

Concepts & Thought

A SKIT FULL OF STARS...On April 20, the Brunner Elementary School Variety Show, "A Night of 175 Stars," was held. Directed by Veronique Rosenberg and Robin Pace, the show included children from kindergarten to fifth grade. They performed limericks, gymnastics routines, piano solos, comedy skits and choreographed dance numbers. The largest act included 21 second grade girls, dancing and twirling their umbrellas in sync to the tune, "Singing in the Rain." The cast of 175 stars sparkled through the show, that ended with the entire ensemble singing "The Wind Beneath My Wings."
