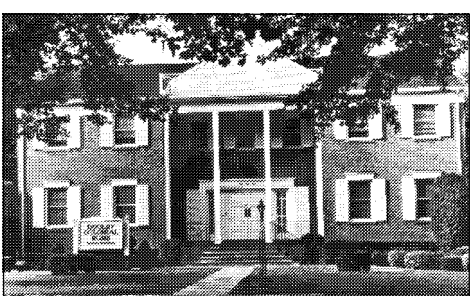

DESIGNER • BUILDERS OF FINE
MONUMENTS
MARKERS
MAUSOLEUMS

LETTERED • CLEANED
Bruce Bauer, Prop.
(Established 1938)

ALSO: 300 Rt. 37 East
Toms River, N.J. 349-2350

Dooley Funeral Service, Inc.

Caring & Courteous Service to the Cranford/Westfield Area Since 1913

Westfield
556 Westfield Avenue
233-0255
John L. Dooley
Manager

Cranford
218 North Avenue
276-0255
Charles V. Dooley
Manager

Caught in the Medicaid confusion?

Forethought® funeral planning can help.

Find out how by calling...

Gray

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
- Since 1897 -

• FRED H. GRAY, JR. • WILLIAM A. DOYLE • PAULETTE CRABIEL WAHLER
• DALE SCHOUSTRA • DAVID J. CRABIEL

Executive Administrator - William A. Doyle

WESTFIELD: 318 East Broad St., Fred H. Gray, Jr. Mgr. • 233-0143
CRANFORD: 12 Springfield Ave., Dale R. Schoustra, Mgr. • 276-0092

CYAN YELLOW MAGENTA BLACK

CONTACT®
We Care, Inc.

We'll listen and help you with that problem you thought you had no answer to at all.

908-232-2880

A member of The United Way.
CONTACT USA and Life Line International