DiDario - two seconds and a third. In total, the Highlanders had four firsts, two seconds, a third and two fourths.

GL gained 50 points on May 25, commanding a 28-point lead over second place Hanover Park, then, on May 26, maintained the lead, out-pointing both Hanover Park and Summit, 78-52.

"This was an extremely satisfying win," said Head Coach Bill Gorski, GLHS. "We got the field event points as well as points on the track. It was great to have Karen Bocian in good health and Margy Goodspeed back on track. Dana McCurdy, Megs DiDario and Maya Monroe have been 'money' all year and sure were great in this meet."

Standout junior McCurdy won handily in the 400 meters at 1:00, the 400 intermediate hurdles at 1:04.3 and the 100 hurdles at :15.3. Sophomore DiDario placed second in the 1,600 at 5:22.3 and 3,200 at 12:01.1 and third in the 800 at 2:27.9.

"I felt pretty good today. My coaches and friends helped me get here today, and we had such a good time at this meet in spite of the weather. I'm simply happy with my accomplishments and that of our team," said McCurdy.

The GL boys finished fourth with 44 points and were spearheaded by the champion javelin threesome of Brian Bergeski, Marty Moroney and Colin Price, while Andrew Whitney dominated to win the pole vault event at 13-0.

"I think this is almost like the triple crown in horse racing. You sweep the conference, county and the sectionals. I think it is a testimony to their hard work, their skill and their coaches," said a jubilant Head Coach Joe Hubert.

PUTTING ON THE POWER...Blue Devil senior Courtney Thornton crushed a two-run homer in the bottom of the first inning against the Linden Tigers.

the bases were cleared, junior Erin Corbett rocked a triple to keep Westfield's two-out rally alive. Westfield's next batter, Co-Captain Lindsay Guerrero slapped an RBI single to bring Linden's lead to one.

Thornton finished the day with two walks, three stolen bases and two RBI, while Corbett finished the day 3-for-4 with one RBI and one run scored.

That wild first inning was followed by six innings of keen defensive play. The Blue Devils managed just five more hits, including a run in the bottom of the seventh. The Tigers scored again in the second on a Rachel Hanns triple, then added another in the fourth. Afterwards, Bobertz yielded only two hits in the last three innings.

Although Westfield had a great season, their run in the state tournament was short lived.

"We didn't help ourselves. It took a bit for Sara to get going, but basically we have to win games like this and we didn't," said Blue Devil Head Coach Maggie McFadden.

Westfield will return all but two members of the varsity, so they hope to remain strong next year.

"It's tough to come off the field like this, but we had a good season," said McFadden.

PINIAT TRIPLES; BLOM, PENNELLA BUNT TO WIN Raiders Regroup, Roll Past Parsippany Softballers, 4-3

By DAVID B. CORBIN
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Regroup was what the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School softball team had to do after losing a tough, 3-0, game to Governor Livingston in the Union County championship game. Although it took a little while, the Raiders did just that, defensively and offensively, to grab a 4-3 win over Parsippany in the first round of the North Jersey, Section 2, Group 3 tournament in Scotch Plains on May 24.

"Actually, we were happy to get that far," said Raider pitcher Alicia Piniat of the county game. "But yes, it hurt. But we started from the top and got ready for the game today."

Piniat appeared to be battling with her concentration in the first two innings, yielding a walk in the first and three in the second - an unusually high amount for her. But Piniat and the Raiders quickly regrouped and held the Redskins - soon to be formerly the Redskins - scoreless for the remainder of the game.

The Raiders got out of a small jam in the top of the first when catcher Katie Church threw out Redskin Kristen Viscardo attempting to steal third. In the Raider half of the inning, Kellie LaForge smashed a double, moved to third on a single by Caitlin McNelis then scored on Church's sacrifice fly to deep center.

As a matter of fact, the Parsippany outfielders were playing the Raiders deep and their strategy was successful as they found themselves in the right position to pull down seven Raider long balls.

"They must have known that we were a long ball hitting team, especially Katie (Church) and Megan (Miller), because they were playing us very deep," Raider Head Coach Frank Butz pointed out.

The Redskins did get under Piniat's skin in the second and scored all three of their runs. Leadoff batter Jennifer Romano reached on an error, then retired the next batter but ceded two straight walks and an RBI single by Lindsey Kmit. After a fielder's choice, two more Redskins scored on a dropped fly in center.

After walking the next batter, Piniat avoided further damage by fanning the next.

"I was fighting a muscle spasm but I move the ball around a lot and was not getting the strike calls," explained Piniat.

McNelis singled and scooted to second on a throwing error in the third. Church slapped a single to left, Piniat walked and Katie Blom ricocheted an RBI single off the pitcher to narrow the score to 3-2.

With opportunities running shy, Piniat helped her cause in the bottom of the sixth by thumping a leadoff triple over the left fielder's head. With courtesy runner Laura Manzi on third, Blom bunted. Pitcher Kristen Viscardo fielded the ball, faked a throw to first and successfully caught Manzi in a rundown. In the meantime, an alert Blom scampered to second. Next, Blom darted to third on a passed ball, and Lindsay Pennella laid down a bunt. Viscardo faked again but then threw late to first and Blom scored. Shanaya Willis walked and Megan Reddington's pop up was caught by the second baseman, who then threw wide and out of play to first in an attempt to double up Willis. Pennella was awarded home with what proved to be the winning run.

"I was getting a lot of frustration off with that triple," commented Piniat.

"We had two errors and gave up three walks (in the second)," said Butz. "But we hung in there and our bats got going."

The Raiders improved to 18-6 while Parsippany fell to 14-10.
