for the Blue Devils in the fourth. Danny Kerr whacked a leadoff single and Joe Ondi followed with a hit-and-run single past first, as Kerr sped to third. Ondi stole second to put runners on second and third with no outs. Forgash grounded out to third and Johnson walked to load the bases. Raider pitcher Bayroff then chose the right time to record his first and second strikeouts to escape the inning. The Blue Devils also had a bases loaded situation in the sixth with two outs. Johnson, on third, scored on a wild pitch but Howarth managed to strike out the next batter.

"That's the game right there! We had second and third, nobody out and we couldn't get the ball out of the infield. Forgash hit a slow ground ball then we had two strikeouts after that. That was an inning we had the opportunity. We also had an opportunity in the sixth but we couldn't score," said coach Miller. "This was our last game with them this year. We are going to have to wait a whole year to play them again. If you can't get up for a game with Scotch Plains, you can't get up for a game at all."

Westfield's Meiselman uncorked an RBI double in the bottom of the inning.

"The kids came out flat. They just were not themselves today. We threw our best pitcher tonight and he just did not have his best stuff. We did not make the plays we needed to make. The wheels came off in that fourth inning. There's a booted ball. The pitcher got a little wild and that just starts to feed off of itself. They're better than that and hopefully we come back against Warren tomorrow and play a good game," said Westfield White Head Coach Mike Varano.

In a head-to-head final that was not decided until the top of the sixth inning, the Devil Rays of the Westfield International League came out on top and won the division championship, 13-5, over the Dodgers on June 12.

The Rays, under Head Coach Nick Rizzi, plated nine runs in the sixth inning. Pat Woods' timely hitting and Tyler Jakubek's crafty base running kept the game close up to that point. The rally began with walks to Michael Healy and TJ Kohler. After some heads-up base running, Healy scored the tying run. Big hitters for the Rays that inning included Mike Proskur, J. Mack Rembisz, Jacob Kurstedt, Dan Gigon, Sean Gallagher, Matt Macik, Evan Steinfield and Nicholas Rizzi, who all drove in runs. Catchers Robbie Suriano, Rizzi and Gigon supported pitchers Macik and Healy.

"Throughout the playoffs, it was really great that all the players contributed," said Coach Rizzi. "This championship was truly a team effort."

WF White 10s Top Warren In District Tournament, 15-2

After a disappointing showing in Game 1 of the Babe Ruth District Tournament, the Westfield White 10s came back to top Warren, 15-2, in Game 2 at Memorial Field in Scotch Plains.

Pitcher Connor Scanlon immediately set the tone of the game by striking out the side in the bottom of the first. Over four innings, he faced only 15 batters, striking out six and walking only two.

Warren threatened in the second with a walk and a bloop infield single then shortstop Alex Pansini made a heads-up play on a ground ball, tagging the runner advancing to third then firing to Matt Varano at second to complete the double play. A ground ball to third ended the inning.

Warren scored its two runs in the bottom of the fourth on a walk and two line drive singles, but another heads-up defensive play by White nailed the runner trying to advance to second on the base hit. By that time, White had already sealed the deal with 15 runs, nine coming in the fourth.

White scored in all four innings, every player reached base, and all scored at least one run. Charlie Baldwin drew three walks. Varano (3-for-4, 4 RBI), Pansini (2-for-3, 3 RBI) and Scanlon (2-for-3, 2 RBI) all had doubles and Owen Ripberger went 3-for-3 and scored twice. First baseman Jack Meiselman contributed with two doubles and two RBI. Centerfielder Hannah Liddy, nursing a broken toe, cheered from the dug-out.

DOUBLES CHAMPS...The Westfield Tennis Association (WTA) had its eighth annual doubles tournament on June 27. Seven teams were fielded. Stan Klaus and Francisco Franco derailed Peter Magierski and Macjek Majewski, 6-3, 6-2. Steve Gamboi and Vivek Patel outlasted Weldon Chin and Guy Levy, 8-2, for third place. Other teams participating were: Mike McGlynn and Peter Lee, Bill Wilhelm and Mike Gonnella, and Joshua Suri and Chris Farella.
