Petty Officer Harris Returns After Mediterranean Voyage

SCOTCH PLAINS - United States Navy Petty Officer Second Class Wendy Harris, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Harris of Scotch Plains, recently returned home after a routine scheduled deployment to the Mediterranean Sea while assigned to the guided missile destroyer USS Gonzalez, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

Petty Officer Harris' ship was deployed along with the USS Cole and USS Thorn as part of Surface Strike Group 03-2 in support of the global war on terrorism and Operations Enduring Iraqi Freedom.

The primary mission of Petty Officer Harris' ship is to provide multi-mission offensive and defensive capabilities. The USS Gonzalez is capable of operating independently or as part of a carrier strike group. Its flexibility provides presence with a purpose and strike power to support joint and allied forces afloat and ashore.

Petty Officer Harris, a 1989 graduate of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, joined the Navy in May of 1990.

Airman Patrick Lilly

Airman Lilly Graduates Basic Military Training

SCOTCH PLAINS - Air National Guard Airman First Class Patrick T. Lilly recently graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Tex.

During six weeks of training, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization, military customs and courtesies; participated in drill and ceremony marches, physical training, rifle marksmanship and field training exercises, and was given special training in human relations.

Airman Lilly, the son of Thomas Lilly of Scotch Plains, graduated in 1997 from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. He received a bachelor's degree in 2002 from Pennsylvania State University in University Park, Pa.

Dr. Greene Headed Up WF Schools for Over 12 Years

By MIRIAM BAMBERGER
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Dr. Laurence Francis Greene, who served as the superintendent of the Westfield public school system from 1974 to 1986, passed away on Saturday, June 5, at the age of 82.

In 1974, Dr. Greene took office as Superintendent of the Westfield school district following the resignation of Dr. L.E. Law.

Dr. Greene gained a great deal of experience in the field of education prior to his nomination as Westfield Superintendent of Schools. Throughout his career, he taught different levels of school and held administrative positions in several districts in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. At the time of his nomination, Westfield Board of Education President Douglas J. Campbell was quoted in The Westfield Leader and The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Times as saying, "We consider him to be eminently qualified for the position."

Dr. Greene received his Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Boston College in 1944, and he served in the United States Navy from 1944 to 1946. He went on to obtain his Master of the Arts degree in English from Boston College and later his Doctor of Education degree from Harvard Graduate School of Education.

During his service to the Westfield school system, Dr. Greene was responsible for hiring Westfield High School Principal Dr. Robert Petix and current Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Foley.

Dr. Laurence Greene

Upon his retirement in 1986, after 12 and a half successful years of service to the school district, Dr. Greene was named an honorary member of the graduating class of Westfield High School of 1986.

Dr. Greene is survived by his wife of 57 years, Margaret Greene. He is also survived by his daughter, Helen Greene of Cranford, his son and daughter-in-law, Larry and Vivian Greene of New Hope, Pa., his daughter and son-in-law, Virginia and Kemal of Ankara, Turkey and five grandchildren, Daniel, James, Kevin, Gretchen and Lauren.

F-SP Rotary Club Awards Scholarships To Seniors

SCOTCH PLAINS - On May 26 at the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Scholarship Awards, the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Rotary Club awarded ten scholarships to top seniors for the Class of 2004. Chairman Robert Kraus and Vice Chairman Joseph Qutub presented the following awards:

Rotary/Garbe Scholarships have been given since 1955 to assist local students with "continuing education" expenses, a tradition started by Mr. and Mrs. William Garbe, founders of the awards. Mr. Garbe was a founding member and past president of the Westfield Rotary and the District Governor. More than 300 students from the Fanwood-Scotch Plains area have been assisted in getting their college degrees. This year's recipients will receive $1,000 for the next four years. They are: Michael Hessemer, Lehigh University; Daniel Kranz, Temple University; Laura Manzano, Delaware University; Scott Prober, James Madison University and Victoria Shelus, Tufts University.

The Dave Ringle Scholarship Fund was initiated by the Rotary Club to honor a long time, dedicated Club member, Dave Ringle, who passed away eight years ago. This is the sixth year that the fund has been able to award scholarships to the two top graduates from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. They are: Cheryl Kaplan, Valedictorian, who will receive $500 and Varun Ponnudi, Salutatorian, will receive $250.

The children's author from Plainfield, who left $1 million dollars for scholarships, established the Adele de Leeuw Foundation. Recipients of these scholarships must major in English, art, engineering, poetry or journalism and live or go to school in Plainfield, North Plainfield,

South Plainfield, Fanwood, Scotch Plains, Edison, Watchung or Warren. Financial need is also considered. Recipients from Fanwood-Scotch Plains High School are: Devon Bonstein, School of the Art Institute of Chicago; Michael Hessemer, Lehigh University; Christopher Russo, College of William and Mary University and Daniel Wasserman, Rutgers University.

Butler Made Assistant Corporate Secretary

NEWARK - Meg Butler of Westfield was elected assistant corporate secretary of Public Service Enterprise Group (PSEG), effective April 2004. In this position, she assists the corporate secretary in planning, coordinating and conducting meetings of the board of directors and its committees, the annual meeting of the shareholders and meetings of certain management committees. She also provides governance support to Enterprise and its subsidiary operations.

Ms. Butler is a graduate of Smith College, with a degree in economics, and earned her M.B.A. degree from Seton Hall University. ## Jeffrey's of Westfield Invites You to a Wine Tasting and Dinner Event

Jeffrey Rust, Chef-Owner of Jeffrey's of Westfield, 114 Central Avenue, Westfield, cordially extends an invitation to another of the restaurant's popular wine tasting and dinner on Monday, June 28, 2004 at 7 p.m.

The wine tasting will feature all white wines, perfect for summer enjoyment. The wines will be paired with a special six-course menu created and prepared by Jeffrey, along with his sous chef Richard Karyczak. Guest speaker Terence Salmon, of Michael Skurnik Wines will lead a discussion and tasting of the wines.

The evening will start with an assortment of hor d'oeuvres, paired with a N.V. Raventos Blanc Brut Cava Sparkling Wine, from Spain. Additional courses will be a Vegetable Terrine, Scallops baked in their shell with a Vidalia Onion Vinaigrette, Grilled Loin of Tuna with Vegetable Spring Roll and Asian Peanut Sauce, and a Pink Grapefruit and Orange Tart. Wineries represented will include Gini of Italy, Hiedler of Austria, Paul Blanck of Alsace, and Oremus of Hungary.

Jeffrey and Richard plan the wine tasting dinners to showcase the fine wines offered on the restaurant's wine list. The wine list currently consists of over 200 selections; all housed in a temperature controlled wine cellar. Jeffrey's of Westfield is pleased to announce that the restaurant is the recipient of a Wine Spectator Magazine Award of Excellence for the second year in a row. Jeffrey's is the only Westfield restaurant to be honored with this recognition. For the wine enthusiast, in addition to the Wine Tasting Dinners, Jeffrey's offers a varied and unique selection of wines by the glass each day.

The cost for the wine tasting and dinner is $78 per person. Advance reservations are required. Please call 908-232-4517 to make a reservation. For additional information about the dinner or the restaurant, please visit www.jeffreyswestfield.com.
