

WESTFIELD SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Westfield Symphony Orchestra is a premier, fully professional symphony orchestra. Founded in 1983, WSO has grown to become New Jersey's second largest professional orchestra, having a presence throughout the cultural communities of New Jersey, and appearing as far afield as NYC's Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall on a regular basis.

Now moving into its 29th season, with multiple performances each year, WSO, led by renowned Music Director David Wroe, is viewed as one of the cultural jewels of the metropolitan area. Cited by the Star Ledger as "the leading professional freelance orchestra in NJ," WSO is recognized by the NJ State Council on the Arts as a Distinguished Arts Organization and is the resident orchestra of Union County. In addition to an adventurous subscription season, popular concerts near and far, and a rousing New Year's Eve celebration, the WSO sponsors educational and music therapy programs throughout the state of New Jersey.
