His chip shot rolled eight feet past the hole and he now faced an interesting downhill putt which he sank for a par.

"I certainly bailed myself out of that jam," said Brannick.

On the seventh hole, Brannick's nine-iron tee shot rolled to within seven feet where he sank the putt for the birdie to go one-under par. On the par 4, 370-yard eighth, he came off the tee with a three wood but ran into a little trouble with his approach shots and two-putted for a bogie. Then on the par 4, 375-yard ninth, he continued off the tee with the three other four runs in the second. Andy Bausch walked, stole second and scored on White's single to center. Drechsel walked, Seaman rapped a two-run single to center, then a throwing error on the next play put the Cougars ahead, 8-0. Raider catcher Andrew Pavoni stopped the attack by gunning down pinch runner Ryan Stark as he attempted to steal third.

The only hint of a Raider threat came in the second when Belford led off with a single and Brian Schiller followed with a walk, but two ground balls and a strikeout silenced the threat.

Raider sophomore Steve Pietrocha, who relieved Moroney with two outs in the second, yielded three runs in the third. Bob Sawicki walked, Bausch poked a single to right, White's grounder to first scored Sawicki, then Ahearn and Drechsel both bashed RBI singles.

The final two runs crossed in the fifth when Raider sophomore reliever Dave Senatore walked the first three Cougar batters. Ahearn dribbled an RBI ground out to second and Drechsel bounced an RBI ground out to third.

Wexler beat out an infield single in the fifth, but a pitcher-to-second-to-first double play concluded the game.
