Rick Cintron made a running grab in the third inning and leftfielder John Greenblatt made a sliding snag in the sixth inning.

St. Wolfgang shortstop Walt Patrylo was involved in two DPs. The first was the most spectacular play of the evening when he chased a popup into shallow leftfield and with his back to home plate, he caught the ball, reeled around and fired to second in time to catch the runner off base. The second DP was also very interesting. With the bases loaded and one out in the seventh inning, St. Anthony's Gerry Riepe looped a ball into center as a runner scored. Kevin Morris quickly scooped it and flicked to Patrylo at second in time to get the force out. Patrylo in turn fired home to get the next runner attempting to score.

Offensively for St. Anthony, Greenblatt singled twice, reached base on an error and scored twice. Varo Baboomian singled twice, scored once and had an RBI. McGuinness rapped an RBI double and singled. For St. Wolfgang, Millar singled in his first three at bats before his game-ending fly out to right. Fernandez cracked an RBI double, singled and scored once. Morris thumped an RBI triple and singled, and Russ Voorhees singled twice.

St. Anthony got an immediate 3-0 lead in the top of the first inning. Messano lined a leadoff single over third and Greenblatt slapped a single to right-center. Baboomian dribbled an infield single as Messano scored but the play also caused an error which allowed Greenblatt to score. McGuinness then hacked his RBI

Chupko yielded singles to Patrylo and Millar in the bottom of the inning but his defense held. Leftfielder Tom Ulichny pulled off the most energy-saving catch in the Anthony second when Bob Camisa drilled a liner right at him and all he did was lift his glove to his right shoulder to make the grab.

Chupko permitted a pair of singles in the Wolfgang second but the McGuinness DP ended the threat. St. Wolfgang did, however, score twice in the third. Ulichny's fly ball to right was dropped. When Patrylo's grounder deflected off the first baseman's glove, Ulichny scored. Millar slashed a single to right and Joe Oporto lofted an RBI sacrifice fly to left.

Two scoreless innings followed then St. Anthony took a 4-2 lead in the sixth when Joe McEvoy singled over third and after Chupko walked, his courtesy runner scored on Cintron's sac fly to left. But the Wolfmen answered with two runs to knot the score. Oporto singled to left and Fernandez found the gap between left and center for an RBI double. Morris also found a big gap for an RBI triple.

Greenblatt led off the seventh with a grounder to second that was muffed. After Baboomian's fly ball was caught in right, McGuinness hooked a single to right then DeFrancesco's grounder was booted. Greenblatt scored when Riepe's looper plopped into center but the DP prevented any more scoring.

St. Wolfgang's last chance began with Floyd Roberts chopping to third but the throw to first was dropped. Chupko got Dan Schneyder to fly out then Ulichny punched a single to right-center. Patrylo grounded into a force out then Millar's fly out to right earned St. Anthony the victory.
