William Luce Rand, 74, Had Been Corporate Executive, Avid Golfer

William Luce Rand, 74, passed away Tuesday, October 23, 2012, at Overlook Medical Center in Summit.

William was born in Rahway and lived in Scotch Plains, with corporate moves to Johnstown, N.Y., San Juan, Puerto Rico and Canandaigua, N.Y.

He was a graduate of Lehigh University, majoring in industrial engineering, and earned a Masters in Management Science degree from Stevens Institute of Technology. He then attended New York University in the Ph.D. program in Business Administration.

When he joined Johnson & Johnson he began a period of 47 years working in the pharmaceuticals and cosmetic industry in engineering, operations and general management positions. He established a tax-exempt corporation in Puerto Rico with Squibb Corporation. Subsequently he moved into the cosmetics industry, first with Revlon, and then with the Japanese company, Shiseido, where he was president of a United States subsidiary. He finished his career with Estee Lauder as Vice-President of Global Engineering.

Over the years, he and his family were active members of various Presbyterian churches. He was an ordained Deacon and Elder and was a member of the Committee on Ministry for the Elizabeth Presbytery. He was a member of The Presbyterian Church in Westfield, where he was a devoted volunteer for the Agape Program, a weekly meal program in Elizabeth.

Beginning as captain of the Rahway High School golf team, he never lost his love of the sport and was an active member of Echo Lake Country Club.

After he retired, he became a volunteer official for various New Jersey State Golf Association tournaments held around the state.

He was a member of The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of New Jersey and The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New Jersey.

Surviving are his wife of 51 years, Sara Moore Rand (Sally); daughter, Sara Rand Urban, and her husband, Thomas, of Portland, Ore.; son, William L. Rand, Jr., and his wife, Beth, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; his three grandchildren, Colin Urban and Camilla and Juliet Rand, and his brother and sister, David Rand and Barbara Rand Clark.

The Pettit-Davis Funeral Home in Rahway made funeral arrangements and held a graveside service October 25 at Rahway Cemetery. A memorial service was held November 18 at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield.

In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory can be made to The Presbyterian Church in Westfield, 140 Mountain Avenue, Westfield, N.J. 07090, care of "Agape" or "Youth Ministry," or to The New Jersey State Golf Association, 1700 Galloping Hill Road, Kenilworth, N.J. 07033, care of "The Caddie Scholarship Foundation."

Rossi Studio Set to Close Negative-Print Archive

WESTFIELD - This is the final notice to order prints from previous photo sessions or to acquire old proof prints, negatives or video masters of images taken by us going back to 1980.

On November 30, we will be closing our old negative and print archive and purging old proofs and negative files. With over two million negatives and proofs in our climate-controlled, off-site storage archive, it is difficult to continue maintaining and covering the expense of such files if there is no longer an interest in its contents.

The files that are included in the purge will be old Portrait proofs and negatives; Wedding and Mitzvah proofs, negatives, albums, video masters, and old orders that have not been picked up.

If you are interested in ordering prints or obtaining proofs, negatives or video masters from this period, please call us now before it's too late! Feel free to call us to see what we may have available of your previous photography sessions. Please join our e-mail list from our website for updates and special offers, www.daverossi.com, or call (908) 232-8300.

GOOD CAUSE...The Trinity Episcopal Church of Cranford will host a charity jewelry and accessory sale on Wednesday, November 28, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the church, located at 119 Forest Avenue, in Witherington Hall. Proceeds from the sale will benefit The Good Shepherd Home in Cameroon that cares for children orphaned by HIV/AIDS.

Trinity to Conduct Charity Jewelry-Accessory Sale

CRANFORD - The Trinity Episcopal Church will host a charity jewelry and accessory sale on Wednesday, November 28, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the church's Witherington Hall, located at 119 Forest Avenue in Cranford.

Hand-crafted sale items will include jewelry, scarves and handbags. "Proceeds from the sale will benefit The Good Shepherd Home in Cameroon that cares for children orphaned by HIV/AIDS," said Marion Nechuta, Trinity's Outreach Team Leader. "We are happy to help support such an important, life-saving effort."

The Good Shepherd Home is the brainchild of Sister Jane Mankaa, who has dedicated her life to nurturing the orphans of her country. Sister Mankaa saw a small boy sleeping on the street in Yaounde, the capitol of Cameroon. "I asked him why he was sleeping there and he told me that's where he lived," she said. "I brought him some rice, and when I came back to see him the next morning, there were 10 other boys with him."

Sister Mankaa learned that the

F.M.B.A. Begins 16th Annual Food Drive

WESTFIELD - The Westfield Firemen's Mutual Benevolent Association (F.M.B.A.) Local 30 will begin its 16th Annual Holiday Food Drive this month for needy area residents.

Non-perishable food items will be accepted at Fire Headquarters, 405 North Avenue, West, until 11 p.m. on Friday, December 14. The food baskets will be distributed through local churches and civic organizations in time for the holidays.

In its first food drive in 1996, Local 30 distributed holiday baskets to approximately 75 families. In each year since its inception, the holiday food drive has grown in number. In 2011 the F.M.B.A. distributed 130 food baskets.

F.M.B.A. Local 30 donates one turkey and additional food as required to complete each basket given to a family. The firefighters ask for residents' help in successfully accomplishing their goal, and would also like to thank all of those who so generously contributed.

Miller-Cory to Present 'Gingerbread Sunday'

WESTFIELD - The spicy scent of gingerbread has long been a part of the holiday season. The many forms of gingerbread - houses, figures and cookies - hold a special appeal for children.

On Sunday, December 2, between 1:30 and 4 p.m., the Miller-Cory House Museum, located at 614 Mountain Avenue in Westfield, will present "Gingerbread Sunday," a program dedicated to this sweet treat. Children will make a gingerbread house and one additional craft to take home and will hear "gingery" stories. Light refreshments will be served.

Admission is $4 per child; accompanying adults will be admitted for free. Advance reservations must be made. Requests will be accepted via phone or e-mail no later than noon on Friday, November 30; however, since space is limited, Miller-Cory cannot guarantee that all requests will be filled.

The remaining program of the museum's autumn season is "Italian Christmas Customs" on Sunday, December 9. For Gingerbread Sunday reservation requests or for information on any of the museum's educational programs, call (908) 232-1776 or millercoremuseum@gmail.com.

OPEN HOUSE...St. Paul's Day School will host an Open House presentation for its Junior Kindergarten (JK) class. The Day School's Junior Kindergarten is a program designed for the older four-year-old/younger five-year-old child. "JK" builds on what was taught in preschool and is a bridge between preschool and kindergarten. The presentation will be given on Tuesday, November 27, at 9:05 a.m. at St. Paul's Day School, located at 414 East Broad Street in Westfield. For more information, call (908) 233-5417 or visit stpaulsday.org/mrsfoley.html.
