More Education News Montessori Students Partner with Homefirst

WESTFIELD-SCOTCH PLAINS - Even the youngest of children can appreciate the joys of helping others, as proven by the Christopher Academy Community Project participants from Scotch Plains and Westfield.

Students from both campuses partnered with the Homefirst program, a service that provides summer camp for homeless children. Students compiled tote bags with camp necessities, including towels, journals and pencils, for the children Homefirst serves.

Bilheimer Earns Dean's List Recognition

WESTFIELD - Evan Dodge Bilheimer, a senior majoring in history and chemistry at the University of Rochester, has been named to the dean's list for academic achievement in the College of Arts, Sciences and Engineering for the fall 2008 semester.

A resident of Westfield, Evan is the son of Dr. Susan Kaye and a graduate of Westfield High School.

WF's Prisco Graduates Del. Valley College

WESTFIELD - Dorothy Prisco, vice president for academic affairs and dean of the faculty at Delaware Valley College, announced that Justine Palme of Westfield was among the college's list of May graduates.

Delaware Valley College is a comprehensive four-year college in Doylestown, Pa.

LADIES IN WHITE...Oak Knoll School of the Holy Child held its 81st commencement ceremony on Sunday, June 7, in Summit. The graduates kept with school tradition and donned white gowns and gloves, and carried yellow roses. Pictured, left to right, are area graduates: Erin Kelly of Scotch Plains, who will attend Wake Forest University; Catherine Verdic of Scotch Plains, who will attend Loyola College in Maryland, and Sarah Dwyder of Westfield, who will attend Swarthmore College. One hundred percent of Oak Knoll graduates enter four-year colleges or universities.

garten students also reached out on a personal level, composing handwritten cards for the soon-to-be campers.

The Christopher Academy, founded in 1963, was the first Montessori school in New Jersey and is known for a customized teaching plan that allows each child to grow and achieve at his or her own pace. It now has campuses in Scotch Plains and Westfield.

May's community service project was just one part of the ongoing Montessori Peace Curriculum that teaches kindness, respect, grace, courtesy and concern for the earth every day.

"We are especially proud of our students, some of whom are under 3-years-old. The Montessori Peace Curriculum teaches children to be good citizens and respect friends, the community and the world around us," said Amelia McManey, Head of School of the Christopher Academy Montessori School.

Inspired by the current economic climate, the Community Service Committee of Christopher Academy partnered with Homefirst, a leader in eradicating homelessness. Through this partnership, children in need will be integrated into Christopher Academy's camp environment, benefiting from a variety of activities developed using the Montessori model.

In addition to Music, Movement and Creative Arts and Crafts, campers will learn to use computers and enjoy picnics, water days, dress-up days and a July 4 celebration.

Bramnick Holds Second Annual Photo Contest

WESTFIELD - Assemblyman Jon Bramnick announced his second annual Summer Photo Contest in hopes of encouraging amateur photographers to capture the beauty of New Jersey.

There will be three categories for this year's competition: New Jersey Shore, State Parks and Wildlife. The contest is open to all ages and entries will be accepted until the September 4 deadline. Contestants should submit their work via e-mail to asmbarnick@nleg.org.

"There was so much enthusiasm for last year's contest with hundreds of submissions, we decided to make it an annual event," Assemblyman Bramnick said. "I was truly impressed by the talent and creativity shown by all the contestants."

With three categories, shutterbugs can take their cameras to the boardwalks, beaches and amusement parks to portray life down the shore, or they can go on the trails at the state park, historic sites or even their own backyards to photograph their favorite crit-
