

DAVID HEINZELMANN AND DR. DINA LOWY

Dr. Dina Lowy Marries David Heinzelmann

Dr. Dina Lowy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Len Lowy of Scarsdale, N.Y., was married on Saturday, August 5, to David Heinzelmann. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Heinzelmann of Fanwood.

The nuptials and reception took place at Mayfair Farms in West Orange, with Rabbi Brooks Susman officiating.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white silk Shantung gown and her mother's veil of lace and beads. She carried a bouquet of irises.

Wells Welcome Betsy Margo

Julie and Jeff Weill of South Orange have announced the birth of their daughter, Betsy Margo Weill, on Friday, February 9, at 9:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City.

Betsy weighed 4 pounds and 15 ounces and measured 18 inches in length at birth.

The baby's maternal grandparents are Linda and Harold Chizewer of Highland Park, Ill.

Her paternal grandparents are Elaine and Donald Weill of Westfield.

Betsy's great-grandparents are Sam Silverstein of Palm Springs, Calif. and Esther Chizewer of Chicago.

Mrs. Rikki Lowy of Ridgewood, the sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. The bridal attendants included Ms. Debbie Simon of West Orange, Ms. Sarah Swersey of Boston and Ms. Jen Abadi of New York City.

The matron of honor and bridal attendants each wore a navy, two-piece beaded gown and carried a bouquet of irises.

John Heinzelmann of Centreville, Va., was the best man for his brother. Serving as ushers were Mike Eggerman of South Brunswick, Christopher Heinzelmann of Clearwater, Fla., the son of the bridegroom, and Brett Lowy of Ridgewood, the brother of the bride.

The bride graduated from Scarsdale High School in Scarsdale, N.Y. and from the University of Pennsylvania. She earned her master's degree from Princeton University and her doctorate from Rutgers University in New Brunswick. She is a Professor of Asian Studies at Gettysburg College in Gettysburg, Pa.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, as well as DeVry Technical Institute and The Chubb Institute. He is employed as a configuration specialist at Gettysburg College.

Following a Canadian cruise, the couple reside in Gettysburg.

Welcome Club to Present Wine and Cheese Event

WESTFIELD - The Welcome Club of the Westfield area will host a "New Member Wine and Cheese" reception on Wednesday, May 9, at 8 p.m. at the home of one of its members.

Women who are new to the area, newly-married, recently had a baby or who are just looking to make new friends are welcome to attend.

This club is a non-profit organization which provides a variety of daytime and evening activities for women and their families from Westfield and surrounding communities, including Scotch Plains, Fanwood,

Mountainside, Clark, Cranford and Garwood.

Club-sponsored activities include monthly dinners, couples' social events, ladies' night out and children's programs, including story hours and play groups, and community service.

Individuals interested in attending the upcoming reception, or who wish to receive more information about the club, may call Renee at (908) 232-1646 or Christine at (908) 518-1910. Information is also available on the Internet at www.westfieldnj.com/welcome.

Rally Walk to End Hunger To Begin in Mindowaskin

WESTFIELD - The Coalition for Hunger Awareness of Union and Somerset Counties will hold its ninth annual Rally Walk to End Local Hunger on Sunday, May 6, starting in Mindowaskin Park on East Broad Street in Westfield.

Westfield Mayor Gregory S. McDermott, honorary walk Chairman, will speak during the rally and Bill Ard, a former New York Giants offensive guard, will be on hand to sign autographs. Dr. Sanford Fineman, a founder of the Yes, We Care Soup Kitchen, will be the keynote speaker.

The walk will begin in Mindowaskin Park at 1 p.m. for the five-mile participants, but walkers also have the option of choosing a three-mile route starting at 1:30 p.m. or a one-mile route at 2 p.m.

All participants will end up at Mindowaskin Park for the rally, where free refreshments, courtesy of Trader Joe's of Westfield, and several local bakeries will be available. "Jay the DJ," the Church of the Living God Choir and a barbershop quartet will provide musical entertainment.

The Coalition for Hunger Awareness is an interfaith group of congregations, non-profit groups and civic organizations located in Union and Somerset Counties. It was organized in 1992 by the Jewish Community Relations Council of the Jewish Federation of Central New Jersey to raise funds for the alleviation of hunger in local communities.

Money raised by the walkers and sponsors will be distributed among 12 hunger relief organizations serving needy families and individuals in Union and Somerset Counties.

Among the many groups expected to join the walk are students and youth organizations from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, McGinn Elementary School in Scotch Plains, Westfield High School, Temple Emanu-El in Westfield and Temple Shalom in Plainfield and JOGS.

Tickets to sporting events, gift certificates and other prizes will be awarded to walkers who collect the most sponsors.

For information on becoming a walker or a sponsor, or for more information on the Coalition for Hunger Awareness, please call Keith Zakheim at (908) 889-5335.

Local Library Slates Class on EBSCOHost Searching Techniques

WESTFIELD - The Westfield Memorial Library, located at 550 East Broad Street, has scheduled a class on basic EBSCOHost magazine searching techniques on the computer on Thursday, May 3, at 9:30 a.m. Newspaper searching will also be covered.

The class will begin promptly and will last approximately 40 minutes. Experience with a computer mouse is a prerequisite.

Girl Scouts to Sell Cookies Saturday At Trader Joe's

WESTFIELD - Fourth-grade Girl Scout Troop No. 56 from Franklin Elementary School in Westfield will conduct a cookie booth sale this Saturday, April 21, at Trader Joe's on Elm Street in Westfield.

The sale will run from 10 a.m. until noon and will feature a wide variety of Girl Scout cookies.

Parade Participants Invited to Attend Committee Meeting

WESTFIELD - The Westfield Memorial Day Parade Committee has invited each organization which intends on participating in the parade to send a representative to a meeting on Monday, April 23, at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting will be held at the American Legion Martin Wallberg Post No. 3 on North Avenue in Westfield.

The formation of the Westfield Memorial Day Parade units will be set up in the Lord & Taylor department store parking lot on North Avenue in Westfield on Monday, May 28, at 8:15 a.m.

Sports Medical Institute To be Topic During Y Fair

WESTFIELD - Agnes Hilbent will represent the St. Barnabas Sports Medical Institute on Sunday, April 22, during its Health Fair at the Westfield Y, located at 220 Clark Street in Westfield. Members of the public are invited to attend the Health Fair, which will be held from 1 to 4 p.m.

The Sports Medical Institute, a fast tracking system for athletic injuries, treats the average individual like a professional athlete in order to return them to their sport as quickly as possible, according to the Y.

It provides physical therapy, imaging, physicians and community lectures for athletes of all ages.

Ms. Hilbent will provide literature about the Sports Medical Institute and will be available to answer questions concerning athletic injuries.

Ms. Hilbent is also the Manager of Pediatrics at the Specialty Care Center at St. Barnabas and will additionally provide information concerning the Pediatric Specialty Group.

For further information, please call Michael Johnson at the Y, at (908) 233-2700, extension no. 251.
