Rosie's Wine Bar 'Flags' AJ Jersey in UC Softball, 13-3

By DAVID B. CORBIN
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

No whining for Rosie's Wine Bar this time as they put together a top-shelf performance to slam the door on AJ Jersey with a 13-3 jolting in Union County 50+ Softball League action at Jerseyland Field in Scotch Plains on July 31.

After a decent beginning very early in the season, the representatives of Rosie's Wine Bar of Garwood found themselves on the bottom end of several tight decisions. But not this time as Rosie's blended 14 hits well with four free passes.

Veteran Rich Polinitza led Rosie's charge with three singles, two RBI and two runs scored in his three at-bats. Keith McDede came through with a double, an RBI single and an RBI groundout. The crafty Tom Murray served up a pair of singles, walked once, had an RBI and scored all three times. Pitcher Mike Garcia singled in his first at-bat then walked in the next two and finished with two runs scored. Steve Falco rapped an RBI single, walked and scored twice. Steve Tansey reached base safely all three times, which included a pair of singles and an RBI. Frank Scarfuto had a pair of RBI.

AJ Jersey had several members on its roster from the now defunct Westfield Softball League and the Fanwood Old Men's Softball Association, both modified pitch leagues. Jeff Hoffman topped the charts for the Jersey Boys' 15-hit parade with three hot singles and an RBI in four at-bats. John Robertson, Jordan Scher and Howie Greco each scored once and had two solid hits. Dave Rizzo also had a pair of hit singles. Greg Hopson, Paul Sherman, Mike Scacifero and Pat Keenoy each contributed a smashing single. Mark Marotta tapped the ball to somebody in
