

Nitschke House to Be Stop On Four Centuries Tour

KENILWORTH - Visitors to Kenilworth's circa 1880 Oswald J. Nitschke House, located at 49 South 21st Street, this Saturday and Sunday, October 20 and 21, will experience life during World War I through a "living history" program featuring colorful characters from the past.

The program, set in the year 1918, when the war was drawing to a close, will highlight a guided tour of the site that additionally will feature a World War I Victory Garden, a related garden-to-table culinary demonstration and a presentation of World War I recollections compiled by David Brearley Middle/High School student Michael Naya, Jr. as part of an oral history project he undertook to learn about and honor veterans of various wars.

A new exhibition, "The Allure and Challenges of Life in an Early 20th-Century Suburb," will be open for viewing in the Nitschke House exhibition center.

Visitors also will be able to view the site's new "Kenilworth Heritage Walkway" featuring numerous engraved commemorative pavers that have been donated by local residents and businesses. The walkway is part of a newly-installed paved path that makes the site's "teaching gardens" accessible to everyone, including those with physical challenges/disabilities.

The weekend activities at the Nitschke House will be presented for the public from noon to 5 p.m. during Union County's annual Four Centuries in a Weekend event. Admission is free. Union County Across the Centuries History Trading Cards for David Brearley (1745-1790), Hannah Sayre Caldwell (1737-1780) and Tin Kettle Hill (1780-1906) will be available at the Nitschke House. The site is equipped with an elevator and is fully accessible. For further information, call (908) 709-0434.

The featured exhibition at the Nitschke House is being made possible in part by a 2018 HEART (History, Education, Arts Reaching Thousands) Grant from Union County. Funding for other aspects of the site's weekend program is being provided, in part, by the Kenilworth Municipal Alliance Against Alcohol and Drug Abuse/GCADA.

The Nitschke House, home of former Kenilworth Mayor Oswald J. Nitschke (1867-1934), features five historic rooms, which are authentically furnished in late 19th-/early 20th-century style and interpreted primarily in the 1905-1934 period (the time of Kenilworth's first wave of suburban development when Oswald Nitschke made his greatest contributions to its growth), an exhibition center and a cultural arts center.
