CONTACT We Care Slates Training of New Volunteers

WESTFIELD — CONTACT We Care, a suicide prevention and crisis intervention hotline with listening centers in Westfield and Morristown, will hold its next round of training for volunteers on Wednesday, September 18, beginning at 7 p.m. at the Summit YMCA, located at 67 Maple Street in Summit. Volunteer listeners and texters are trained to help save lives and ease crises and find their efforts extraordinarily rewarding, said Sue Fasano, the hotline's director of programs.

"CONTACT We Care wouldn't exist without our volunteer listeners and texters," said Ms. Fasano. "We wouldn't be here for people in need if it were not for them. They know that and find what they do very gratifying."

CONTACT We Care serves Central and Northern New Jersey and is a primary responder to calls to the national suicide prevention line (1-800-273-

TALK or 1-800-SUICIDE) that originate in New Jersey. Callers also reach CONTACT by dialing (908) 232-2880 or texting "CWC" to 839863.

Volunteers are trained to respond to people at risk of suicide or in crisis with an empathetic ear and to help them see they have options, according to Ms. Fasano. Volunteers can work at either the hotline's Westfield listening center or its new Morristown listening hub.

The volunteer training course begins with a three-hour orientation that is followed by three-hour evening classes once per week for 12 weeks, with a one-week break. The only expense is $75 to cover the cost of training materials. Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer listener or seeking additional information should contact Ms. Fasano at (908) 301-1899 or sue.fasano@contactwecare.org.

Local Networking Group Can Boost Your Business

WESTFIELD — Westfield's local BNI International chapter has announced its new board and openings for new members. BNI is an international networking organization and the Westfield chapter is one of the most active chapters in the region.

BNI members on average increase their business 20 percent during the first year in the group. Harvin Freedman of Freedman Accounting Services CPA as vice-president and Dr. Yeon Shim of Roselle Podiatry Group as secretary/treasurer.

The new leadership plans to continue and build on the strong tradition of the Westfield BNI chapter. Dan Weiniger, the incoming president, stated, "This year's leadership team plans on optimizing each member's experience to help them get the most of business through the philosophy of Giver's Gain." If you would like to grow your business through a referrals base proven system, please contact Dan Weiniger on Home Video Studio at weinigerontheweb@aol.com to learn more.
