Following a trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple resides in Rahway.

Commission Displays Kids' Poster Entries at Area Bank

SCOTCH PLAINS - This summer, the Scotch Plains Environmental Commission currently has entries from the commission's third annual children's poster contest on display at the Fleet Bank branch at 336 Park Avenue in Scotch Plains.

Held in April, this year's contest was based on the theme "Design a Postage Stamp for Earth Day."

Students from kindergarten through fifth grade, from both the Scotch Plains-Fanwood school system and Saint Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Interparochial School participated in the contest.

Winners were announced and received awards at a regular Scotch Plains Township Council meeting in June. The children's work, expressing their views on the environment, will be on display at the bank throughout the summer.

"There is a lot of talent expressed there in both thought and art," said

To Hold 55th Reunion

SPRINGFIELD - The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Class of 1947 will hold its 55th year reunion on Friday, October 18, at the Gran Centurions in Clark.

Anyone who attended Jonathan Dayton during the 1940s is welcome to come to the reunion.

For further information, please call Anne Greve at (908) 272-8796, Vivian Grate Moroli at (732) 381-3238 or Harry Kundrat at (908) 655-1873.

Brian Doyle, Chairman of the poster contest. "Our youngsters are growing up with a sense of importance about the environment and how they can help preserve it for future generations."

"It is in the hard work that each child puts forth and the encouragement of parents and teachers that make each year more special," added Commission Chairwoman Joanne Ryan.

"The members of the Scotch Plains Environmental Commission enthusiastically look forward to next year's poster contest," she said.

Fleet Bank has invited other interested groups to use its vestibule for community displays once the current poster exhibit has concluded.

In addition to the children who participated and their parents, the commission recently expressed its appreciation to Scotch Plains Mayor Martin Marks and the Township Council; Superintendent of Schools Dr. Carol Choye and the teachers of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood school system and St. Bartholomew's School; Fleet Bank, Mail Boxes Etc. of Scotch Plains for making copies of the entire entry form and Killam Associates for its donation.

CSH Earns Accreditation From Joint Commission

MOUNTAINSIDE - Children's Specialized Hospital (CSH) has achieved accreditation from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) as a result of its demonstrated compliance with the Joint Commission's nationally recognized health care standards.

Founded in 1951, the Joint Commission is dedicated to continuously improving the safety and quality of the nation's health care through voluntary accreditation.

The commission's on-site survey of CSH occurred in June, resulting in a score of 98 out of a possible 100.

"Above all, the national standards are intended to stimulate continuous, systematic and organization-wide improvement in an organization's performance and the outcomes of care," said Dr. Russell P. Massaro, Executive Vice President, Accreditation Operations, Joint Commission.

"The community should be proud that Children's Specialized Hospital is focusing on the most challenging goal - to continuously raise quality and safety to higher levels," he added. "We are very proud of the extra effort put forth by all of our staff, volunteers and physicians during the three-day survey," said Rex Riley, President and Chief Executive Officer of CSH.

An affiliate member of the Robert Wood Johnson Health System, CSH is the largest pediatric rehabilitation hospital in the United States.

CSH treats infants, children and young adults, from birth to 21 years of age, through a network of services including outpatient services, acute rehabilitation and long-term care at its facilities in Mountainside, Fanwood, Toms River, Elizabeth, Newark and Union, as well as its outreach programs in many communities.

Spend-A-Day to Hold Open House Sept. 18

BERKELEY HEIGHTS - SAGE Spend-A-Day Adult Day Health Center has invited the public to an Open House celebrating National Adult Day Services Week on Wednesday, September 18, from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

The free event will be held at Spend-A-Day's handicapped-accessible facility, located at 550 Springfield Avenue in Berkeley Heights, adjacent to the YMCA. Musical entertainment, refreshments and informational tours will be included.

During the week of September 15 to 21, adult day centers around the country will honor the professional and compassionate services provided to senior citizens by adult day care centers.
