ground and walked Aveno to load the bases then Grasso walked to up the lead to 4-0. Westfield White scored its only run in the bottom of the inning when King reached base on a force out, stole second and third bases then scored on Nitché's groundout to second.

Two more Cougars danced home in the third when Schoening scored on Rivera's infield single and Caggiano slashed an RBI double to right-centerfield.

The Cranford fourth inning would set up the final pages of the story, however, and it began with a leadoff walk to Aveno who would later score on Grasso's looper over third base. Sobon plopped an RBI single near first, Schoening sizzled a single past short and Brown walked to load the bases. Rivera and Caggiano both drew RBI free passes to bring in the third and fourth runs of the inning. Then Sawicki stepped to the plate and slammed a double to left-center that brought in the fifth and what would have been the sixth run of the inning.

Westfield White catcher Montero threw Aveno out attempting to swipe third base in the Cranford fifth inning. Gish struck out the side in the Westfield fifth to end the game.

Also as of July 20 in the 8U Gold playoffs, ninth-seeded Westfield Blue defeated eighth-seeded South Orange-Maplewood Red, 10-7, then lost to the top-seeded team known as NYHB Red Select, 12-0. The fifth-seeded Clark Reservoir Dogs shutout fourth-seeded Millburn Gold, 10-0.

Contact 20, Cranford VFW 17

CLV had Matt Kasper homering twice, Neil Kaufman homered and Mike Ramirez went 4-for-4, including a triple. Bobby Biner and Brian Dayton had 3 hits each for the Lensmen. John Fiore led the way for Cranford with 4 hits and 7 RBI, including 2 booming home runs. Juan Moreno added 4 hits and Chris Kaminski, Jerry Veglia, Frank Verducci and Phil McGovern chipped in with 3 hits each.

Bad Brains 35, Garwood Metal 34

In a game that could hardly be considered a pitcher's duel, BB pulled off the victory with some 7th inning heroics in this 2-hour contest. In the top of the final frame, Rob Hawk made a rally-killing catch crashing into the fence, while Vinny Cordero blasted the game-winning HR in the bottom of the inning. For Garwood, John Fessock had 6 hits (3B) supported by 5 hit games from Ron Kulik, Don Montefusco, Greg Hartnett and Bill McCormack (HR). Bob D'Meo added a home run and Carey Duret smacked a triple for the Metal Makers.

Roselle Am. Leg. 23, Linwood Inn 7

Ageless wonder Ed Kushner led the Legion attack with 5 hits. Joe Caliguari chipped in with 4 hits, while Mike Shriner and Pat Mooney each added 3 hits to back up a superb pitching performance by Rich Gaul. Everyone in the Roselle lineup had at least 2 hits in the victory.

Roselle AL 22, Kenilworth VFW 3

Roselle Legion started out hot and continued that way paced by grand slam home runs from Glen Sytko and Ray Pelesko. Supporting winning pitcher Harry Streep, The Legion was led offensively by Jim McCullough, Bill Daniel, Mark Cowan and Jim Caravano, who all contributed multiple RBI games. Also chipping in with multiple hit efforts were Walt Serafyn, Bob Glassman, John Amato and Ed Lubas.

The Avengers 22, Creative Too 19 (first game)

The Avengers scored 7 runs in the top of the 5th inning to make the game close. The game then went into extra frames and the Avengers scored 6 runs in the top of the 8th inning and held on for the victory. Leading the way at the plate for the Avengers were Anthony Abbaleo (5-for-5), Steve Falco and Bill Moore with four hits each, Geno Raisley, Steve Landau, Sal Iannaccone, Bob Hoffman and Alan Schachman with 3 hits each, and Jeff Villani and Doc Henley Black a pair of hits each. Robert Maley's long drive to deep centerfield scoring 2 runs was a key hit in the Avenger 5th inning rally.

Creative Too 23, The Avengers 7

After a 3-up-3 down first inning, the next 23 Cranford VFW batters reached base safely by hitting a total of 14 singles, 2 doubles, 4 triples and 3 base-on-balls. This onslaught carried the V-men to their 15th win of the season. Cranford's Dave Drechsel was 3-for-3 scoring three times. Bill Early was 3-for-3 scoring twice and driving in three runs. Jerry Gaeta drove in three, going 2-for-2 with a triple. Ken Murray was also 2-for-2 with a triple, 2 runs scored and an RBI. Charlie Wischusen kept up his hot hitting going 2-for-2, scoring a run, and driving in 2 runs.

Yogi's Boys 16, Awnings 5

For Yogi's, Sal Martino pitched a great game as well as going 3-4 with the bat. Dana Kimmel and Tom Straniero each went 4-for-4 and Steve Ferro provided three hits. The big blow came off the bat of Joe Massimino with a 3-run home run.

The Avengers 15, DeBellis 14

The Avengers erased a 7-run deficit by batting around the order and scoring 9 runs in the fifth inning, and then hung on to defeat DeBellis. At the plate for the Avengers, Steve Falco and Geno Raisley were 4-for-4. Moe Fernandez (HR) and Doc Henley Black had 3 hits each and Richie Krov added a pair of hits.
