EFG Held Successful Educational Fundraiser

GARWOOD — On Thursday, November 29, the Education Foundation of Garwood (EFG) held a very successful "Tired of Turkey" fundraiser. The event was well attended and a total of $450 was raised through a contribution of 15 percent of patrons' checks at The Station Bar and Grill, located at 99 Center Street, Garwood. Additionally, nearly $200 was raised in direct contributions to the organization from patrons that night as well. The owner of The Station Bar and Grill, Brian Cruikshank, said, "I'm always happy to support the great local organizations we have in town, like the EFG. It's a win-win for Garwood." Flyers brought by patrons supporting the EFG were honored from 3 p.m. to midnight. All of the proceeds will be used for scholarships for Garwood students and grants for Lincoln School teachers. In reflecting on the night, EFG President Sara Todisco said, "I want to say a big thank you to Brian and The Station for their support, which was our fourth fundraiser with them over the past few years." She added, "The EFG has continued to increase its membership each year for several years now and I appreciate all the members who helped so much to drive up the turnout." Please save the date for the signature EFG event of the 15th Annual Appreciation Dinner to be held on Thursday, April 25, 2019, at The Westwood, located at 438 North Avenue, Garwood. This event honors an Educator of the Year, as well as a Person Making a Difference. The EFG is a nonprofit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization. It was founded in 2004 to work with the Garwood School District "in pursuit of educational excellence." More information can be found on Facebook at "Education Foundation of Garwood."

LIBRARY SCHOLARSHIP...The most recent Westfield Memorial Library (WML) Friends scholarship recipient Julie McGeough (pictured center) with Suzanne O'Rourke and Dr. Tina Leshner of the Friends of the WML. The Friends of the WML is accepting applications for its 2019 scholarships, designed to assist individuals to further their studies in library-related fields.

Friends of WML is Accepting Scholarship Applications

WESTFIELD -- The Friends of the Westfield Memorial Library (WML) is accepting applications for its 2019 scholarships, designed to assist individuals to further their studies in library-related fields. Eligible are Westfield residents or those working in the town, such as teachers in the local schools or library employees. Scholarships of $1,000 or more will be offered, with the monies going directly to the educational institution where a recipient is enrolled in a credit-bearing course. Application forms, with information about the scholarships, are available inside the entrance at the library, 550 E. Broad Street, or by contacting

Dr. Tina Leshner, Friends' scholarship chairman, at tinalesher@verizon.net. The Friends of Westfield Memorial Library annually sponsors a major Spring book sale and a children's Museum Pass Program, children's programming, and a host of other activities. Earlier this year the board, made up of volunteer members, voted to provide more than $35,000 to the library's children's section for furniture and other upgrades. Jerry Skotnicki and Suzanne O'Rourke are serving this year as co-presidents of the Friends.
