were not responding well enough to increase it in the finals and had to settle for sixth.

"Fatigue was just bothering me. My legs felt extra heavy, like I had 25-pound weights on them," said Williams.

Optimistically, Williams added, "My coaches know the situations that will happen in the meets. And they will prepare me."

Aberdeen cleared 21'11.5 to take first in the long jump. Previously Aberdeen cleared 6'2" to tie for second in the high jump. Although picking up an individual first and a second, and a second in the 4x400, Aberdeen was not satisfied.

"I didn't have a good day at the high jump and I wasn't hitting my mark on the long jump," commented a semi-dejected Aberdeen. "I have to talk to the coach and see what I have to do."

Soaring to the scene in the long jump was Blue Devil Miller, who glided to a personal-best 21'5" to qualify for the finals, then alit 21'8.75" in the finals to place third.

"Coming in, I felt a lot more loose than usual," explained Miller. "Usually, when I get loose, I can run a lot better. I felt my stride was right on."

Adding to the Raiders' glory was junior Bob Wallden, who came through with a first in the 3,200 meters with a time of 9:53.2, and sophomore Chris Feighner, who plunged his metal orb a personal-best 52'8" away from the circle to take top honors in the shot put. Senior Mike Dixon also came through with a second in the 800 meters with a time of 1:58.9.

GL Highlanders Marty Moroney, Colin Price and Brian Bergeski took one-two-three, respectively, in the javelin with throws of 161'10", 156'9" and 155'10". In earlier meets, Moroney had exceeded 170 feet but he was happy about his team's outcome.

"I knew we would all probably place but I didn't expect us to take one-two-three," said Moroney. "I was a little disappointed with myself, but we still won."

"I have thrown a little better but I'm happy with my throw," said Price. "My goal now is to go over 160, 165."

Although sharing the same javelin, each used a different approach style. Of all the competitors, Moroney had the longest approach and Price had the shortest while Bergeski would approach slowly from midrange. However, in either event, they all seem to take it seriously.

"I have used the same style since my freshman year, same sweatshirt, same everything," chuckled Moroney.

"In practice, we push each other," commented Bergeski, who will attend Towson University in Maryland. "Every throw is a real throw. We don't fool around. There's no joking."

Highlanders Andrew Whitney and Dan DeOliviera shared the title in the pole vault, both clearing 12 feet and teammate Jerry Fang grabbed sixth at 10'0.

Raider Andrew Elko took fifth in the 1,600 at 4:35.8 and teammate Walter Biner crossed fifth in the 3,200 at 10:17.5 followed by Blue Devil senior Matt Borchin at 10:21.7. Blue Devil Tri-Captain Ryan Burke placed sixth in both the 110 hurdles and 400 hurdles with respective times of :16.1 and :59.8.

stop Jeanmarie Unish robbed McNelis of, at least, an RBI single by performing a spectacular, chest-diving catch in shallow left.

Another test followed in the sixth when Cougar Jessica Falasca poked a leadoff single and Unish followed with a dinker to left. The Raiders passed the test when catcher Church nailed Falasca attempting to steal third and Piniat retired the next two batters.

After the first two Raiders fled out, a determined Church stepped to the plate in the sixth and looped a single over short which seemed to arouse her team. Katie Blom burned a single past the second baseman and Lindsay Pennella ripped a single to center. Church, nearing third, had no intention of stopping and dashed home for the tie. Willis added to the tension by tapping a series of foul balls. Then the joy erupted when she whacked her two-run single to center.

"We have waited so long for this moment. We could not let it go. I had to score," explained Church. "We had to win!"

Piniat declared three-straight Cougars in the seventh.

"It was a tremendous win. These kids deserve it. They worked so hard to get here," said Butz. "To come through and come back like that, it was a super, super win. It's about time things went our way. We had a tough week with Westfield, GL (Governor Livingston)."

Butz concluded, "Finally, we beat Cranford in a crucial game. Last year, we lost in 11 (innings) and the year before, we lost to them in the counties."
