Genealogists to Hear Talk On Immigrant Origins

Rich Venezia

WESTFIELD — The Genealogical Society of the West Fields (GSWF) will welcome genealogist Rich Venezia at its meeting on Thursday, May 12, at 1 p.m. Mr.

Venezia will give a presentation on "Discovering Your Immigrant's Origins: Exhausting Every Resource."

He will focus on uncovering the path to pinning down an elusive immigrant ancestor's place of origin using a few well-known — and many lesser-known record sets, ideas and techniques. Tracking immigrant ancestors' exact place of origin can pose a challenge for beginner and expert genealogists alike, with endless "Ireland" or "Italy" notations, among other countries, listed as place of birth. This presentation will delve into various and diverse records available in the United States, so as to narrow down that search, as well as ideas for when the paper trail continually runs cold. The main resources will be discussed, but emphasis also will be placed on some lesser-known or lesser-used records.

A New Jersey native now living in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. Venezia has roots in Italy, Ireland, England, Wales, Prussia and Canada. He previously was a professional actor, a marketing officer for a theatre in Dublin, and a study abroad advisor. He started Rich Roots Genealogy after having researched his own family for a decade, and credits his maternal grandmother for his passion for family history. A member of "Genealogy Roadshow"'s research team and vice-president of North Hills Genealogists, he specializes in Italian and immigrant ancestry. He writes and lectures on a variety of topics.

Free and open to the public, the program will be followed by light refreshments. It will be held at the Westfield Memorial Library, located at 550 East Broad Street. For more information, call Nancy Humphrey at (908) 612-6029.

Cathryne 'Peg' Greene

Barbara Henneberry

Cathryne "Peg" Greene of Virginia Beach, Va. was born in Bronxville, N.Y. on March 9, 1917, to John and Blanche Greene, and passed away on May 1, 2016, at the ripe old age of 99 years. Peg grew up picking flowers and roller skating around the home she grew up in, and was very athletic in high school. After high school, she attended and graduated from the Sarah Lawrence Academy, and landed a clerical office job right away in New York City. She met and married the love of her life, Frederic H. Greene, in 1940, and after he graduated from the Naval Academy, they began their life together. They moved to Westfield, N.J., where they raised three children, Patricia, Elizabeth and John. Peg led an active life, working for a local dermatologist, supporting her children in their many activities and spending weekends and summers sailing in their boat near the New Jersey shore. After Fred retired, they moved to the Outer Banks of North Carolina into a home that Fred designed himself. Unfortunately, Fred suffered a debilitating stroke and Peg spent many years supporting him in his convalescence, until his death in 1983. After Fred passed, Peg rallied, and became very active in Outer Banks life. She joined her church choir, participated in and directed the "Bubbles" - a senior women's water ballet group - and taught herself to play golf at the Duck Woods Golf Club. When she was 90, she decided to move to Westminster Canterbury Senior Living Community for her remaining years. Again, she became active in her new community, participating in the "Book Magic" book club, playing the weekly Bingo game, and playing on the bocce ball team. From all accounts, Peg lived life on her own terms, remaining active and involved, leading an active and productive life until the end.
