Columbus Countdown

The time is drawing near for the Board of Education to come to some decisions on the future use of Columbus School, which will cease to be an elementary school in June. The decision, whatever it may be, should not be made hastily, although the time element almost forces a decision now. Columbus School, which was one of the first of its kind in the country, has been a major asset to the community, and a financial decision must be made with the ramifications of their decision thoroughly with the detail, we hope that they share their views and the cost, etc., must be answered.

The Recreational Commission

The demand for increased recreational programs, and the cost of maintaining them, has increased drastically in recent years. At the same time, the school board is faced with the need to find additional funding sources for the Recreation Commission. Working hours of the Recreation Commission have been reduced from 16 to 8 hours per week. If the Recreation Commission should expand their facilities, the cost of maintenance and materials will increase. The Recreation Commission is responsible for the maintenance of the buildings and equipment, and the cost of repairs and maintenance must be considered.

The School Board

The school board also needs to consider the impact of the Columbus School decision on the financial budget. The school board should consider the projected increased cost of maintaining Columbus School and the cost of any additional programs that may be added to the municipal budget. The school board should also consider the impact of the Columbus School decision on the local property tax dollar. The school board should consider the potential for increased property tax revenue if Columbus School is sold to a private developer.

Suppose we lose the Energy Race?

Our environment may become intolerable. New Jersey is already the most densely populated state in the nation. It's getting worse. An expanding population means greater pollution problems, if we don't have clean nuclear energy to provide the massive amount of electrical energy necessary to reverse the trend of environmental decay, we face many health hazards.

Now let's talk about the air we breathe. Eight to ten percent of the air pollution in urban areas is caused by auto exhaust. What if we had millions of cars on the road? (Electrified mass transit systems.) We'd have clean nuclear energy generating plants for all the reasons mentioned. To build them we need your vocal support.

IRIS Offices Open Evenings

Edward H. Kilsen, New Jersey District Director of Internal Revenue, announced that all IRS offices in New Jersey will be open evenings during the final week before the 1972 income tax filing deadline.

Starting on Monday, the offices will be open from 9:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. each weekday. On Saturday, April 16, they will be open from 9:30 a.m. until 10:30 p.m.

Because April 15, the national deadline for filing tax returns falls on a Friday, taxpayers have an extra day of grace this year. Returns must be mailed by midnight on Monday, April 15, to accommodate taxpayers who mail their returns by the Tuesday deadline. If they do not mail their returns by the Tuesday deadline, IRS offices will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. on the first day of the filing season.

IRS extension telephone lines will be open during the same hours. Taxpayers can save their mail time by using the telephone services for small amount of returns.

Christopher Academy Marks 10th Anniversary

Christopher Academy, Westfield's Montessori School, is celebrating its 10th anniversary. The founders were a group of parents who felt that the traditional school system was not meeting the needs of their children. They decided to bring Montessori education to Westfield, which was then a rural area.

Montessori education was developed by Dr. Maria Montessori in Italy. It is a child-centered educational approach that emphasizes individualized learning, self-motivation, and the development of the whole child. At Christopher Academy, the curriculum is based on the Montessori method, which includes practical life, sensorial, language, and mathematics materials.

The school currently serves approximately 35 students ranging in age from 3 to 6. It is located in a historic building in the center of Westfield.
