

Roger Love to Receive Humanitarian Honor From Westfield Rotary on November 28

WESTFIELD — Jane Sentivan, Westfield Rotary Club President, has announced that the Charles P. Bailey Humanitarian Award will be presented on Wednesday, November 28, to Roger D. Love, Jr.

This award is presented annually to a Westfield resident who has exemplified outstanding service to the community. The award is given in memory of Charles P. Bailey, a former Mayor of Westfield and a Past President of the Westfield Rotary Club.

Mr. Love, is President and owner of Century 21 Taylor & Love Realtors. Mr. Love is a fourth generation Westfield resident. He is former President of the Westfield United Fund Board of Trustees; he served twice as General Chairman of the United Fund campaign and continues as Chairman of the Special Gifts Division of the United Fund campaign.

Among his many community contributions, Mr. Love served as President of the Westfield Y Board of Directors and currently sits on its Board of Directors. Mr. Love is a former Trustee of the Education Fund of the Westfield Athletic Hall of Fame.

Mr. Love is former President of the Westfield Board of Realtors and the Greater Union County Association of Realtors and currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Greater Union County Association of Realtors. He is also a member of the 200 Club of Union County and has served as Commodore and Trustee of the Ocean Gate Yacht Club.

This year, the Westfield Rotary Club intends to grant a significant portion of the proceeds from the dinner to the Elizabeth Coalition to House the Homeless. The Coalition operates two hospitality houses where guest-working families live for free. After an average stay of approximately six months, the guest families move to economic self-sufficiency. The success rate is very high, Ms. Sentivan noted. The Elizabeth Coalition is now proceeding with plans to build a third hospitality house in Elizabeth.

"The Westfield Rotary Club is celebrating our 18th anniversary and we are fortunate to celebrate this special with Roger Love who has unselfishly served Westfield. The Westfield Rotary Club is pleased to present Mr. Love with this honor," Ms. Sentivan stated.

Carl Peer, the Humanitarian Dinner Chairman said, "During this special year we are honoring a fine humanitarian in Roger Love and we decided to earmark a significant portion of the proceeds from this event to the Elizabeth Coalition to house The Homeless. The Elizabeth Coalition to House The Homeless has done good work in helping the working poor become economically self sufficient. We are confident that the community will acknowledge the contribution of Roger Love to our community, and that this community support will inure to the benefit of the Elizabeth Coalition to House The Homeless."

The award will be presented on November 28 at the Echo Lake Country Club. Tickets for the event, and information for the program book and ad journal can be obtained from Mr. Peer by calling him at (908) 233-8801.
