'Healthy U' Being Offered At Two Westfield Schools

WESTFIELD — The Westfield Area "Y" recently announced that Jefferson and Washington Elementary Schools in Westfield are offering the "Healthy U" program as part of the curriculum this school year.
Jefferson held its launch event October 10. Principal Jeanette Munoz began the school-wide assembly by introducing the Healthy U program to students. The physical education teacher discussed the physical activities; the school nurse discussed the theory of "go," "slow" and "whoa" foods, and the cafeteria supervisors introduced the "Healthy U Star" program.

The action really began with the school mascot leading an exercise routine. "Our entire school is focusing on ways to make ourselves healthier," said Principal Munoz. "This is happening through an awareness of how easy it is to make healthy changes in our lives in small ways. I am so happy that Jefferson School chose a theme of 'Healthy Body, Healthy Mind, Healthy U'—the results will spell success, and hopefully, a happier and healthy life."

HEALTHY U...Jefferson Elementary School students and staff celebrate the "Healthy U" kickoff event on October 10.
