ABOUT WESTFIELD SCHOOLS...
PREPARING STUDENTS TO REACH THEIR HIGHEST POTENTIAL

BY DR. WILLIAM FOLEY

Education is central to the pursuit of many goals and aspirations. We encourage these pursuits in Westfield and congratulate our students on attaining so many of their goals. Our students excel academically, in the arts and on the athletic field and go on to attend some of the best colleges in the country. A total of 94 percent of last year's graduates are continuing their higher education. Our High School Guidance Department has expanded the college research process for students and parents this year with a new software program that provides an overview of actual college admission statistics for Westfield's graduates. Continuing to improve guidance services is one of many important goals in the district's new Strategic Plan.

WESTFIELD SCHOOLS

Our efforts to improve learning are further strengthened through the district's new Technology Plan, which expands the use of technology within the curriculum, provides resources and training to teachers, and improves communication. We are in the process of developing the new district web site, which will be up and running soon. We've also increased our communications efforts by expanding our use of Channel 36 through a regularly scheduled WHS-TV program called Focus on Our Schools. This program runs several times a week, featuring one of our nine schools for an entire month.

Anyone who has watched the program can see the innovative teaching techniques that are applied in our classrooms everyday. We continue to train our teachers in differentiated instruction, so that every child's potential can be reached. We are exploring ways to bring more classified special education students, who are currently in out-of-district programs, back into the district. Next year we hope to pilot a program for kindergarten age autistic children.

Through renewed effort and commitment, we can continue the progress we have made in the Westfield Public Schools and achieve the results wanted by all of us: to prepare students to reach their highest potential and to become responsible citizens. I commend our staff, students, parent and community partners whose hard work has made that progress possible.
