

Roy G. Daniels, 79, Army Veteran; Was Cranford High School Teacher

Roy G. Daniels, 79, of Mountainside died on Thursday, May 3, in Overlook Hospital in Summit. Born in Chicago, he had lived in Cranford before moving to Mountainside in 1951. Mr. Daniels had been an industrial arts teacher and work study coordinator at Cranford High School for 34 years before retiring in 1983. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from New Jersey Teachers College, now Kean University in Union, and a master's degree from Rutgers University in New Brunswick. Mr. Daniels was a member of the New Jersey Teachers Association, the Morris Canal Society and the Norman Rockwell Society. He served as a Sergeant in the United States Army during World War II. He was predeceased by his wife, Vivian M. Daniels, in 1996. Surviving are three sons, Scott S.

Teresa M. Lyons, 74

Teresa M. Murphy Lyons, 74, of Fanwood died on Sunday, May 6, in Overlook Hospital in Summit. Born in Newark, she resided in Fanwood since 1958. Mrs. Lyons had been an administrative clerk with J. G. Mulford of Westfield for 12 years and a claims adjuster for Hardware Mutual in Newark before retiring. Surviving are her husband, Edwin W. Lyons; three daughters, Margaret Lyons, Maryellen Leonard and Teresa Pascarella; three sisters, Peggy Milford, Kay Skahill and Rita Healy, and four grandchildren.

A funeral service was conducted yesterday, Wednesday, May 9, from the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains, followed by a Mass at St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains. Interment was private. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Lung Association of New Jersey, 1600 U.S. Highway 22, Union 07083. May 10, 2001

Robert S. Perro, 37

Robert S. Perro, 37, of Scotch Plains died on Sunday, April 29, at Overlook Hospital in Summit. Born in Brooklyn, he was a resident of Scotch Plains for eight years. Mr. Perro was a printing and purchasing manager with the Bank of New York in Secaucus. He graduated from St. Francis College in Brooklyn. Mr. Perro was a member of the Westfield Council of the Knights of Columbus. Surviving are his wife, Concetta Perro; a daughter, Nicole M. Perro; a son, Christopher R. Perro; his parents, Dominick and Rose Perro, and a sister, Jeanne Ruggiero. A Mass was offered on Wednesday, May 2, at St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains, following funeral services from the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains. May 10, 2001

Surviving are his wife, Concetta Perro; a daughter, Nicole M. Perro; a son, Christopher R. Perro; his parents, Dominick and Rose Perro, and a sister, Jeanne Ruggiero. A Mass was offered on Wednesday, May 2, at St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains, following funeral services from the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains. May 10, 2001

Happy Mother's Day
Happy Birthday

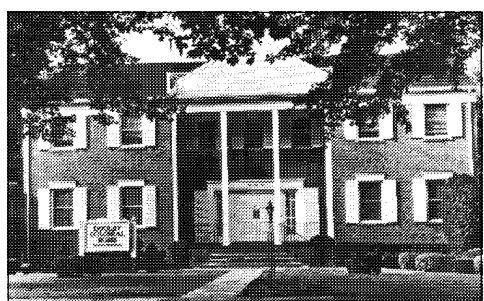

Dorothy Benninger

We never lose the ones we love, for even though they're gone, within the hearts of those who cared. Their memory still lives on. Sadly missed.

Eileen, Dotty and Joyce

Dooley Funeral Service, Inc.

Caring & Courteous Service to the Cranford/Westfield Area Since 1913

Westfield
556 Westfield Avenue
233-0255
John L. Dooley
Manager

Cranford
218 North Avenue
276-0255
Charles V. Dooley
Manager

Obituaries

Barry G. Remler, 61, BP Oil Foreman; President of Golf Club in Staten Island

Barry G. Remler, 61, of Belmar died on Sunday, April 29, in the Medi-Center in Neptune City. Born in Newark, the son of the late Curtis and Marie Rummell Remler, he had lived in Clifton and Scotch Plains before moving to Belmar 20 years ago. Mr. Remler was employed as a foreman with BP Oil Company in Linden for about 40 years. He was a member of the Jumping Brook Country Club in Neptune and had been President of the Island Golf Club in Staten Island. Surviving are a brother, Daniel Remler, and a sister, Sue Remler-Hirsch. The funeral service was held on Wednesday, May 2, in the Johnson-McGinley Funeral Home in Wall Township. Interment took place at Hollywood Memorial Park in Union. Memorial contributions may be made to the Neptune Township Little League, P.O. Box 577, Neptune, 07753. May 10, 2001

Services were held on Thursday, May 3, at the Metropolitan Baptist Church. Arrangements were handled by the Judkins Colonial Home in Plainfield. May 10, 2001

Rose Mae Harris, 77, Was Honored As Senior Citizen of the Year in 1995

Rose Mae Harris, 77, of Westfield died on Friday, April 27, at her home. Born in Covington, Va., she had lived in Plainfield before moving to Westfield three years ago. A retired custodian, Mrs. Harris had been employed by the Cranford Board of Education. She was a member of the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Scotch Plains and was an usher in the ministry. Mrs. Harris was also a member of the 14 Pals Social Club and received the Senior Citizen of the Year Award in 1995. She was predeceased by a daughter, Carol Harris Brown; a sister, Katherine Hurling, and her brother, Edward Carter, Jr. Surviving is a daughter, Marsha L. Harris of Plainfield, and two sisters, Mary Scott of Westfield and Barbara Jean Ferguson of New Brighton, Pa.

Barbara Zemaitis, 71

Barbara Connor Zemaitis, 71, of Fanwood died on Thursday, May 3, at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital in New Brunswick. Born in Newark, she had lived in Irvington, Union and Abadan, Iran, before settling in Fanwood 41 years ago. Mrs. Zemaitis was an active member of the Exxon Annuitants Club and the Westfield Y. She was also a lifelong member of the Lilies. She was predeceased by her husband, Joseph P. Zemaitis. Surviving are two sons, Joseph Zemaitis and Gerald Zemaitis; two daughters, Patricia Zemaitis and Kristine Zemaitis, and three grandchildren. A graveside service was held on Monday, May 7, at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield. Arrangements were under the direction of the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood. May 10, 2001

Joan D. Gill Donathan, 64, Had Been Owner of Westfield Sewing Center

Joan D. Gill Donathan, 64, of Muse, Fla., died on Tuesday, May 1, at her home. Born in Rahway, she had lived in Westfield and Carteret before relocating to Florida six years ago. Mrs. Donathan was the former owner of the Westfield Sewing Center in Westfield for 10 years. She was predeceased by her husbands, George C. Hartman, Edward Karst and Edward Donathan, and by a daughter, Beverly Hartman. Surviving are five sons, Gregory Hartman, Gary Hartman, Grant Hartman, Glenn Hartman and George Hartman; four daughters, Barbara A. Poulo, Bernadette Fredericks, Brenda Condray and Bonnie Axelman; three step-sons, John Karst, Frank Karst and Edward Karst; a sister, Carol Dooley, and 14 grandchildren. A Funeral Mass was offered on Friday, May 4, in St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church in Plainfield. Interment was at St. Gertrude's Cemetery in Colonia. The Dooley Colonial Home, 556

Jocelyn Jones, Was Burgdorff Realtor; Acted With Parish Players of Plainfield

Jocelyn "Joce" Welsh Jones of Green Brook died on Thursday, April 19, at Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield. Born in Westfield, she had been a longtime resident of Plainfield before moving to Green Brook in December. Mrs. Jones was employed as a Realtor for many years for Burgdorff's real estate agency in Scotch Plains. She was awarded a bachelor's degree from the New Jersey College for Women in 1948. She was a member of the Unitarian Church of Plainfield and the United Way. Mrs. Jones performed with the Parish Players of Plainfield at her church and with the Foothill Playhouse, as well as other venues in the state. Surviving are her husband, G. E. "Pete" Jones; three sons, Peter Jones, David B. Jones of Dunellen and Jeffrey M. Jones of Martinsville; a daughter, Barbara S. Jones of Stockton, and eight grandchildren. A memorial service was held on Saturday, April 28, at the Unitarian Church. Arrangements were under the direction of the Higgins Home for Funerals in Plainfield. Memorial contributions may be made to the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition Inc., 500 NE Spanish River Boulevard, Suite 14, Boca Raton, Fla. 33431. May 10, 2001

Elly Platter, 95

Elly Platter, 95, a former resident of Lakehurst, died on Friday, May 4, in the Leisure Park Senior Living Community in Lakewood. Born in Germany, she had lived in Mountainside before moving to Lakehurst several years ago. She also maintained a winter home in West Palm Beach, Fla. Mrs. Platter co-founded the Lehigh Tool & Manufacturing Company in Roselle, where she worked for 40 years prior to retiring 20 years ago. She was a member of the Women's Club of Mountainside and the Women's Club of West Palm Beach. In addition, she was Past President of the women's auxiliary of the Elizabeth Sports Club. She was predeceased by her husband, Herman L. Platter. Surviving is a daughter, Marianne Pielech of Lakewood; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Services were held on Tuesday, May 8, from the Krowicki Gorny Memorial Home in Clark. Interment followed at Hollywood Memorial Park in Union. Memorial contributions may be made to the Deborah Foundation, Browns Mills, 08015. May 10, 2001

For all Obit Information, please call (908) 232-4407

We appreciate our neighbors

Like you, we appreciate having good neighbors. That's why we also do our best to be good neighbors. As established members of the Westfield business community, we understand the security of dealing with people you know, people you trust! We've built our reputation on this trust. For over 100 years, we've provided area families with sound advice and caring service at times of personal loss. We believe we help the most by listening and providing choices. We hope you remember you can turn to us in times of need. You can also talk to us about planning ahead... removing this burden from the minds of others. Please call us or stop by.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
- Since 1897 -

• WILLIAM A. DOYLE • PAULETTE CRABIEL WAHLER
• DALE SCHOUSTRA • LISA LO RICCO SHARP
Executive Administrator - William A. Doyle

WESTFIELD: 318 East Broad St., William A. Doyle, Mgr. • 233-0143
CRANFORD: 12 Springfield Ave., Dale R. Schoustra, Mgr. • 276-0092

Family Owned and Operated

Gerard Boyle, 81, Earned Purple Heart; Had Played on Semi-Pro Football Team

Gerard T. "Jerry" Boyle, 81, of Lakehurst, a former Westfield resident, died on Sunday, May 6, at Father Hudson House in Elizabeth. Born in Donegal, Ireland as one of seven children, he emigrated to the United States in 1924. He was raised in Bayonne, where he was educated through the local school system and played halfback for the Bayonne Pioneers semi-professional football team. Mr. Boyle had worked for Rheem Manufacturing Company in Linden for 25 years, at St. Joseph School in Oradell and for the New Jersey Parkway Authority before retiring in 1992. A United States Army veteran of World War II, he was awarded a Purple Heart for injuries he sustained in the Invasion of Normandy. Mr. Boyle was a member of the Third Order of Carmel in Flemington; the Knights of Columbus in Westfield and Lakehurst; the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Kingston, Pa., and the Nocturnal Adoration Society in Union County. Surviving are his wife of 54 years, Margaret Boyle; a son, Jay Boyle of Westfield; a daughter, Molly Aiello of Colts Neck, and six grandchildren. The funeral will be held at 9 a.m. today, Thursday, May 10, from the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Avenue in Westfield. A Funeral Liturgy will follow at 10 a.m. at St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield. Interment will be at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield. Memorial donations may be made to the Center For Hope Hospice, 176 Husa Street, Linden, 07036. May 10, 2001

Clara Stern, 76

Clara Vagner Stern, 76, of Mountainside died on Wednesday, May 2, in St. Cloud Health Care Center in West Orange. Born in Yasi, Romania, she had lived in Bayonne, Newark and Irvington before relocating to Mountainside 30 years ago. Mrs. Stern had owned Tabatchnick's Delicatessen in Springfield before retiring in 1995. She was a member of Hadassah and B'nai B'rith, both of Springfield. She was predeceased by her husband, Nathan Stern. Surviving is a brother, Peasch Vagner. Funeral services were held on Thursday, May 3, at the Menorah Chapels at Millburn in Union. Interment took place at Beth Israel Cemetery in Woodbridge. May 10, 2001

William H. Trenn, 81, GM Retiree; Served in Pacific in World War II

William H. Trenn, 81, of Palm Harbor, Fla., died on Sunday, April 8, at the Bayfront Medical Center in St. Petersburg, Fla. Born on April 18, 1919 in Cleveland, Ohio, he had lived in Westfield and in Rochester, Mich., before moving to Palm Harbor in 1992. Mr. Trenn retired in 1980 as Director of Personnel Services, International Division, of the General Motors Corporation in Detroit, Mich. He initially joined the General Motors Corporation in New York City in Stockholder Relations, transferring to General Motors' Overseas Operations in 1962. After his retirement, he worked as an independent consultant in the field of international personnel policies and executive compensation. Mr. Trenn graduated in 1941 from Columbia University in New York City and attended Harvard Law School from 1946 to 1947. He was a United States Navy veteran of World War II, having served from January of 1944 to April of 1946. Mr. Trenn attended USNR Midshipmen's School at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., and was commissioned an ensign. During World War II, he served as engineering officer and later as navigator and executive officer in the Pacific Theater. He was honorably discharged as a Lieutenant (jg). He was a member of the Oldsmar Rotary Club in Florida and the Nomads Travel Club of Michigan, with which he traveled all over the world. He was predeceased by his wife of 30 years, Betty L. Jamison Trenn, in 1978. Surviving are two daughters, Nancy Eachus of Linwood and Carol A. Thompson of Lake Barrington, Ill., and four grandchildren. A graveside service will be held at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 13, at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield, followed by a luncheon at Charlie Brown's Restaurant in Scotch Plains. A memorial service was held in Palm Harbor on Tuesday, April 10. Arrangements were handled by Moss-Feaster Funeral Homes & Cremation Services, Palm Harbor Chapel, in Palm Harbor. May 10, 2001

Wilbur Santo Salvo, 78

Wilbur L. Santo Salvo, 78, a lifelong resident of Scotch Plains, died on Thursday, May 3, at Haven Hospice of Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield. Mr. Santo Salvo had been a truck driver for many years with Paul's Trucking in Woodbridge before retiring several years ago. He was also a member of the trucking teamsters. Surviving are four sisters, Victoria Caruso, Marie Haller, Gloria Geschwinder and Eugenia Serina; a granddaughter and a great-granddaughter. The funeral service was held on Monday, May 7, from the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains. Memorial contributions may be made to Haven Hospice, in care of JFK Medical Center, 65 James Street, Edison, 08818, or to the Scotch Plains Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 325, Scotch Plains, 07076. May 10, 2001

Norinne B. Clark, 69

Norinne B. "Nonnie" Clark, 69, of Three Bridges died on Monday, April 30, at the Somerset Medical Center in Somerville. Born in Newark, she had lived in Westfield before moving to Marshfield, Mass., in 1974. She later resided in Plymouth, Mass., relocating to Three Bridges four months ago. A homemaker for most of her life, Mrs. Clark had been employed for 10 years as a sales secretary for J.L. Hammett Company in Braintree, Mass., prior to retiring in 1995. She graduated with the Class of 1949 from Westfield High School and attended Pembroke College-Brown University in Providence, R.I. Mrs. Clark was a member of the Good Sam Club, the Family Motor Home Coach Association and the W.I.T. (Winnebago-Itasca Club Association). She was predeceased by her first husband, Stewart J. Clark, in 1979. Surviving are her husband, Lester G. Bartley; two daughters, Mary Ellen Clark of Oceanport and Patricia Clark of Scotch Plains; a sister, Gloria Briesch of Queensbury, N.Y.; two step-daughters, Carolyn Bartley of Annapolis, Md. and Deborah Berry of Carver, Mass.; a step-son, Richard Bartley of Hyannis, Mass., and three grandchildren. A memorial service was held on Friday, May 4, at the First Unitarian Society of Plainfield in Plainfield. Arrangements were under the direction of the Higgins Home for Funerals in Watchung. Memorial donations may be made to the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition, 500 Spanish River Boulevard, Boca Raton, Fla. 33431. May 10, 2001

Frederick Stroehmer

Frederick E. Stroehmer, 81, of Westfield died on Thursday, April 19, in Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield. Born in Montclair, he had lived in Bernardsville before moving to Westfield in 1953. Mr. Stroehmer had been a steward for the Bergen-Carteret Club in Jersey City from 1977 to 1986. He attended St. Bernard's Episcopal Church in Bernardsville and was a Past Master of Lodge No. 72 Free and Accepted Masons in Secaucus. Surviving are his wife, Beatrice Thoms Stroehmer, and a sister, Frances Spiro of Jacksonville, Fla. A memorial service will be held at noon on Saturday, May 12, in St. Bernard's Church. Arrangements are under the direction of the Galloway & Crane Funeral Home in Basking Ridge. May 10, 2001