Marilyn E. Bornemann, LPN, Devoted To Family, Active In DAR, Eastern Star

Marilyn E. Bornemann died on Monday, June 1, 2015, in Janesville, Wis. after a long illness. She was born Marilyn Elizabeth Ellenberger on February 18, 1928 in Westfield, N.J., the daughter of Frederick A. Ellenberger and Edith Lillian (Brunner) Ellenberger.

As a child, she was the light of her parents' eyes, with a beautiful laugh and big, bouncy curls. She had a remarkable memory and could recall many stories of her early years and of her parents. Her father, Frederick, was an extraordinary carpenter and her mother, a very caring mother and wife. Although we all have sad moments in our lives, Marilyn's absolute saddest was when her father died. She was a young child when he passed and she mourned his loss her entire life.

She attended elementary school and began high school in Westfield, N.J. When her mother remarried Walter Baird, the family moved to Franklin, N.H., where she graduated high school.

After Marilyn returned to Westfield and lived with her grandmother Ellenberger and attended the Eastern Star School for Physician's Aides in New York City.

In 1949 she was invited to a party at Pine Lake Park in Toms River. There she met Richard Bornemann, the man she would spend the next 60 years with. They were married on February 12, 1950. Together they built a home on Lakewood Road in Toms River, next door to Richard's parents. Four children were born there. In addition to raising them, Marilyn continued her studies and got her degree as a Licensed Practical Nurse.

The Bornemann family moved and lived in Rockport, Mass., Oswego, N.Y., Port St. Lucie, Fla., and Claremont, N.C. Wherever they moved, Marilyn made each house a home. There was always heartfelt welcome for children, family and friends.

In retirement, Richard and Marilyn enjoyed traveling the country in their Airstream Trailer, visiting all of their children, attending Airstream rallies and working in Yellowstone National Park.

Marilyn will be remembered for her adoration of her grandchildren, her skill in the kitchen, and her endless crafting abilities from knitting to stained glass. Many of her works are still cherished in family and friends' homes. She was the keeper of our family tree and photos and was our storyteller. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Eastern Star.

She also had the remarkable ability to identify nearly any gadget or curious implement in an antique or thrift store. She could find a treasure wherever she went. She was a pirate. With a smile on her face, she put up with a lot over the years. She will be remembered as having the patience of a saint and a heart of gold. She was so very loved and will be missed. Marilyn, please watch over us.

Marilyn is survived by her daughter, Linda Long (Al Jaques) of Astoria, Ore., her son, Fred Bornemann (Kari) of Port St. Lucie, Fla., her son, George Bornemann (Kathryn) of Livingston, Mont., and her son, Edward Bornemann (Laura) of Janesville, Wis. Her grandchildren are Kristal Lewis (Kurt), Erik (Jennifer), Joseph, Samuel, Augustus and Sonia, and her great-grandchildren are Kurt, Judah, Jonathan, Daniel, Tristan, Peyton and Claire. She also is survived by her sisters, Judy Webster (David) and Libby Coolidge, and her beloved best friend for life, Millie Weaver.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Richard, and her brothers, Robert and Walter.

Marilyn's Life Celebration will be Tuesday, June 16, 2015, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., at Gray Funeral Directors, 318 East Broad Street, Westfield, N.J. Graveside services will follow in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield. To view a tribute of Marilyn's life, please go to: www.grayfuneralhomes.com.
