

MAKING SOME GAINS...Westfield "D" footballer Jordan Johnson runs for a short gain in a tough game against Berkeley Heights on November 11.

Westfield PAL 'B' Bombs Berkeley Heights, 38-6

The Westfield Police Athletic League's "B" football team ended their regular season 8-1 with a 38-6 victory over hosting Berkeley Heights on November 11. The Blue Devils dominated, scoring touchdowns (TD) on every possession. Defensemen Kyle Zeitounian, Mice Lawson, Jimmy Ponce, Sean Sullivan, Andrew Gately, Joseph Tressitt and Matthew Ince frustrated Berkeley Heights all day.

The Blue Devils were tested early as Berkeley Heights picked up a pair of first downs, but Jack Meagher, Terrell Shaw and Santo Nardi delivered key tackles to stall the drive. Westfield answered with a 65-yard TD run from quarterback (QB) Mike Venezia.

Tom Bonard scored the second TD on a pitch from Venezia, breaking several tackles for a 68-yard run. Later, Venezia scored on a 40-yard keeper. QB Mark Boyd carried around left end for the extra point. Next, Bonard swept right for a 21-yard TD and Venezia ran in the extra point.

Andrew Brunhofer broke through the Heights' line and tackled both the QB and the halfback to end the first half.

In the second half, Boyd handed off to Sean Ferro who raced 54-yards for the score. The final TD came when Mark Anderson exploded through the line for a 35-yard run.

Berkeley Heights scored on its final possession. However, Joshua Friedman, Sam Crawford, Danny Dickson, Arrend Santiago, Peter Antonelli, Bryan Austin, Thomas Sheridan and Stephen Bigelow forced them to watch precious time slip off the clock.

Head Coach Pat Ferro commented, "Everyone on the team right down to Mike Sheehan and Sean Egan our water boys got us our berth in the Police Athletic League's Super Bowl."

SP-F Sparx Blank Hillsborough, 3-0

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood under age 11 Sparx soccer team shut down the Hillsborough Challengers, 3-0, on November 4.

Hillsborough had an early surge but could not get the ball past keeper Saxony Nielsen who made many clutch saves. Near the end of the first quarter, Jenna McGarry whizzed a beautiful shot that was batted away by the goalie. Allison Goldberg jumped up to punch in the goal.

In the second quarter, the stellar backfield of Stephanie Glover, Sheryl Markovitz and Samantha Bremer kept the Challengers off balance with their speed and superior teamwork. Midfielders Erika White, Traci Rigano and Becca VonLangen did an excellent job pushing the ball up to the fired up Sparx offensive front line. Jennie Altman, Nielsen and Brittney Veeck all had numerous shots on goal.

The second Sparx goal came off a well-placed corner kick by McGarry that bounced from Nielsen to Goldberg to Kim Shelus who finally banged it in. Olivia Francavilla banged a hard shot that slipped out of the goalie's hand, but was knocked in by a quick-footed Jaclyn Law for the third goal.

Junior Raider Wrestling Registration Notice:

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Junior Raider Wrestling registration will be on Monday, November 19, at 6 p.m. at the Town House building on the corner of Westfield Road and Evergreen Place. Practice for the kindergarten to third grade novice program will be held once per week for beginner wrestlers. Youngsters in the kindergarten to grade six competitive program will practice three nights per week and compete on weekends.

The programs are sponsored by the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Police Athletic League. For more information, please contact Mike Ridge at (908) 889-5030.

NEAR THE TOP OF THE HEAP...Erica Tricarico of Westfield placed in the top 13 percent among 24,057 runners at the New York City Marathon with a time of 3:35:00. She was in the top six percent of women and in the top 3.5 percent of women in her age group.
