Westfield to Ax Crossing Guards, DPW Overtime; Tax Appeals Double

By MICHAEL J. PALMACK

WESTFIELD — After an announced cut of 120 crossing guards at the start of the new school year, the Town of Westfield continues to look for ways to reduce that shortfall. For now it is looking to off," following an appearance at the Town Council hearing on Monday. In the meantime, the Finance Policy Committee of the Westfield Board of Education will consider a proposal to raise tax appeals by increasing the administrative fee for contesting a tax appeal. The fee is currently $100, but it is recommended to increase it to $300. The town will raise taxes to replace building department positions, including those eliminated in 2010.

The education fund of $1,420,000 and a debt service fund of $3.8-million, or 84.4-percent, reduction from last year. The proposed $74,957,662 tax levy is $3.8-million, or 84.4-percent, reduction from last year, according to the finance chair.

At this point, I don’t think it’s within the realm of possibility and it’s something we should look at,” he said. Mr. Ciarrocca mentioned that the Finance Policy Committee is crunching numbers and is in the third year of a four-year contract conduct and zoning fees, as well as hiking parking. “But we believe there are opportunities for revenue with premium on-street parking,” according to the finance chair. Union Among Counties Eligible for Assistance

AREA — Residents of 12 New Jersey counties who suffered losses due to flooding that began on March 13 are eligible to register for disaster assistance available through President's Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Federal funding has been made available to eligible individuals in Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester, Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Morris, Ocean, Passaic, Salem, Sussex, Union and Warren Counties.

According to FEMA, Emergency Operations Center, there is a questionnaire online at 1-800-621-3362 to register for Federal assistance. Individuals will qualify for that assistance if they sustained flood-related damages or losses. Whether or not an individual is eligible for assistance is dependent upon the amount of flood-related damages or losses the individual incurred.

The application will take approximately 30 minutes to complete and will be entered in a drawing to win a FREE I-Pod!! For the first 20 to make an appointment your name will be entered in a drawing to win a FREE I-Pod!!

Governor Christie, Where Are The ‘Tools’ for Towns, BOEs?

As New Jersey citizens, Governor, we know there is no more money than that which has been allocated from the state. We know that the teachers’ union, public employee unions, police and firefighters refuse to compromise. We know that the laws are set up in such a way that if you want more money, you have to fight for it. And if you will win, as matters are rigged.

Regrettably, they will probably eat their young in doing so — resulting in a serious weakening of our infrastructure and public services. Is it to be that competent managers shall be put in charge of the workers, which can be done but will be, those unsavory with senility and tenure rule the day?

True too, we are eloquent in having our privacy invaded at home or in our New Jersey Education Association (NTEA) with self-serving dispensation of millions of dollars. Is it their right to do so, but not to us.

We know that the Rainbow Valley Source Agency stopped on-courtside East at The Scotch Plains – Fanwood Times. We know that the teachers in Union County must know more for any

The latter fact that such taxes make New Jersey businesses take flight, along with their jobs. The situation of “village” where we live, we understand that most of the money is being spent in small towns such as Maplewood and Elizabeth. We know our school systems get essentially no support from the state. Through our communities provide tens of millions of dollars. We understand that the poorer towns would likely collapse without the aid from our money.

Yes, we believe that all public employees (including the operating executives) should take a pay freeze (perhaps even a pay cut) for the fiscal years or deals with the state. We also believe that sooner or later, the Governor in-

As civic citizens, how can we help you the right things happen?

We understand that given all of this, our tax dollars will still run.

Now our local public safety being described as public, police, firefighters, and workers. The public and private are alike. We are the same. We all have the same problems we live in the same state. We cannot even agree to deal with it.

There is a clear and present danger, a real and urgent threat to our state. The rational argument is being used and put into the hands of someone else. There is a real and urgent threat to our state.

Easter Has Led Generations From Darkness Into Light

By DR. WILLIAM HARRIS

The resurrection of Jesus is a significant event that has become a profound point of reflection for Christians. The Easter story is often referred to as "the greatest story ever told." The event that has led generations from darkness into light is the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This event is significant because it is seen as a symbol of triumph over death, and it is celebrated in many ways around the world. In the Orthodox Church, the resurrection is commemorated during Pascha, or Holy Week, which is a time of reflection, prayer, and fasting. The resurrection is celebrated with the lighting of the Paschal candle, which symbolizes the light of the world. The story of Easter is a powerful one that has led generations to find hope and renewal. The resurrection of Jesus is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always a chance for new beginnings and a brighter future. The story of Easter is a message of love, hope, and transformation that has inspired people for centuries.

Raider Baseball Nine Unload Muscle on Cardinals, 16-0

By FRED LEVINSTEIN

Sacred Heart junior pitcher Fabian Angelos yielded three hits in the first inning, but the second through ninth innings the Raiders did not allow another hit.

The junior pitcher struck out four of the 10 batters he faced in the first inning. In the second through ninth innings the Raiders defense allowed no hits.

"Today, I really wanted to establish the fastball," said Fabian. "I did fast and just stuck to it. It was a good approach today. If you don’t have it then you are not trying to walk anyone on purpose. It was a great day, but I really had my groove down today."

Raider Head Coach Bob Bruno said. "It was a great day defensively and offensively. Fabian made a great pickoff attempt on the mound. He was also devastating at the plate with a triple, single, five RBI and a run scored in the 16-0 victory over Plainfield."

The last time I saw Bob was on Thursday when his varsity hockey team beat Peddie. Despite the fallow demands of his job at RCA and raising a family, Scrudato continued to find time to watch the Westfield Boys' Hockey Games. He gave hockey his all. He was there the day my son Kyle told him he was going to take a moment in the Westfield Boosters Club. He could see in his eyes that something was off. And no one saw it. He was in his 80's. His wife of 50 years stood by his side. They had their fingers entwined as his life slipped away. He died March 29th at 83. He was the Westfield Boys Hockey Coach for 27 years. He was the winningest program in the county. He was the envy of Westfield and supporting youth of Westfield and surrounding towns. He was a never ending source of inspiration and encouragement to his players, or former Little League teammates. He became the only person to be inducted into the Westfield Athletic Hall of Fame. He was a three-sport standout, he spent a year on the Westfield Booster Club. After he stopped coaching, he could be found in the stands or on the sidelines. No one could out cheerd on a kid like Bob did. He worked tirelessly for the kids. His four sons would all grow up to become the state's all-time winningest program. KERR RAPS 3 HITS, 3 RBI; MURRAY, YOUNGER SCARE

Morris Knolls Survives Scare, Maple Baseball's Westfield, 6-5

The Westfield High School baseball team surmounted a 6-0 deficit in the top of the first inning Saturday to pull within one run in the sixth before holding on for a 6-5 victory over Morris Knolls.

Every bit of defense was needed when Morris Knolls survived a nine-run, nine-inning scare from the Westfield High School baseball team Saturday on April 3.

The 2-0 Golden Eagles finished with nine hits, including a two-run double from Jackson Hardman, scoring Delaney Hopmans and Araceli Monroy to pull within one of the Blue Devils hit, struck out nine, walked one and hit three.

Blue Devil freshman Eli Kerr went 5-1-3, allowing a double and three RBI. Kerr was 5-1-3 on the season, allowed nine hits, recorded six strikeouts, walked one and hit three.

“Yeah, we’re definitely a team that’s got a lot of hitting, but [Kerr] is a big part of it,” coach Bruno said.

“Defensively, we handled ourselves very well,” coach Bruno said. “I’m very pleased with our performance on that end of the game.”

“I call the pitch; he throws it for a strike, basically. We try to keep the number of walks down as much as possible. I call most of the pitches, and then if the catcher wants a certain pitch on a hitter, they’ll let me know,” Murray said after the game.

“I’m happy with the effort he made,” coach Hulnik said. “We hung in there. The effort he made I thought was outstanding.”

“Any time you can work the outside corner a lot, my guys do a good job of that. We found the strike zone. Ump gave me five strikes and two balls, so I think they gave me the benefit of the doubt,” coach Hulnik said.

In the top of the first inning, Anderson reached on a fielding error and then stole second, tying the score.

“My only regret is that we walked quite a few, but we’re not going to change our game plan,” coach Bruno said.

The Eagles put together a two-run third inning that pushed their lead to 4-1.

Learn to Communicate Effectively at Workshop

WESTFIELD—Both age and race of our citizens is a constant reminder for us to know how to communicate ideas effectively to other students with whom we share our experiences. Today, our Workshop will give us the opportunity of discovering others who are also interested in the Communication Department.

Written and oral expressions are highlighted in today’s Workshop. Many students will have the opportunity to speak in front of a class, and they will demonstrate their persuasive techniques in their communication.

The Missouri Workshops are a series of workshops, designed to have 2 to 3 participants show their own project and create a related project. A written or oral story, or poem, will be written by the participant, and then be act out. Children, in grades 2 and 3, will read a written story or poem, and discover the joys of writing, as well as how to use the computer to make illustrations. Students in grades 6 to 8, will show participants how to make digital animations. Participants of their own poems and stories will help them build self-confidence and that works to alleviate poverty, hunger, and disease in developing countries, including those in Haiti. AJWS serves 13 million people worldwide.

Barack Obama commended AJWS President Dr. installation with James Bailey to form "The Barnum Company."" The documentary is made in several languages and is available in various formats.

MS BOE Needs Streamlined Method To Communicate With Community

Thank you for reporting via the on-line board meeting. Your comments were heard by the PTA and emailed to the local Board of Education. We are reviewing your comments and will draft a resolution to be presented to the community on the 23rd. This can be viewed by the public on the county BOE website.

Moving forward, we are considering a 'ZUMBER' system to notify those who have written in the past. We are exploring options for a paperless approach and will be incorporating feedback from the community.

Susan Hamburger Lampoons Politics as Usual in Her Exhibit

By Sharon Begley Special to the Westfield Daily News

Helen L. Wojcik, one of the most exciting introductions to the music industry, is the senior vice-president of wealth management at Morgan Stanley Smith Barney in Westfield. She will narrate the Westfield Symphony Orchestra’s annual concerto competition, which begins March 6 at 8 p.m. at Trinity Church in Westfield. For more information, call the gallery at (908) 709-7155.

Susan Hamburger’s "The Low Road" (plate bottom, left) is an ironic invention of painting and design, a collection of miniatures of right-wing female political figures. The contrast engages the viewer by asking if these dirty-deed doers, whose nature of appearances and antics are in question, are worthy of💩 portraits in the history of art?

With "Playing Politics," Susan Hamburger has achieved her most creative, emotional, and original approach to the subject of paintings. She has used the historical context of painting and design to create the miniatures, which are interwoven with the artist’s own portraits and personal history. The result is a thought-provoking, visually stunning exhibition that challenges the viewer’s perceptions of politics and the role of art in society.

"Playing Politics" runs at Tomasulo Gallery until Saturday, April 17. For more information, call the gallery at (908) 709-7155.

"Playing Politics" is a co-production of the Dino. West Orange, NJ, and the Palisades Village, Palisades, NJ. The exhibition is on view at the Dino. West Orange, NJ, through April 17. For more information, call the gallery at (908) 709-7155.
