Soccer Azzuri Ties Hunterdon Jaguars

Scotch Plains-Fanwood's Girls U-12 Intercity Soccer Team hosted a May 13 re-match against the North Hunterdon Jaguars, and succeeded in holding the contest to a 1-1 tie.

The Jaguars scored their only goal in the first minutes of the game. The Azzuri retaliated with an offensive charge by Maggie McLaughlin, Sam Gates, Colleen LaForge and Allie Zazzali, whose determined scoring attempts nevertheless missed their mark during the first half.

Becky Lundgren directed the backfield from her stopper position. Fullback Kim Appezzato played solidly. Megan Dyckman earned her keep on the wing, by consistently marking and shutting down her opponent.

The Azzuri continued offensive pressure, with Amanda Makowski and Lisa Camarda attempting to penetrate the Jaguars' defense. Finally, in the second half, Zazzali tied the game with a well-placed shot from the right side that soared over the goalie's head.

A solid effort from goalie Ashley Jacobi, along with determined play from Samantha Buteas and Alex Garber, allowed Azzuri to repel the Jaguars' efforts to break the tie.

Westfield Cup Will Feature Over 1,800 Soccer Players

This year's 21st Annual Westfield Cup will feature 114 soccer teams from all over the northeast. Over 1,800 players ranging in age from 8-19 are registered to attend this soccer festival.

The Westfield Cup is one of the oldest and most prestigious soccer tournaments in New Jersey and attracts top-caliber youth soccer teams from New Jersey and nearby states.

The tournament kicks off at 8:30 a. m. Saturday, May 26 on fields throughout the town and in neighboring Cranford. The finals will be conducted on Memorial Day, Edison Intermediate School.

Greens Keepers Capture ALS Awareness Crown

The two surviving teams of the eight-team Jim Airey ALS Awareness tournament "Knock Out ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease)" benefit for resident Jim Airey at Brookside Park in Scotch Plains on May 19, DiFrancesco proved that he had the "Right Stuff" when he nailed several good shots to left field.

Kylsh's team consisted of high school acquaintances including Airey's son Scott, who smacked three home runs in the three previous games, and several of Kylsh's cousins. The well-organized Greens Keepers consisted of participants from the St. Bart's League and some from other leagues within Union County.

The speedy Kylsh Tube team jumped out to a four-run lead in the top of the first but the Greens Keepers took advantage of eight consecutive walks and a controversial call in the second and tallied nine runs.

Kylsh did not score again until the seventh inning when they added three. However, the Greens men mastered the art of scoring in every inning, including four runs in the third, two in the fourth, three in the fifth and six more in the sixth.
