Special Ed. Community Offers Guest Speakers

WESTFIELD – The Westfield Special Education Community invites the public for an evening of education on Wednesday, January 11, at 7:30 p.m., at Edison Intermediate School, second floor, library, 800 Rahway Avenue, Westfield.

Guest speakers Beth C. Manes, Esq. and Jessica Weinberg, Esq. will provide an overview of special education and students' rights. The evening will focus on addressing questions and concerns as well as clarifying confusion in the area of special-needs rights and responsibilities. This is an opportunity for the audience to better understand the rights of students and how to effectively collaborate with the district for the success of the student.

The guest speakers will address: How to help to ensure that students are receiving the education and services they need to learn and reach their full potential; clarification of the difference between an IEP and a section 504 plan; and how to cultivate a positive relationship with the district. They also will take questions from the audience.

Sponsored by the PTC-Special Education Committee, this program is free and open to the public. All parents, teachers and advocates are welcome to attend. No pre-registration is required.

For further information, e-mail WestfieldSpecialEdParents@gmail.com or visit westfieldnj12.org/pages/Westfield_Town_School_District/Parents/specialparents.

1.5 Professional development hours will be provided.

Jazz singer Carrie Jackson and her musicians perform the music of "Duke" Ellington, Count Basie, Lionel Hampton, Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong, Miles Davis, John Coltrane, Dizzy Gillespie, and musical selections from the Great American Songbook. She delivers a wealth of material and "presents it with spirit and feeling; her renditions have a personal, not derivative ring," according to The Star Ledger. Start the New Year off right with this amazing show! Sign up now for good seats.
