WBUS BALL OF FAME INDUCTEEs: The Annual Westfield High School Hall of Fame Dinner was quite a success. Pictured, left to right, are: Ron Holmes, Bruce Kronenwett, John Strickland, Chris Campbell, Brian Cronin, Pam Strickland, James Strickland, Marylin Strickland, and开关 punk. The final high school swim season for 2014 for Sherri Husch and John Lindros got off to a soaring start with an invitational meet sponsored by their top-choice schools. The multi-talented senior at the University of New Mexico (in the middle), and local legend Denny Nichols (91) and Mark DeCandio (128) as a hometown hero in 2015, will already be a shock. GRANDPARENTS DAY... At the Scotch Plains-Fanwood schools, the Grandparents Day Celebration included breakfast, a slide show of photos, and a special presentation by students. Mrs. DeCandio (92) spoke about her experiences in World War II and the important role her grandparents played in her life. Mrs. Husch (91) shared her memories of growing up in a small town during the Great Depression. The event was hosted by the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Education Foundation to honor the contributions of grandparents and grandparents in our schools. The celebration also included a special ceremony for the 2014 Wachovia Award winners. The Wachovia Award is given to grandparents who have made significant contributions to their grandchildren's education and well-being. The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Education Foundation is a non-profit organization that works to support the educational needs of students in Scotch Plains-Fanwood Public Schools by raising funds through various events and initiatives.
