WAYVE Teen Foundation Bd. Announces $7,000 In Grants

WESTFIELD — WAYVE Teen Foundation Board Chairs Rachel Simpson and Ryan Smith announced $7,000 in grant awards to eight Union County organizations at an awards ceremony held May 20 at the Westfield Area YMCA. Grants were awarded to the following organizations: Caring Contact, CASA of Union County, Elizabeth Coalition to House the Homeless, Elizabethport Presbyterian Center, Institute of Music for Children, Mobile Meals of Westfield, St. Joseph Social Service Center and The King's Daughters Day School.

The Westfield Area Youth Volunteer Experience (WAYVE) is made possible through a grant from the Westfield Foundation and is coordinated by Jewish Family Service of Central New Jersey (JFSCNJ).

Members of the WAYVE Teen Foundation Board are Emma Aronowitz, Chloe Beaulieu, Andrew Brennan, John Claiborne, Gregory Claiborne, Benton Cummings, Matthew Dispenza, Max Feldman, Sean Hazard, Emma Karp, Jeremy Kornfeld, Grace Lanza, Owen Mason, Madeline Silva, Rachel Simpson, Ryan Smith, Brianna Stewart, Anna Tichenor and Julia Weinstein.

"Being involved with the WAYVE Teen Board for two years has taught me so much about nonprofits in the area, and the grants review process. Working with my peers and making a difference in my community is an experience that I will be proud of forever," said Rachel.

"My second year with the WAYVE Teen Board was a great learning experience. Being involved in the grant review process, interviewing local nonprofits and then accomplishing our goal of delivering funds to groups in need within our community was very rewarding. It feels great to make an impact in so many lives as a teenager in Union County," added Ryan.

The grants were for one-time, short-term projects that will improve the lives of Union County residents. The focus areas included technology/equipment and social service and advocacy for impoverished and/or vulnerable populations. Proposals demonstrated how the program will promote the health and social well-being of the agency's constituents. Applicant agencies all were non-profit organizations with proof of 501(c)3 tax-exempt status, have strong board involvement and demonstrate responsible financial stewardship.

"I am very impressed with the hard work of this board and the choices made by the teens. Our community will be lifted up as a result," said Tom Beck, executive director of JFSCNJ, during the reception where the grant awards were presented.

WAYVE Program Directors Jill Dispenza and Vicki Simpson closed the evening with a thank you to all who attended and sent a special thank you to the Y's Men's Club for its donation and the Westfield Area YMCA for hosting this year's meetings.
