

College Club Reveals Sale Of Community Calendar

SCOTCH PLAINS – The College Club of Fanwood-Scotch Plains has announced that the club's annual Community Calendar, now in its 47th year of publication, is available for purchase. Sales of the calendar enable the club to award scholarships to young women in Fanwood and Scotch Plains to obtain a college education.

The calendar provides information and dates for school events throughout the 2010-2011 year. Additionally, various community telephone numbers and addresses are printed on the back cover. Finally, coupons can be found on each monthly page to be used at the business providing the coupon.

This year's calendar cover is dedicated to Aunt Betty Frazee, the Colonial homemaker whose courage during an encounter with British troops who asked for bread established her status as a local heroine. The College Club joined forces with the Rotary Club of Fanwood-Scotch Plains to honor the Frazee House restoration effort led by the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Rotary Frazee House, Inc. (www.frazeehouse.org), with artwork prepared by Scotch Plains-Fanwood schools' third-grade students.

This year's cover contest winning entry was created by Scotch Plains resident Nicole Tavares, age 9, who will be a fourth grader at William J. McGinn Elementary School this month. Nicole was inspired to include her vision of Aunt Betty Frazee and her home in her drawing after a school field trip to the actual Frazee home located in Scotch Plains. Honorable mention recipients included Elisabeth Mannelte, Aubrey Bagdonas, Rachel Tang and Raditya Tantra.

Calendars are available for purchase through club members and at Irma's Hallmark, Apple Blossom, Scotch Plains Recreation Department, Scotch Hills Pharmacy, Young's Paint and Varnish, the Scotch Plains Public Library and the Fanwood Memorial Library.

Westfield Rotary Club Posts September Meeting Topics

WESTFIELD – The Rotary Club of Westfield has announced its program topics for September. The club meets 50 weeks per year, from 12:15 to 1:30 p.m., for lunch and a program in the second-floor Kellogg Room at the Westfield Area "Y," located at 220 Clark Street in Westfield. Guests are welcome at any of the club's weekly meetings.

"What's So Good About Grief," featuring Mary Robinson, will be the topic September 7. Ms. Robinson is president and founder of Good Grief, Inc. in Summit, a grief support and resource center for children, teens, young adults and their parents who are coping with loss due to death. Ms. Robinson will share, among other things, strategies for coping with grief and loss at home and in the workplace. For more information, visit good-grief.org.

"Eye on China" will be the program September 14. Dr. Chung Kun Shih of Scotch Plains, a recently retired engineer and photography enthusiast, will present a two-part program highlighting photographs from his international travels. Some of Dr. Shih's framed photos also will be on display.

"Rotary District 101" will be the program September 21. Assistant Governor of Rotary District 7510, Joe Steiner, from the Summit/New Providence Club, will offer a light-hearted look at the district in order to provide some insight into what the district does, its goals for the year and why Rotarians should get involved. "Presenting Your Image in Print" will be the topic September 28. Liz Ensslin, owner and president of The Inkwell, will explain how to best capture one's image in printed materials. Ms. Ensslin has been a marketing professional for more than 25 years. For more information, visit theinkwellusa.com.

Anyone interested in attending a program or learning more about Rotary in Westfield may contact Ray Kostyack, president, at (908) 789-7834 or raymond.kostyack@wachoviasec.com, or visit westfieldrotary.com.

Drama Workshop to Extend Into Fall

FANWOOD — Les Minski's Tuesday night drama workshop at the Fanwood Memorial Library, located at North Avenue and Tillotson Road, will be extended into the fall. New participants are welcome. Mr. Minski is an actor, director and Broadway performer.

The workshop is open to both experienced actors or actresses and those persons who have never tried acting before. Participants will work on audition monologues to tackle problem roles they have wanted a second shot at, to cut to the bone and make scenes and performances more impactful, or to push their limits.

The workshop is held in the Fanwood Room of the library from 7:15 to 8:45 p.m. on Tuesday nights.

While there is no fee for the class, participants will need to spend time working outside of class. Class members must be 18 or older. Participants may bring scenes and scripts with them to class.

Mr. Minski is a Fanwood resident who performed for the library this past Valentine's Day with his wife, Ann, in A.R. Gurney's Love Letters. He also directed A View From The Bridge and Social Security at the Carriage House in Fanwood, as well as The Sisters Rosensweig, Sly Fox and The Guys at Circle Players in Piscataway.

Mr. Minski has studied acting and directing with George DiCenzo, Polly Holliday and Milton Katselas in New York City.

He also created the role of the Marquis St. Evremonde for both the world premiere and Broadway productions of Jill Santoriello's A Tale of Two Cities, The Musical.

WE'RE BACK...Redeemer Lutheran School's Club Summer staff included three school alumni, from left, Elizabeth Minski, Jeremy Frusco and Julie Wagenblast. All three attended Redeemer's Four-Year-Old program, its kindergarten and summer camp. Elizabeth attends Rutgers University, while Jeremy and Julie attend The College of New Jersey, but the trio enjoyed a reunion as staffers at Club Summer in Westfield.

Garwood Library Schedules Activities For This Month

GARWOOD – With the start of September, the Garwood Public Library has announced a new slate of activities and encourages patrons to either apply for a library card or renew an old one. This also can be done at any other time during the year. Renewal of an old card is free; patrons just need to bring it in and it will be updated. If a card is lost, there is a $2 charge for replacement.

The library will be closed Saturday through Monday, September 4 to 6, for the observance of Labor Day. Saturday hours will begin again on September 11, after the summer hiatus. Starting that day, the library will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The library is located at 411 Third Street, at the corner of Walnut Street.

On Monday, September 13, at 7 p.m., graphologist Bernice Kreiger will examine visitors' handwriting samples and tell what the samples say about an individual. Registration is required.

On Thursday, September 16, Dr. Angus Gillespie, author of "The Twin Towers: The Life of New York City's World Trade Center," will present a program at 7 p.m. about the two towers that were destroyed on September 11, 2001. Registration is required.

The Garwood Book Club will meet at 1 p.m. on Monday, September 20. Book details are available on the library's website: youseemore.com/garwood.

The International Club will meet on Saturday, September 25, at 10 a.m., when participants will "take a trip" to Egypt.

Internationally known tenor Salvatore Chiarelli will present "From Italy With Love," a program of Italian love songs, musical theater favorites and American love ballads, on Tuesday, September 28, at 7 p.m. Registration is required.

Toddler Story Time will resume on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. beginning September 15.

Movie Time! will resume on Fridays at 10 a.m. on September 10. Refreshments are provided or participants may bring their own.

Golden Agers Announces Officers For Club Year

SCOTCH PLAINS – The Golden Agers Club will start another year on Thursday, September 9, with newly re-elected officers President Jean DeTore, Vice-President Jeanette Rotella, Treasurer Mary DeJesso and Secretary Ilse Heinemeyer. Special events, speakers, luncheons, bingo, crafts, cards and trips are among planned club activities for the upcoming months.

The Golden Agers will start the new trip year by visiting Atlantic City's Bally's Casino on Wednesday, September 15. Tickets are $25, with a play voucher of $25. The bus will leave at 10 a.m. that day from the Scotch Hills Country Club parking lot, located at Plainfield Avenue and Jerusalem Road in Scotch Plains. All are welcome.

On Thursday, October 7, the club will travel to Lakeside Manor in Hazlet to celebrate Columbus Day with Jimmy Merchants Big Band. The cost of $60 will cover the bus ride, an Italian luncheon, drinks of choice, dessert and all gratuities. The bus will leave from the Scotch Hills Country Club at 10 a.m. that day.

The Golden Agers Club offers senior citizens a chance to meet with their peers, share ideas, interact and gather useful information to enhance daily living. The club meets weekly on Thursdays at 10 a.m., from September through June, at the Scotch Hills Country Club.

Members are invited to provide suggestions for activities, and free luncheons are available at least one week during each month. Special speakers discuss health, better living and other topics.

Membership, theater, musical reviews and fun activity trips are available to everyone. For trip details, call Jean DeTore at (908) 889-4121 or Mary DeJesso at (908) 654-4512. Membership details are available by calling Marge Van Duyn at (908) 889-4631.

Garwood Seniors Club Plans Meeting Today

GARWOOD – The Garwood Senior Citizens Club will hold its next meeting today, Thursday, September 2, at noon at the Garwood Firehouse on South Avenue.

After welcoming members, President Harry Mc Kasson will call on all committees for their reports. Trip Coordinator Walter Maszcak has planned a trip to Doolan's in Spring Lake for Wednesday, October 6, for an "Oktoberfest" celebration. This will feature a menu with sauerbraten included, plus a one-hour open bar.

The cost per person is $45. The bus will leave from the Garwood Firehouse at 10:15 a.m. and return at approximately 5 p.m. The show will include an All-Star Show Band, as well as a comedian.

Club members celebrating birthdays during September include Betty Christopher, Pat DiFabio, Marjorie Kennedy and Emily Persichino.

POLICE BLOTTER

Westfield

Monday, August 23, Adam S. Krell, 21, of Westfield was arrested and charged with criminal attempt/burglary to a motor vehicle, pursuant to a police investigation of an activated motor vehicle alarm on Lawrence Avenue near Woods End Road. Krell was transported to Westfield police headquarters, where a further investigation revealed multiple motor vehicle burglary/theft incidents for which the suspect is believed responsible. Bail was set at $25,000 for the criminal charges, plus $105 for a Dealboro warrant on which the suspect also was arrested. He was held in lieu of bail.

Monday, August 23, a motor vehicle burglary was reported on the 100 block of Barchester Way. Multiple bank deposit slips were taken from the vehicle, which was parked in the owner's driveway at the time.

Tuesday, August 24, a motor vehicle burglary was reported on the 100 block of Winchester Way, while the vehicle was parked in the owner's driveway. Fifteen blank Citibank checks, along with a black vinyl cover for the checks, were stolen.

Thursday, August 26, Miguel D. Carinhas, 29, of Newark was arrested at Westfield police headquarters on an outstanding Westfield warrant in the amount of $178. He was released after posting bail.

Thursday, August 26, Alexis Gonzalez, 25, of Plainfield was arrested at Westfield police headquarters on outstanding warrants from Westfield and Scotch Plains, with a total bail amount of $203. Gonzalez was released after processing and posting bail.

Saturday, August 28, Benjamin Thomas, 21, of Poughquag, N.Y. was arrested during a motor vehicle stop on the 200 block of South Avenue, West, on warrants from Westfield, in the amount of $106; Hanover, $290, and Mountainside, $81. Thomas was released after posting bail on all three warrants.

Saturday, August 28, a resident of the 600 block of Lawnside Place reported an incident of identity theft.

Monday, August 30, Nina Scepanovic, 25, of Chatham was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated (DWI) and refusal to submit to a breath test following a motor vehicle accident that occurred on Central Avenue near Myrtle Avenue. She was transported to Westfield police headquarters, where she was processed and then released to a responsible individual.

Mountainside

Tuesday, August 24, Taji I. Slade, 20, of Irvington was arrested for allegedly driving with a suspended license and on an outstanding warrant out of Newark after a motor vehicle stop on Route 22. He was transported to police headquarters, processed and released.

Wednesday, August 25, a resident of Central Avenue reported being the victim of criminal mischief after someone threw approximately 12 eggs at her house, causing damage.
