Junior shortstop/three-year starter Sean Feeney had a .444 avg. (36-for-81, 5 doubles, 3 triples, 12 walks), while scoring 30 runs and adding 17 RBI.

"He played third last year. We moved him to shortstop this year. His triple in the state final helped us get started," Coach McCaffrey said.

Junior first baseman Alex Plick finished with a .261 avg. (18-for-69, 2 doubles). He had 13 runs scored and five RBI and drew nine walks and six hit-by-pitches. On the mound for 17 innings, he finished 1-2 with 10 strikeouts and allowed eight walks and 24 hits.

Sophomore centerfielder Tommy Trotter finished the season with more bruises than his teammates, receiving 11 hit-by-pitches to go with nine free passes. Trotter went 28-for-68 (.412 avg.) with three doubles and only five strikeouts, 11 RBI, 16 runs scored and five stolen bases. Senior designated hitter Sean McGovern finished with a .344 avg. (22-for-64, 5 doubles, triple) with 21 RBI, 13 runs scored and five sacrifices.

Junior George Georgeadis had 12 hits (5 doubles) to finish with a .250 avg., while adding seven runs, 10 walks and three RBI. Junior John Armstrong contributed three hits, including a double, and a run scored. Armstrong pitched 15.33 innings, fanned 13, walked three and allowed eight hits to finish 2-0 with a 0.91 ERA.

"We will enjoy this year and take next year as it comes. Anybody is fortunate to win a championship. It is a credit to the community, the parents, the Cranford Baseball League and the administration," Coach McCaffrey said.
