Lady Highlanders Quiet Chatham Cagers, 31-23

By FRED LECOMTE
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Senior guard Jenny Calabrese and senior center Maya Monroe had their wishes come true as they led the Governor Livingston High School girls to a 31-23 victory over Chatham in the semifinals of the North Jersey, Section 2, Group 2 basketball tournament on March 2 in Chatham. Calabrese, who led all scorers with 18 points said, "I really can't tell you exactly what the true feeling is. The game itself was really frustrating, as everything we put up fell short. I was just glad we won, since I believed our team was better than the record showed. Although we had a somejunior forward Jessy Sheats, holding her to just three points. "Our game plan was to double up on her and, I think, Jen and I were rather successful in that task. It really was an emotional game for us, personally, I was excited because we still have a game remaining, hopefully a Highlander championship. That would really top off my basketball career at Governor Livingston."

Monroe looks forward to extending her basketball career at Georgia Tech next year.

The Highlanders took a 25-23 lead in the fourth quarter on a Calabrese drive through a host of Cougars. With five minutes remaining, the Cougars

The Highlanders jumped to a 5-0 lead behind Calabrese as she swished a 3-pointer and two free-throws. However, the Cougars snarled and responded with a series of crisp and well-executed passing plays to take a 14-5 first-quarter edge.

Outstanding defensive play of sophomores Meghan Butler, Becky Ringwood, Margie Goodspeed and Peggy Lallis along with junior Katie Dotto caged the Cougars in the second period, narrowing the lead to two, but the Cougars awakened to hold a, 16-10, lead by the half.

The Cougars turned to ice in the third quarter, scoring only three points as the Highlanders stomped back and took a 20-19 lead. The Highlander's aggressiveness paid dividends as Calabrese and Monroe retaliated, scoring all 10 points. Monroe caged Cougar leading scorer,

Vineland Swimmers Entangle Lady Blue Devils in Public A

Schwebel alternated 1-2 finishes in the 200 and 500 freestyles. A pair of 2-3 finishes in the 100 back by Romano (who won the 200 IM) and Fallon and 100 breast by Kolenut and Vanarelli put the Devils over the top.

The West Windsor meet saw WHS shock a team that beat them by 71 points at the Pirate Invitational in early January. Fowler again was key in the sprints, and Kolterjahn and Schwebel both had huge drops as they dominated the distance swims, which were thought to be the strength of WW-P. Romano won a couple of touch-finishes for seconds in the IM and back.

By reaching the final against Vineland, the Blue Devils became one of the few schools to reach a final four straight years since the team tournament was started in 1987. They knew the Fighting Clan was a loaded club, with one of the state's premier high school coaches, John Casadia.

"We knew what their times were, so it would've been really tough for us to win," Heintzelman said. "But we went down there and swam pretty well. It was fun."

Vineland scored surprisingly big in the distance swims, with 1-2 finishes in both the 200 and 500.

"They were amazing," Schwebel said. "They had two strong girls in every event."
