FINAL FIVE...Five Westfield High School seniors have advanced as finalists in the 2017 National Merit Scholarship program having met academic and other standards to become eligible for scholarships. The program honors students who show exceptional academic ability and potential for success in rigorous college studies. In October, the Westfield Board of Education honored these students who at that time had earned semi-finalist ranking, placing them among the top 1.1 percent of students who took the Preliminary SAT qualifying test. With Board of Education President Gretchen Ohlig, third from left, are, from left to right: Nicholas Youssef, Michael Hauge, Amy Liang, Olivia Hamilton and Soo Min Chung.

Roosevelt Pays Special Tribute to Black History

WESTFIELD – Roosevelt Intermediate School in Westfield celebrated Black History Month with its 10th annual visit by the Newark Boys Chorus on February 10. Roosevelt’s Sharps and Flats singers joined the Chorus in musical selections. The keynote speaker of the morning’s celebration was the school’s Principal, Stewart Carey, who began his education career as a Westfield Public Schools teacher in 1969. Mr. Carey recalled the days of segregation in Virginia where he attended an elementary school for only black students. He explained how his “stumbling blocks became stepping stones” due to his hard work and resiliency. In addressing Roosevelt’s 750 students, along with staff and guests, Mr. Carey expressed his belief that “A dream imagined is not a dream denied.” Mr. Carey urged the sixth, seventh and eighth graders to make the world better and to remember those less fortunate. He noted the influence that a teacher had on his own education and perspective and concluded by saying, “Someone pulled my hand to move forward; you can do the same.” A slide show depicting the many contributions of African Americans concluded the morning’s assembly. Mr. Carey thanked the Newark Boys Chorus and its Director, Donald Morris, for sharing their talents and inspirations with the Roosevelt school community. He also extended his appreciation to Pamela Friedman, Technology teacher at Roosevelt, who was instrumental in organizing the program.

How This Newspaper Helps Advertisers ...

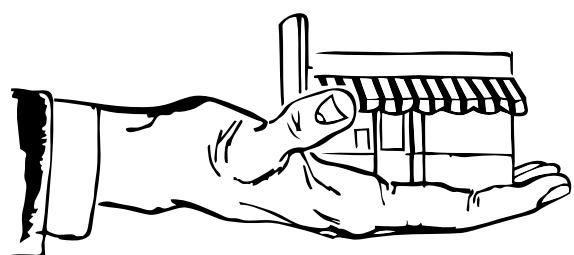

With a Strong Hand

We’re newspaper people, with our ears to the ground and strength in our hand.

For a long time it has been our job to meet the people of our area – in their homes, work, schools, churches and in their civic and social activities. It has been our job to understand their needs and desires; to report their joys and sorrows.

Few know this area and its people better than us. Many merchants look to this background of experience and understanding for assistance in reaching their audience most effectively. It is an unusually strong hand to their merchandising efforts – as well as an effective source for information and advice.

Let us show you how the combination of this experience and audited circulation facts can help you get maximum results from your sales messages.
