Paul J. Peyton for The Westfield Leader and The Times

NOT FORGOTTEN…Westfield Police Lieutenant Frank Brunelle, left, and retired Deputy Chief Robert Bell, center, received the Medal of Honor on October 16 from Police Chief Bernard Tracey for their actions during a March 3, 1975 stake-out at a service station that thwarted the actions of an armed man who had a gun to the head of undercover officer Wesley Moore, Jr. The armed suspect, wanted in a series of armed robberies, fired a shot that blew off Captain Bell's hat and seared his scalp. He was then shot to death by police. It was the first Medal of Honor given out by the department in over 20 years. Officer Moore received the award in 1975 but the other officers did not receive the citation.

Weichert Donates $500,000 To Housing Relief Fund

WESTFIELD – James M. Weichert, President of Weichert, Realtors, has announced that the sales associates and employees of the entire Weichert Family of Companies donated $500,000 to the Realtors Housing Relief Fund set up by the National Association of Realtors (NAR) to assist the families of victims of the September 11 assaults on the United States.

On October 4 at Weichert corporate headquarters in Morris Plains, Mr. Weichert presented more than 2,850 checks from company associates and employees to Richard Mendenhall, President of the NAR. Donations from every geographic area and from every company and department within the Weichert Family of Companies totaled more than $238,000. Weichert matched that amount to bring the grand total to half a million dollars.

The NAR has pledged that 100 percent of the moneys collected will go directly to victims' families to assist with their mortgage and rental payments.

"I am very proud of the good and generous spirit of our employees and sales associates and of how they came together to support the victims of this tragedy and make an impact during this difficult time," said Mr. Weichert.

"At times like this it is crucial to keep the American spirit alive and having a place to call home is a large part of that spirit. For these victims, their home is a source of comfort and the idea that they might have to worry about how to keep it is an unfortunate burden that this fund hopes to alleviate," he added.

For more information or to make a donation, please visit NAR's special Web site, www.relief.realtor.org or call (800) 874-6500.
