WCC Cagers Defeat Westfield Police

As part of the Westfield Police Department's "Outreach Program," the first of what is anticipated will be a series of basketball games was played March 9 between youth participants in programs at the Westfield Community Center and officers of the police department. The game, which was played at the center's basketball court, was won by the Community Center team.

The final score was 46-38. The high scorers for the center were Richard Miller and Christopher Newman, who scored 12 points each. High scorers for the police team were Probationary Officer Jason Carter, with 12 points; Probationary Officer Bret Lassiter, also with 12 points, and Officer Greg Hobson, who scored eight points.

Volunteers Invited to Join Annual Fanwood Cleanup

FANWOOD - The Fanwood Clean Community Committee has announced that the borough's annual Clean Communities Day will be held on Saturday, April 21.

Volunteers will assemble at 8:30 a.m. at the southside train station parking area and will be assigned to clean a specific area. The work should be completed by noon.

Earth Day T-shirts, work gloves and garbage bags will be furnished to all participants. Merchants will supply refreshments at the conclusion of the work.

The committee is working in conjunction with the Fanwood Department of Public Works (DPW) and the program is funded through a grant from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection.

Volunteers are asked to notify DPW Director Raymond Manfra in advance by calling (908) 322-7404. Walk-ins will also be welcome.
