Field Hockey Devils Shutout Cranford Cougars, 1-0

Westfield 11 controlled offensively and defensively as they pummeled the Cranford net with 15 shots on goal while Cranford had just five. Give much credit to total team effort as Heather Fisher, Miriam Zichlin, Karen Castaldo, Emily Kahn, Alexandra Maus and Tracy Rood were all part of the winning formula. Blue Devil keeper, Mollie Gibbons recorded four saves for the shutout. "We really stepped it up from last season," said Papola. "We have five returning seniors and numerous juniors, so that combination has definitely helped a lot and made our team click and come together more. We have a winning streak going, so we're happy with what we've done so far and hopefully we will win the States and Counties."

After the game, a happy McFadden said, "The kids have really come together and are playing pretty well. As a young and inexperienced team, they have gained experience and confidence as the season progressed. I'm happy being where we are right now. Last year, we were 7-8, so we are on track for a winning season." Westfield was defeated, 2-0, by first-seeded Oak Knoll in the semifinals of the Union County tournament at Kean University on October 19.

Westfield Blue 'D' Tops Rival Cougars, 25-0

The Blue Devils "D" team continued with their winning streak with a 25-0 crushing of rival Cranford Cougars. Tremendous work by quarterbacks Brett DeFazio and Zack Heferin helped the team to continue their winning streak. Brandon Rolnick scored a touchdown after several successful runs, one such by Robert McCrea. Heferin scored off a pitch with great blocking again by McCrea. Joey Pochette also scored a touchdown off a quick right pitch. Kevin Herring made a fabulous touchdown via a halfback option pass.

The famous defense, led by Michael Tounofsky, held Cranford to only two positive gains.

SP-F Soccer Sparx Eclipse Summit U11 Sunbursts, 1-0

Displaying the American flag patches on the back of their jerseys, the revitalized Scotch Plains-Fanwood U11 Sparx soccer team defeated the Summit Sunbursts, 1-0, on October 14.

The Sparx opened with plenty of offensive pressure by Corinne Walker, Olivia Francavilla, Brittney Veeck and Jenna McGarry. With both teams playing inspired a midfield collision took an injured Walker out of the game. Saxony Nielsen was tripped up from behind on a great scoring opportunity. Jennie Altman took a long pass from Allison Goldberg and drilled the ball into the far corner of the Summit net.

Near the end of the half, an unbelievable series of saves by the Summit goalie prevented the Sparx from adding to the score as Goldberg, Traci Rigano, and Stephanie Glover all had shots denied, including a midfield dribble by Glover which was turned back by a clutch save.

In the second half, Samantha Bremer, Kim Shelus and Sheryl Markovitz denied all Sunbursts' scoring attempts. Goalies Nielsen and Jaelyn Law were both tested but responded aggressively and had several remarkable saves. Becca VonLangen, Erika White and Jen Gassler kept up the offensive pressure. To cap off her outstanding game, Glover took a great shot from midfield that the Sunburst's goalie somehow grabbed in midair which ended the game.

SP-F Thunder Strikes U-11 Soccer Eagles, 1-0

The Blue Thunder of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association U-11 division had revenge on their minds and defeated the Piscataway Eagles, 1-0, on October 21, avenging an earlier season loss.

Both teams were able to neutralize each other. The Eagles got off only three shots on goal compared to two for the Thunder. The half ended, 0-0.

The Thunder came out like a buzz saw in the second half. With less than five minutes to play, Eddie Byron, celebrating his 11th birthday, followed his own shot and put it past the Eagle goalie for the score. With less than two minutes remaining, the Eagles gave the Thunder quite a scare as they fired off three consecutive shots on goal. Thanks to goalie Matt Bonner and the swarming defense, the Eagles were turned away and the Thunder had preserved the win.

Andrew Smith and Bonner combined in goal for another shutout. Defensively, Danny Rodriguez, Marc Fusillo, Danny Gore, Colin Grimm, Michael Roth and Michael Lauricella were strong. Brendan McEvoy, Joseph Del Prete, Mark Koransky, Reid Miller, Greg Bencivengo, Josef Ellis, Jack Dunphy, Chris McManus, Bonner and Byron did a nice job of controlling the ball and attacking the goal.

SP-F Rebels Jolt Soccer Rage, 1-0

The 4-0 Scotch Plains-Fanwood Rebels U10 soccer team jolted the 4-0 East Brunswick Rage, 1-0, in a well-matched quality game. Michelle Goldberg fed Kim Many who whizzed in the only goal of the game in the first quarter.

Ali Prestridge, Kathryn Dinizo and Becky Krakora defended well against a fired up Rage, but consistently denied any scoring, while goalie Morgan Burke made many clutch saves.

In the second half, the two teams battled back and forth with excellent defensive play by Colleen Sweeney, Sarah Canfield, Cassie Zito, Jen Kickenwietz and Devon Daly turning back an aggressive but frustrated Rage. Burke, Lyndsey Douglas, Dinizo and Prestridge pressured by launching numerous shots on goal.

In the waning minutes, East Brunswick put together a beautiful play that almost caught the Rebels off guard, but goalie Krakora made a daring diving save and took a cleat in the face to hold on to the victory.
