Library Offers Students Self-Expression Activities

FANWOOD - The Fanwood Memorial Library Young Adult group has announced upcoming activities that will take place at the library as part of the Summer 2009 reading program, entitled "Express Yourself at the Library."

Students entering grades 6 to 12 will have an opportunity to express themselves in four ways, including fashion, photography, creative writing and cake decorating.

The Friends of the Fanwood Memorial Library invite those interested in fashion, sewing and designing their own clothes to come to the library and get a "Friends" T-shirt. They are asked to take it home, redesign it and return it by Friday, July 31. The new designs will be showcased at the library, with voting on favorites to be held at an end-of-summer party.

The library is sponsoring a photography contest, in which students are asked to take a picture of something in Fanwood or Scotch Plains and submit it to the library for consideration. The first-place winner will receive a $25 gift certificate. Some submissions will be on display in August. Entries must be submitted by July 31.

Those interested in poetry and short-story writing are invited to come to the library on Tuesday, July 7, from 5 to 6 p.m. for an hour of creative writing. This program will be held again on Tuesday, July 21, from 5 to 6 p.m. Sign-ups currently are underway.

On Thursday, July 30, from 4 to 5 p.m., students are invited to learn how to decorate a cupcake in the Fanwood Room. Registration currently is underway.

Additionally, the library has joined with the WWE to participate in the SummerSlam Reading Jam, which is part of President Obama's "United We Serve" campaign.

The library has 25 posters to be distributed to the first 25 patrons, ages 10 to 18, who take out two books at the library. Each poster is numbered. On Friday, July 17, two poster numbers will be drawn, with the winners each receiving a free trip to attend WWE's SummerSlam pay-per-view event in Los Angeles, Calif. on Sunday, August 23.

The library is located at North Avenue and Tiltolston Road. For more information on these activities, call the library at (908) 322-6400.
