

Linda M. Mc Cann, 46, Employed By Quest Diagnostics for Six Years

Linda M. Mc Cann, 46, of Fanwood died on Monday, March 26, in Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield.

Born in Plainfield, she had lived in Westfield most of her life and later in Elizabeth before moving to Fanwood 12 years ago.

Mrs. Mc Cann was employed as a phlebotomist with Quest Diagnostics of Plainfield and Teterboro for six years. She had previously worked for Met-Path, which became Quest Diagnostics.

Surviving are her husband, James P.

Mc Cann; a daughter, Patricia Mc Cann; a son, John Mc Cann; her parents, Pasquale and Anna Di Blasio Rapuano, and a sister, Giovannina.

A Mass was offered on Friday, March 30, at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains, following the funeral service from the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains. Interment took place at St. Gertrude's Cemetery in Colonia.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Fanwood Volunteer Rescue Squad or to Boystown of Italy.

April 5, 2001

Anne Pizzuti, 86, Had Been Co-Owner Of Hoffman's Deli in Scotch Plains

Anne Buck Pizzuti, 86, of Smithfield, R.I., died on Monday, March 19, at North Bay Manor in Smithfield.

Born in Dixon City, Pa., the daughter of the late Jacob and Christina Walahonovitz Buck, she had lived in Scotch Plains and in Whiting before relocating to Smithfield two years ago.

Mrs. Pizzuti had been the co-owner, with her husband, William A. Pizzuti, of Hoffman's Deli in Scotch Plains for 15 years before retiring in 1983. She and her husband were married for 64 years.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are a daughter, Dolores A. Cherubino of Cumberland, R.I., and three grandchildren.

A Rite of Christian Burial was celebrated Saturday, March 31, in the Chapel at North Bay Manor in Smithfield. Interment took place in Whiting.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Bellows-Falso Funeral Chapel in Lincoln, R.I.

April 5, 2001

Cecilia Harburger, 86

Cecilia Dearing Harburger, 86, of Fanwood died on Monday, April 2, at the Glenside Nursing Center in New Providence.

Born in Jersey City, she had lived there before moving to Fanwood 43 years ago.

Surviving are her husband, William J. Harburger, and a brother, Howard Dearing of Lyndhurst.

The funeral will take place at 9 a.m. today, Thursday, April 5, at the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood. A Funeral Mass will follow at 10 a.m. at St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church in Plainfield. Interment will be at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield.

April 5, 2001

Robert J. Perrucci, Sr., 76, Army Veteran Had Been Mason Contractor for Rutgers

Robert J. Perrucci, Sr., 76, of South Plainfield died on Wednesday, March 28, at Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield.

Born in Scotch Plains, he had lived in Westfield before moving to South Plainfield in 1952.

Dennis J. Flynn, 55

Dennis J. Flynn, 55, of Fanwood died on Sunday, March 25, at home.

Born in Jersey City, he was a resident of Fanwood since 1972.

Mr. Flynn was a carpenter with Carpenters Union Local No. 6 of Hudson County in North Bergen.

He attended Fairleigh Dickinson University and the Hudson County Carpenters and Apprentice School in Jersey City.

Surviving are his wife, Elizabeth Ann Flynn; two sons, Daniel J. Flynn and Kevin J. Flynn; three daughters, Sandra Lee Flynn, Jill Ann Flynn and Dana Marie Flynn; his mother, Mildred Bernstengel, and a brother, Donald Flynn.

A Mass was offered on Thursday, March 29, in St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains, following the funeral from the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains.

April 5, 2001

Mr. Perrucci had been a mason contractor with the Rutgers University Maintenance Department in New Brunswick, where he worked for 15 years before retiring nine years ago.

He had previously been a self-employed mason contractor in Union and Middlesex counties.

He served in the United States Army with the Army Rangers during World War II and saw action in the European Theater. Mr. Perrucci was a recipient of the Bronze Star.

He was predeceased by a grandson, Steven Perrucci.

Surviving are his wife, Rosemary Hoffman Perrucci; a daughter, Georgia Bartz of Vero Beach, Fla.; two sons, Robert J. Perrucci, Jr. of South Plainfield and John C. Perrucci of Jersey City; two sisters, Anna Perrucci of South Plainfield and Edith Colucci of Clinton; three brothers, Mario Perrucci of Forked River, Nick Perrucci of South Plainfield and John Perrucci of Somerville; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial was offered on Monday, April 2, in Our Lady of Czestochowa Roman Catholic Church in South Plainfield, following the funeral from the McCriscin Home for Funerals in South Plainfield. Interment took place at Holy Redeemer Cemetery in South Plainfield.

April 5, 2001

- Obituaries -

Carl Immediato, 74, Police Dispatcher; Was Former Owner of Taxi Company

Carl M. Immediato, 74, of Westfield died on Thursday, March 29, at home.

Born in New Rochelle, N.Y., he had lived there before relocating to Westfield in 1972.

Mr. Immediato had been the President and owner of Blue Bird Taxi in New Rochelle during the 1960s and 1970s. In October of 1980, he became a police dispatcher for the Borough of Mountaineer. He was scheduled to retire from the position in November.

He was a member of the Forrester Club of New Rochelle and Past President of the Westfield Athletic Club. Mr. Immediato was also a member and served on the Board of Directors of the Mountaineer Honorary Policemen's Benevolent Association (P.B.A.) and was a Silver Life card holder for Mountaineer P.B.A. Local No. 126.

William Evans, Sr., 67, Was Inspector; Active With Veterans Organizations

William G. Evans, Sr., 67, of Ellicott City, Md., died on Tuesday, March 27, at home.

Born in Plainfield, he relocated to Ellicott City in 1980.

Mr. Evans was an inspector for the Howard County Government of Public Works in Maryland. Prior to that, he had been a site supervisor for J. William Parker and Sons Construction Company in Baltimore, an instructor with the Job Corps in Middlesex County and a mechanical engineer with Eastern Airlines at Newark International Airport.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Trenton State College in Ewing.

Mr. Evans served in the 18th Fighter-Bomber Wing of the 44th Fighter-Bomber Squadron of the United States Air Force during the Korean Conflict.

He was a member of the American Society of Certified Engineering Technicians, the National Society of Black Engineers Baltimore Metro Alumni Chapter and the 13th Air Force Veterans Association of the American Legion.

Mr. Evans additionally was a past drill sergeant of the Plainfield Veterans of Foreign Wars Memorial Post No. 7474.

Surviving are his wife, Sherrie Harder-Kober; two sons, William

Surviving are his wife, Dolores M. DePippo Immediato; his mother, Kathleen Immediato; a son, Carl Immediato, Jr.; two daughters, Kathy Ann Guariglia and Nancy Ann Immediato; two stepsons, Joe Shaffer and Claude Shaffer; a brother, Michael Immediato; two sisters, Kay Bucello and Antoinette Roe; three step-grandchildren and two step-great-grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial was offered on Monday, April 2, in Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church in Mountaineer.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Avenue in Westfield.

Memorial contributions may be made to Mountaineer P.B.A. Local No. 126, P.O. Box 1176, Mountaineer, 07092.

April 5, 2001

Evans, Jr. of Baltimore and Shawn Evans Mitchell of Stone Mountain, Ga.; two daughters, Wendy Dore of Plainfield and Lynda Evans of Baltimore; a stepdaughter, Shari Kober-Mealy of New York City; a brother, Paul Evans of Las Vegas, Nev.; two sisters, Ruth Granger of Westfield, Anna Parker of Baltimore and Jean Evans of New York City; his stepmother, Josephine Evans, and two grandchildren.

The funeral took place on Monday, April 2, from the Calvary Baptist Church in Plainfield.

Arrangements were handled by the Judkins Colonial Home in Plainfield.

April 5, 2001

Thomas F. Williams, 56

Thomas Francis Williams, 56, of Scotch Plains died on Tuesday, March 27, at Runnells Specialized Hospital of Union County in Berkeley Heights.

Born in Union, he was a lifelong resident of Scotch Plains.

Mr. Williams received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Accounting from Trenton State College in 1981.

He was predeceased by his parents, Francis and Josephine Williams. Surviving are his brother, Michael D. Williams, and his sister, Joanne F. Schmitz.

Funeral services were held on Friday, March 30, at the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood.

Memorial contributions may be made to Runnells Specialized Hospital, 40 Watchung Way, Berkeley Heights, 07922.

April 5, 2001

James Houchins, 73

James Martin Houchins, 73, of Plainfield died on Wednesday, March 28, at the Raritan Bay Medical Center in Perth Amboy.

Born in Stewart, Va., he had lived in Westfield before relocating to Plainfield 41 years ago.

Mr. Houchins had been employed as a supervisor of custodial maintenance at Rutgers Medical School in Piscataway for 20 years and at Athens Industries of Rahway for 10 years.

He was a United States Army-Air Force veteran of the Korean Conflict. Mr. Houchins was a member of the West Centennial Lodge of the Elks in Westfield.

Surviving are his wife, Patricia Houchins; three sons, Damon Foreman of Columbus, Md. and Mark Houchins and Darryl Houchins, both of Plainfield; two sisters, Mary Louise Dulin of Winston-Salem, N.C. and Ruth Edwards of Ridgeway, Va., and two grandchildren.

Services were held on Saturday, March 31, at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Plainfield.

Arrangements were handled by the Judkins Colonial Home in Plainfield.

April 5, 2001

Memorial Mass Set For Jane Ford Percy

A Memorial Mass for Jane Ford Percy will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, April 7, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Westfield. Mrs. Percy, who lived in Westfield for 35 years, died on March 17.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, Md. 21601.

April 5, 2001

Irving R. Robins, 91, Purchasing Agent; Chairman of Linden Planning Board

Irving R. Robins, 91, of Fort Myers, Fla., died on Tuesday, March 27, at Lee Memorial Hospital in Fort Myers.

Born in Brooklyn, he had lived in Linden and in Hollywood, Fla., before moving to Fort Myers in 1990.

Mr. Robins had been the chief purchasing agent for 45 years at the Wing Company in Linden before retiring in 1972.

A graduate of Brooklyn College, he earned a law degree from St. Lawrence University, Brooklyn Division, and was admitted to the New York Bar Association.

Mr. Robins served as Chairman of the Linden Planning Board. He was also Chancellor Commander of the Knights of Pythias, Linden Lodge No. 2, and had received that organization's highest honor, the degree of Golden Spur.

He was predeceased by his first wife, Irene Jacobs Robins, in 1985.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine Robins; two sons, Martin Robins of Westfield, Vice-Chairman of the Westfield Planning Board, and Warren Robins of Upper Montclair; a daughter, Arlene Spiegel of New York City; a brother, Harold Robins of Brooklyn; three sisters, Betty Schwartz of Long Beach, N.Y., Rose Heller of Brooklyn and Beatrice Burd of North Miami Beach, Fla.; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Friday, March 30, at Kreitzman's Memorial Home in Union, and were followed by interment at Beth Israel Cemetery in Woodbridge.

April 5, 2000

Robert C. Rogers, 91

Robert Clark Rogers, 91, of Westfield died on Saturday, March 31, at home.

Born in Cranbury, the younger son of Joseph and Emma Clark Rogers, he lived in Westfield for more than 60 years.

Mr. Rogers had worked for many years for the Ingersoll-Rand Corporation in New York City before retiring in 1968.

He was educated at Phillips Andover Academy and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge.

He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta and the Baltusrol Golf Club in Springfield.

He was predeceased by his first wife, Doris Jones Rogers, in 1969, and by his brother, Joseph Rogers, Jr.

Surviving are his second wife, Nancy Porter Hayes Rogers; a son, Charles W. Rogers of Albuquerque, N.M.; a daughter, Connie R. Wesley; a stepdaughter, Mary P. Hayes; a stepson, Samuel W. Hayes; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Private graveside services will be held tomorrow, Friday, April 6, at Easton Cemetery in Easton, Pa.

Arrangements are being handled by the Gray Funeral Home, 318 East Broad Street in Westfield.

Memorial contributions may be made to Atlantic Hospice, 33 Bleeker Street, Millburn, 07041.

April 5, 2001

Ralph A. Anilo, 84

Ralph Andrew Anilo, 84, of North Plainfield died on Thursday, March 29, at Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield.

Born in Westfield, he was a resident of North Plainfield since 1951.

Mr. Anilo had worked for Interstate Printing in Plainfield for 30 years before his retirement. Prior to that, he had been a binding production manager at Quality Graphics in Roselle Park for 11 years.

He was a member of the Senior Citizens of North Plainfield and a founding member of the Italian-American Club of North Plainfield.

He was predeceased by a sister, Angelina Hultberg.

Surviving are his wife, Susan M. Testa Anilo; two sons, Frank P. Anilo and Ralph Anilo, Jr.; a daughter, Camille Bowman; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

A Mass was held on Monday, April 2, at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in North Plainfield, following the funeral from the Higgins Home for Funerals in North Plainfield. Interment took place at Hillside Cemetery in Scotch Plains.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, 41 Manning Avenue, North Plainfield, 07060. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.higginsfuneralhome.com.

April 5, 2001

Frank M. Hiljer, 86

Frank M. Hiljer, 86, of Washington Township died on Saturday, March 31, in Morristown Memorial Hospital.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, he had lived in Mountaineer for 26 years before relocating to Washington Township four years ago.

Mr. Hiljer had worked for Sea Land Service in Port Elizabeth for more than 30 years before retiring as a traffic manager.

Surviving are two daughters, Lynn Masterson and Christine Adele Oliver, and two grandchildren.

A memorial service was held yesterday, Wednesday, April 4, in St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church in Succasunna.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Davis and Hepplewhite Funeral Home in Succasunna.

Memorial contributions may be made to a favorite charity.

April 5, 2001

Barbara Stroehle-Mako

Barbara L. Stroehle-Mako of Princeton died on Thursday, March 29, in Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City.

Born in Elizabeth, she had lived in Westfield, Mantoloking and New York City before recently establishing a residence in Princeton.

A professional journalist, photographer and editor, Ms. Stroehle-Mako conducted interviews with and photographed delegates and dignitaries, including Prime Ministers, heads of state, United Nations ambassadors, leading artists, collectors and gallery owners.

Barbara Stroehle-Mako

Ms. Stroehle-Mako was a reporter for New Jersey Public Television, a writer of sports and children's columns for the Suburban News and an interviewer and editor at the United Nations for the publication Diplomatic World Bulletin.

A Wall Street Transcript, she served as editor of the "Art and Antique Investment Report," the nation's longest-running column on art and collectibles.

In addition, she had been co-owner of PS Colors, a custom textile dye-works company in Los Angeles and served as an aide to former New Jersey Assemblyman Chuck Hardwick.

Ms. Stroehle-Mako was an active member of the Board of Directors of 1065 Park Avenue in New York City, overseeing the aesthetic considerations of public areas, including the design and installation of gardens, millwork and foyer decorating. The building won the East Side Association, Green Thumb Award in 1995.

She was a member of the United Nations Correspondents Association, the Pan Pacific Southeast Asia Women's Association USA-NY Chapter and the 200 Club of Union County.

Ms. Stroehle-Mako graduated from Westfield High School and the University of Hartford in Connecticut.

Surviving are her husband, Elias R. Mako, and her mother, Alice Van De Mark Stroehle of Mantoloking.

Memorial services will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, April 11, at the Gray Funeral Home, 318 East Broad Street in Westfield.

Memorial contributions may be made to: Doctors Without Borders, 6 East 39th Street, Eighth Floor, New York City, 10016.

April 5, 2001

Peg di Trolio, 86

Peg La Costa di Trolio, 86, of Westfield died on Monday, April 2, at Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Born and raised in Plainfield, she lived in Westfield for 50 years.

Mrs. Di Trolio had been employed in the reception office at the Baltusrol Golf Club in Springfield for 27 years, retiring in 1997 at age 82.

She was a longtime member of the Westfield Women's Club and the Westfield Auxiliary and was also a member of the Amity Group in Westfield.

Mrs. di Trolio was a communicant of St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield and had also been a communicant for many years at the Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church in Westfield.

She was predeceased by her husband, Frank di Trolio, in 1969.

Surviving are a daughter, Barbara Mannino of Westfield, with whom she lived; two brothers, Thomas La Costa of Westfield and Nicholas La Costa of Maryland, and two grandchildren.

Visitation will take place from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. today, Thursday, April 5, at the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Avenue in Westfield.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held tomorrow, Friday, April 6, at St. Helen's Church. Interment will be at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield.

April 5, 2001

Dooley Funeral Service, Inc.

Caring & Courteous Service to the Cranford/Westfield Area Since 1913

Westfield

556 Westfield Avenue
233-0255
John L. Dooley
Manager

Cranford

218 North Avenue
276-0255
Charles V. Dooley
Manager

Why should you plan your own funeral?

Forethought® funeral planning:

Forethought funeral planning is funded through policies from Forethought Life Insurance Company

- Relieves your family of emotional burden
- Expresses your own wishes in your plans
- Protects funeral costs from inflation
- Makes it easier for those you love

Call for details today... while you're thinking about it.

Gray

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
- Since 1897 -

• FRED H. GRAY, JR. • WILLIAM A. DOYLE • PAULETTE CRABIEL WAHLER • DALE SCHOUSTRA • DAVID J. CRABIEL

Executive Administrator - William A. Doyle

WESTFIELD: 318 East Broad St., Fred H. Gray, Jr. Mgr. • 233-0143
CRANFORD: 12 Springfield Ave., Dale R. Schoustra, Mgr. • 276-0092

Fairview Cemetery

Nonprofit - Nonsectarian

Family Lots, Single Graves, Niches and Community Mausoleum
Available for Your Personal Selection

Faithfully Serving the Public Since 1868, on 110 Picturesque Acres

1100 East Broad Street • Westfield, New Jersey
(908) 232-0781

Please Call for Further Information

MASTER MEMORIALS

1171 E. Broad St.
Westfield, NJ
233-2350

DESIGNER • BUILDERS OF FINE
MONUMENTS
MARKERS
MAUSOLEUMS

LETTERED • CLEANED

Bruce Bauer, Prop.
(Established 1938)

ALSO: 300 Rt. 37 East
Toms River, N.J. 349-2350