Devil Girls Nail Kearny, 5-0; JV Squad Undefeated at 9-0

In abbreviated soccer action, the Westfield High School girls' junior varsity soccer team ran their record to 9-0 with a 5-0 win over Kearny on October 14. The Westfield offense came out hard and Val Griffith scored her eighth goal of the season as she took a crossing pass from Melissa Fry and volleyed it home at the two-minute mark.

Strikers Meg Albertson, Kris Gundrum, Margot Siegal, Kris Connor and Katherine Pakenham all had chances until the nine-minute mark when Erika Van Anglen had a direct kick from the 25-yard mark and drove it home over the Kearny goalie.

Westfield goalies Emily Lieberman and Marina Powell did not record any saves in the game.

In the second half, Westfield put the game out of reach when Fry volleyed home a corner kick from Van Anglen at the seven-minute mark. The combination of Fry and Griffith worked again at the 10-minute mark as Griffith tipped one past a helpless goalie.

The line of Kris Connor, Giovanna Romano and Katherine Pakenham clicked at the 13-minute mark as Pakenham drilled a Van Anglen corner kick for her second goal of the campaign.

SPFSA Red Dragons Snap The Maroon Soccer Team

First Grade Division: Team #6 vs Team #9
On October 18, the Red Dragons of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association First Grade Division and the Maroon faced off against each other in a very exciting and well played soccer game. Both teams displayed lots of hustle and outstanding soccer skills. All the players played their positions extremely well particularly on the defensive end.

Philip Rosenkrantz turned in another great game at goal for the Dragons. He made several key saves throughout the game. Chris McManus continued to play exceptionally well on defense as he successfully turned away several scoring attempts.

Joseph Del Prete, Vincent Bianco, Blake Van Buskirk and Jake Smith showed lots of heart and hustle as they helped out on both the defensive and offensive ends. Jeremy Kaufman, Jimmy Walsh John Maxwell and James Mason did a great job disrupting their opponent's and getting the ball out to their teammates.

Brendan McEvoy continued to lead the Dragons offensively, as he has all season. He picked up 2 goals in the game and did a great job of pressuring his opponent's goal all game. The Dragons did a great job of keeping the ball in their opponent's territory most of the game and adjusted well on defense.

Jazz Beat Mt. Olive, Win Halloween Soccer Tourney

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Jazz, a girls under-10 inter-city soccer team, scored a solid 4-2 victory over the Mt. Olive Goalkeepers and won the Mt. Olive Halloween Tournament this past Saturday.

The Jazz wore their blue and white face paint with matching blue hair and tamed the Jaguars from Morris, 4-0.

Allie Hambleton scored to give the Jazz an early lead. In the second half the Jazz scored three unanswered goals. Once again Hambleton scored. This time the play was started when Briana Falco hit Lauren Hercul and getting the ball out to their teammates. Hercul shot it across the goal mouth where the ball bounced around until Hambleton finally banged it in. The next goal was scored when Gaby Falco sent the ball into the left corner where Hambleton dug it out and crossed the ball to Lauren Mains, who knocked it in from point-blank range.

Mains finished off the frightened Jaguars with the final goal of the game when Maddie Wasser dribbled the ball up three quarters of the length of the field, then passed to Becca McGuire who set up Mains right out in front of the goal.

In the championship game, the Jazz took an early lead on two goals scored by Shannon Hauser. Mains intercepted an errant goal kick and scored the third Jazz goal. Jessica McGary set up the final goal when she cleared the ball out of the defensive zone.

Hallie Mintz picked up the ball from 25 yards out and danced and darted through the Mt. Olive defense to score a goal that insured the Jazz victory.

On Friday night the Jazz picked up a 4-2 win under the lights in Maplewood against the Cougars. Mains started the scoring when she picked up a perfect clearing pass from Katie Van Haasteren and marched in for the goal. Mains added another goal in the second half and Betsy Kipping finished the scoring with two goals.

The Jazz now have a 10-2 record for the fall soccer season.
