

The Atlanta Symphony Associates Presents The 27th Annual Decorators' Show House

Rhododendron Hall

Step into an era of elegance and join the Atlanta Symphony Associates at "Rhododendron Hall" for the 1997 Decorators' Show House which opens its doors and grounds to the public on Saturday, April 19, 1997. Over 30 of Atlanta's top interior designers and landscape artists will transform the home and grounds into a delight of the senses.

Tour this magnificent Tudor home built in 1930; stroll through lush grounds; enjoy the English-style garden; relax and lunch at Little Pano's Food Shop; buy that special gift at the Maestro's Market, and shop at Boxwoods Too. (Note: Many items in the decorated spaces are for sale.)

Becky Woody serves as the Chair for the event.

Rhododendron Hall

This historically significant classic Gothic-Tudor house was designed by Cooper and Cooper, and built in 1930 for Samuel Candler Dobbs, the third President of Coca-Cola. Set on 9 1/2 lush landscaped acres surrounded by ivy covered terraces, stately shade trees and pines, an English-style garden, and a tennis court, "Rhododendron Hall" promises to delight all who visit. Constructed of brick, warm golden stone and half timbers, the two story home is topped with a slate roof and gabled wings. Leaded glass windows and carved, solid wood doors with weathered metal fixtures add to its authentic classic Tudor styling. This magnificent house has 15 rooms, 6 baths, staff quarters, and out buildings including a guest cottage, 3 car garage, glass sided pool house with kitchen, and his and her bath houses. An outstanding historic structure, the house is a private residence, and affords itself beautifully as a comfortable home.

The 1997 Show House will feature over 23 interior and 7 exterior areas. The interior areas include: a great hall, foyer, loggia, living room, sunroom, library, morning room, the galleries, guest bedroom, master bath, his bath, gentleman's retreat, lady's bedroom, connecting bath, gentleman's bedroom, art and meditation area, lady's office, upstairs' den, back staircase, kitchen, family room, powder room, and dining room. Exterior areas include: outdoor illumination, front corner garden, front entry, right side and rear of the house, and pool area.

Rhododendron Hall is represented by Harry Norman Realtors. Inquires may be directed to Glennis Beacham or Natalie Feldman at (404) 262-9036 or (404) 252-7222.

Join The Festivities

The Opening Night Party

April 18, 1997. This is your chance to be the first to tour the exquisitely decorated room and landscaped areas. Stroll through lush gardens; linger on the terrace; dance and mingle with your friends while enjoying a buffet of international foods, and refreshing beverages. Many of the designers will be there to celebrate the official ribbon-cutting and opening the Show House.

Reservations are limited. Black tie optional. $65 per person.

Spring Garden Party

May 3, 1997 --La Vie En Rose-- Invoking the theme of the elegant era of the 1950's and in the memory of the original movie Sabrina, the Bach 'N Rollers Unit of the Atlanta Symphony Associates is throwing a party for those who like to swing... music, buffet dining and dancing under a tent beneath the stars. Here is your chance to wear that vintage Dior or Chanel and put your hair in a chignon.

Reservations are limited. Formal attire. $75 per person.

Thanks to our Committee Members

Dick Evans - Vicki Bretan - Honey Corbin - Millie Sandman

Dick Evans: Opening Night Party

Retired from IBM after 31 years and a member of ASA for over 5 years, Dick and wife Kathy are vice presidents of Adult Education for ASA. Dick is a Docent at the High Museum and was a volunteer for the 1996 Olympics, serving as interface to the press for gymnastics and basketball events.

Vicki Bretan: House Operations Co-Chair

A professional nurse and ASA member for 1 year, Vicki and her husband moved to Atlanta

1 1/2 years ago from Miami. Originally from Detroit, Vicki is also training to be a Docent at the High Museum.

Honey Corbin: Publicity Chair

A professional nurse and ASA member for 1 year, Honey and her husband moved to Peachtree City from Pennsylvania 1 1/2 years ago. Honey maintains her own public relations firm providing pro-bono publicity assistance to charitable organizations. She is the sister of Horace R. Corbin, Publisher of The Westfield Leader, who graciously donated his assistance in obtaining this web site for the Atlanta Symphony Associates.

Millie Sandman: Ticket Desk Co-Chair

After teaching in the Dekalb school system for 30 years, Millie is also a new member of the ASA. She donated her musical talent to her church, Holy Cross of Tucker, for 15 years as the Youth Choir Director. Millie has the distinction of having been a member of the prestigious, all volunteer, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus under the direction of Robert Shaw.
