

INTERCITY SOCCER RESULTS
SPF Soccer Under-9 Rockets, Bravehearts Grab Victories

The SPFA U9 Rockets powered by Hillsborough 3-1 as Angela Smith connected for the opening score. Smith alertly picked up a rebound from the goalie after a shot by Colleen LaForge.

On defense Amanda Makowski and Lauren Weissbrod kept turning back the Hillsborough attack, and Emily Meehan made five saves in goal. Makowski smashed a shot on goal which LaForge calmly put away. LaForge also scored the final goal with a header off a pass from Allie Azali.

Second half defensive stars went to fullback Samantha Buteas and keeper Molly Meehan. Alex Garber and Lianna Rivera looked strong on their lines.

Rockets 5, Rahway 5

The Rockets next showed their poise and determination in a tough 5-5 draw with Rahway. The Rockets struck quickly on a Makowski throw in to a Weissbrod goal in the opening minute. Emily Meehan dug out a ball from a crowd after a Weissbrod corner to even the match at 2-2.

Weissbrod scored twice herself to lead the Rockets' comeback at 4-4. The second goal was a Weissbrod special direct from a corner kick. In the second half Zazzali, Buteas, and LaForge dominated play but could not find the net.

It was Weissbrod taking a midfield pass from Buteas in the last 10 seconds which made the final 5-5. Molly Meehan was outstanding a halfback to help the defense shut down Rahway in the second half.

Bravehearts 2, Royals 1

The Bravehearts defeated the Randolph Royals in a tremendously exciting game 2-1 to finish 1-1-1 in the Wall Fall Classic Tourney.

With the Bravehearts clinging to a one-goal lead late in the match, goalkeeper Mark Ciccura came up with two outstanding saves, the second being a leaping grab of a shot headed towards the upper corner of the goal.

DJ Garret preserved a scoreless tie midway through the first half in the tense contest by clearing the ball from the goalmouth with the keeper down and the Royals swarming.

Danny Birnbaum put the Bravehearts on top by combining with Brian Halpin and Joe Cepparulo for the game's first goal. A suffocating defense led by Ryan Oshbar and Jonathan DiFiore kept the Royals off the board while Sean Young, Jeff Annese and Dave Van Anda had close calls for the Bravehearts.

Halpin upped the lead to 2-0 with a beautiful goal in which he moved around and through several defenders. The Royals responded quickly with a goal of their own, setting the stage for Ciccura's heroics.

Earlier in the tourney, the Bravehearts fell to the Wall Rattlers, 6-0, and then played the Robbinsville Revolution to a 1-1 tie. Garret notched the lone goal.

Argyles Edge Maplewood, 3-2 Boost Record to 4-1-1

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Argyles girls' under 9 Inter-city soccer team hosted the Cougar Devils of Maplewood last Sunday, the home fans saw the girls improve to 4-1-1 with an exciting 3-2 win.

The first half saw the Argyles come out strong as Lisa Camarda made a pass to Liz Halpin, who found the net. Megie McLaughlin and Linda Lissel owned the middle of the pitch, as they kept the ball in the Cougar half of the field.

The defense of Melissa Kliesch and Carol Monteiro at fullback kept most of the shots away from the Argyle goal. Ashley Jacobi made a few nice saves in goal when the Cougars were able to get them off. Kinslee Appezzato and Jessica Reddington sparkled as they made some fine plays at the wings.

The second half started much like the first, with Halpin making a sharp cross in front of the goal to a waiting McLaughlin who converted it for the second tally of the game.

Camarda made some tough saves as the second half goalie. Jacobi, playing at halfback, booted the ball several times up to a waiting forward.

It appeared that the Argyles had things under control until the Cougars struck for two quick goals toward the end of the game to tie the score at 2-2. But with two minutes remaining, Tiffany Smith took control and scored the winning goal on a great shot which began with Halpin making her second assist of the game. Thanks to the last minute play of Smith and Halpin, the Argyles came away with the win.

SPF Sabers Make State Cup Quarterfinals in Soccer

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Division 4 boys Sabers defeated the Freehold Cosmos by a score of 3-0 to advance as one of the final eight teams in the New Jersey State Cup Tournament under 11 Division.

The game was dominated from the start by the Sabers, because of the mid-field play of Casey Hoynes-O'Connor, Jeff Bell, Patric Schiazza, Steven Gaetano, and Robert Lasher. The Sabers defense was rock solid allowing no shots on goal in the last 15 minutes because of the brilliant play of Billy Schoenbach, Greg Leitschner, Ryan Aspell and Terrance Charles. This unit has yet to allow a goal in state cup competition. In the second half, striker Sean McNelis was on fire and struck for three goals. The first goal was assisted by Hoynes O'Connor. The goal was started by lerrific steal by Leitschner who then def Andrew Silber making a nifty pass to McNelis for the goal.

The final goal was assisted by the work of Matt Colon and Adam Greenwald. Goal Keeper Billy Albizati continued his strong play in goal recording his second consecutive shutout. The Sabers travel to Fort Dix for quarter final action on Saturday at 9 a.m.

Westfield PAL "B's" Win, Pound Perth Amboy, 13-0

The Westfield PAL "B" team extended its undefeated string to five games by pounding perennial powerhouse Perth Amboy 13-0 at Gary Kehler Stadium.

A nine-yard second quarter touchdown run by Brian Butts, and a third quarter pass from Jan Coccoziello to Butts provided the offensive highlights while two sacks by outside line backer Eric Braxton were the outstanding defensive plays.

Operating a sophisticated single-wing offense, the junior Blue Devils displayed a level of poise and confidence not usually found in sixth and seventh graders. They opened the game with an impressive drive that featured a mix of runs and passes.

After a slant pattern from Butts to Mike DeFazio, moved the ball to the Perth Amboy two, a fumble turned the ball over to the visitors. The defense held Perth Amboy to three plays and a punt as the first quarter ended.

A fumble recovery by Montel Glasco at the start of the second quarter helped Westfield maintain its field position advantage. After an exchange of short possessions, Butts returned a punt to the Perth Amboy nine-yard line.

On the ensuing play, Butts ran off tackle, dragging two defenders with him across the goal line. Ben Keket took the hand off for the successful conversion that made the score 7-0, at the half. Perth Amboy had been limited to only one first down and 10 yards of total offense.

Perth Amboy's opening possession of the second half produced its second first down but little else. Jordan Sailors and Pat Daly stuffed one run and Braxton and Sailors combined for a sack of the quarterback to limit the visitors best series of the game to seven plays.

Westfield took over and ran off 11 plays, featuring two carries for 12 yards by Keket and a pass from Coccoziello to Kirt Giresi on a well executed out pattern. The drive was capped by a 14-yard strike from Coccoziello to Butts in the flat for the touchdown.

The cold and blustery conditions made the success of the Westfield passing attack amazing. The single wing formation permitted passes to be thrown by either Coccoziello or Butts and the slants and crossing patterns proved too much for the overmatched visitors.
