In the third quarter, Bulldog Rob Robinson netted 10 of his game-high 22 points and excited two six-point runs. Feeley, with the help of Montgomery who finished with seven assists, broke the first Bulldog run with a layup. Then, toward the end of the quarter, the Raiders went on a six-point run beginning with a two-pointer from junior Mike Brennan and ending with a three-point package from Feeley - a layup and a free throw as a result of a foul on the layup.

Shabazz added flare in the final quarter with several dazzling passes. And the benefactor was Bulldog Marcus Bennett, who scored all 11 of his points in the quarter. Raider senior Co-Captain Kerwyn Paynter showed some flare of his own by scoring eight - two three-pointers and a spinning layup under the board - of his 10 points in the quarter.

"They just keep coming. They have great athletes. They are probably one of the most athletic teams in the state," said Doherty of Shabazz.

Brennan finished with eight points, Adam Bendik totaled five and Steve Williams had four points for the 4-11 Raiders. Shabazz upped its record to 16-1.
