

'West Virginians' to Give Concert at First Baptist

WESTFIELD – The First Baptist Church of Westfield will host a special concert performed by "The West Virginians" on Tuesday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary, located at 170 Elm Street.

Ms. Novak to Present Lectures Designed To Aid Busy Families

SCOTCH PLAINS – Life Coach Jamie Novak will provide lectures at the Scotch Plains Rescue Squad Building, located on Bartle Avenue, on the third Thursday of each month from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Pre-registration is required. The first lecture will take place tonight, June 21.

A free day of over-the-telephone coaching will be offered on Saturday, June 30, from 9 to 5 p.m. Interested individuals may call (908) 412-0737 during those hours.

Ms. Novak, a resident of Scotch Plains, will present what she has described as "easy to implement ideas" that can assist busy families.

For more information, please call Ms. Novak at (908) 412-0737 or visit her Web site at www.LifeULove.com.

All Saints' Announces Schedule for Summer

SCOTCH PLAINS – All Saints' Episcopal Church, located at 559 Park Avenue in Scotch Plains, will begin its summer schedule on Sunday, July 1.

One worship service will be held instead of two, a Choral Eucharist at 9 a.m. This summer schedule will run through Sunday, September 2.

The Reverend Jane Rockman is the Rector at All Saints' and Peter Isherwood is the Organist and Choirmaster. The church is air-conditioned.

For more information, please call (908) 322-8047.

Evan Flath Granted Highest Honors

SCOTCH PLAINS – Evan Flath, a member of the Class of 2004 at Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, N.Y., has received highest honors for the spring semester.

Evan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Flath of Scotch Plains.

Philippi, W. Va., includes 15 singers, dancers and instrumentalists who are enrolled as full-time students.

Now in its 24th year, the group performs under the direction of Michael Engelhardt, Instructor of Music at Alderson-Broaddus College. Its members present a variety of sacred and secular music, and also incorporate dance, instrumentation and humor into their performances.

The ensemble doubles as a chamber choir, specializing in a cappella sacred choral repertoire, as well as performing rock, country, jazz, Broadway styles and Christian contemporary music.

In addition to their live performances, "The West Virginians" have produced several television specials; a professionally-created, 30-minute videotape and 12 full-length albums and cassettes.

The concert is free and everyone is welcome to attend. Child care will be provided. For more information, please e-mail the church at 1st.baptist.westfield@att.net or call the office at (908) 233-2278.

Jeana Greco Awarded Grant by Court Trinity

WESTFIELD – Each year, Court Trinity of the Catholic Daughters of America, awards a scholarship to a graduating student of the Holy Trinity Interparochial School in Westfield.

Anna Checchio, Regent, has announced that this year's recipient is Jeana Greco.

Jeana is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Peter Greco of Westfield. She will attend Mount St. Mary Academy in Watchung.

The $1,500 scholarship is awarded to a student who is planning to attend a Catholic high school. It is based on character, academics and extra-curricular activities.

The graduation exercises were held on Friday, June 8.

Court Trinity concluded its season with its annual luncheon. Activities will resume in September. Support of the Holy Trinity Food Pantry will continue through the summer.

Vacation Bible School Set at Local Church

WESTFIELD – Children ages four years through fifth grade are invited to attend Vacation Bible School at the First Congregational Church of Westfield from Monday through Friday, July 9 to 13, from 6 to 8 p.m.

The theme of this year's camp will be "Under Construction: A Habitat for Humanity Vacation Bible School."

Through such activities as art, music and Biblical and contemporary stories, children will learn the value of community service and will be introduced to the ministry of Habitat for Humanity International.

The camp is scheduled for early evening this year to accommodate youngsters who are also attending day camps. A snack will be included.

Vacation Bible School is open to all children; campers need not be church members to attend. The cost for the week is $15 per child, or $30 maximum per family.

First Congregational Church is located at 125 Elmer Street in Westfield. For more information or to register a child, please call the church office at (908) 233-2494.
