

MR. AND MRS. DAVID EDWARD CAVAN
(She is the former Miss Renée Marie Iannone)

Miss Renée M. Iannone Marries David E. Cavan

Miss Renée Marie Iannone, the daughter of Ms. Marie Iannone and Anthony Iannone of Utica, N.Y., was married on Saturday, September 18, to David Edward Cavan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cavan of Westfield.

The Reverend Stephen Gosnell officiated at the Nuptial Mass, which took place at St. Andrews by the Bay Catholic Church in Annapolis, Md.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin, strapless gown with crystal beaded trim. Her veil was ivory tulle trimmed with satin, and she carried red roses.

Mrs. Eve Fowler, a friend of the couple, was the vocalist and Cantor, and Ms. Ann Weeks of Westfield, a close friend of the Cavan family, sang "The Wedding Song."

Edward Winn, the bridegroom's godfather, and Edward Iannone and Ms. Lucille Puleo, the bride's godparents, presented the gifts of the Mass.

Friends Andrew Crowhurst, Joseph Puleo, Mrs. Janna Perry and Dana Cruikshank were the readers. The ceremony included an organist, trumpeter and bagpipers. A reception followed at the Historic Inns of Annapolis' Governor Calvert House.

Mrs. Rhonda Ruhm of Owego, N.Y. was the matron of honor for her sister. Ms. Colleen Cavan of Westfield, the sister of the bridegroom, Ms. Deanna Puleo of Utica, N.Y., a cousin of the bride, and Ms. Rhondie Voorhees of Washington, D.C., a friend of the bride, were bridal attendants. All wore harvest gold gowns and carried red roses.

Steven Cavan of Miami, Fla. was his brother's best man. Anthony Iannone of Utica, N.Y., the brother of the bride, and friends of the bridegroom Chad Brown of Eatontown and Adam McCann of Greensboro, N.C. served as groomsmen.

The bride received her bachelor's degree in International Business from American University in Washington, D.C. She is a District Manager and Vice President for Wachovia Bank.

The bridegroom attended Purdue University and earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and his master's degree in Childhood Psychology from Loyola College in Baltimore, Md. He is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor working in private practice and for a community agency in Annapolis, Md.

The parents of the bridegroom hosted a rehearsal dinner on the eve of the marriage at the Maryland Inn in Annapolis. A Sunday brunch, given by the father of the bride, was held at the Governor Calvert the morning following the wedding.

The bridal attendants gave a wedding shower in Utica, N.Y. Mrs. Eve Fowler and Mrs. Janna Perry hosted another shower in Annapolis, while a third was given by Cavan family friends Ms. Ann Weeks and Mrs. Carol Puffer in Westfield.

Following a two-week Hawaiian cruise and Maui vacation, the couple resides in Arnold, Md. and will move this month to the Atlanta, Ga. area.

Families Invited to Trailside For 'Dusk to Dark' Events

MOUNTAINSIDE - A new lineup of "Dusk to Dark" evening family workshops will be offered this winter at the Trailside Nature and Science Center, located at 452 New Providence Road in Mountainside.

"Owl Prowl," for families with children age six and older, will take place

Wednesday, January 26, from 7 to 8 p.m. Participants will learn about screech owls, great horned owls and barred owls that reside in the Watchung Reservation.

They will listen to the calls of these nocturnal birds, feel a real owl talon and discover the special adaptations that allow these animals to survive in the wild. Attendees also will view a brief slide presentation and take a short hike to known owl prowling grounds.

"Night Hike" will be presented on two Wednesdays, March 16 and March 30, from 7 to 8 p.m. Families with children of all ages will have an opportunity to explore the reservation and look for the homes and hideouts of local wildlife.

All "Dusk to Dark" programs require pre-registration, due to limited space. The fee for each program is $5 per person for Union County residents and $6 per person for out-of-county explorers.

For more information on these events or for a complete listing of winter programs and upcoming special activities, please call Trailside at (908) 789-3670. Trailside is a facility of the Union County Department of Parks and Recreation.
