Lady Vikings Boot Soccer Farmers, 4-2

The Union Catholic High School girls' soccer team got off on the right foot by out-booting Union, 4-2, in Scotch Plains on September 8. Freshman Amanda Pitts and junior Rebecca Babicz each netted two goals to lift the Vikings.

Pitts scored her first goal nine minutes into the game but Farmer Amber West knotted the score just before the half. Pitts and Babicz scored in the second half before Farmer Jessica Amendola tightened the score to 3-2. With three minutes left, Babicz added the cushion on a pass from Jessica Cardenas, who finished with two assists.

Viking Boys Down Blue Jays, 3-2

The Union Catholic High School opened its season with a 3-2 win over hosting Middlesex on September 10. Junior forward Paulo Oliveira netted a hat trick for the Vikings.

After Elvis Pineda scored his second goal for the Blue Jays, Oliveira tied the score in the second half on an assist from Pedro Gomez. Oliveira netted the winner with 15 minutes left on an assist from Brandon Pitts.

competitive field. "Lauren, being the captain, felt the pressure (last year)," said Greenwald. "She is a hard worker and I know she has the hunger (this year)."

Jessica Caravello, who placed third in the All-Around at the UCT, also received All-Section honors on the floor exercises but was exceptional on the balance beam.

"The Caravellos are two of the four girls who have taken our team to the states the last two years. I would like to see them go out number one," commented Greenwald.

Skolnick was a top competitor in three events during the county tournament and has added more zest to all of her routines. "She is a very strong part of our team, a very hard worker and a leader," expressed Greenwald.

Valla, who placed second in the All-Around at the UCT, received All-

Section honors on the uneven bars. This year she has applied even more polish. Also fortifying the Blue Devils' talent pool will be sophomore Stacey Osborne, a level-nine gymnast, and freshman Jessica Sussman, a level eight gymnast.

Attaining the number-one status takes more than just talent. It takes heart, attitude and, sometimes, luck. According to Greenwald, the team's attitude is "excellent. I think we know what our competition is. We feel very confident going into the season. We know the mistakes we made last year and have taken the steps to correct them."

Westfield opened with East Brunswick on September 11 and will host Bridgewater today at 4:30 p.m.

St. Jude jolted the score to 9-1 with five runs in the third. Chuck Mattson reached safely on a throwing error and Tony Perfilio, an 18-year veteran who was competing in his seventh championship game, followed with a single to center. Ulichny slid an RBI single past first and Lou Balestriere yanked an RBI double to left. Mike Rivera lined an RBI sacrifice fly to right. Woodring lofted an RBI sacrifice fly to center and Raphael blasted a daring solo homer to right. St. Thomas chipped away with two in the fourth when Tom Henderson reached safely on a fielder's choice and Elmi slipped his two-run homer past the center fielder. Another Tom scored in the fifth, making the score 9-4, when back-to-back singles by Marchelitis and Gibbons was followed by an RBI single from Pietruca.

In the sixth, St. Jude continued its quest to take a 12-4 lead. Ulichny singled and scored on Balestriere's triple to the fence in left. Rivera's grounder to the mound brought home Ulichny and Woodring hammered a solo shot to right.

Keeping the faith, St. Thomas screamed back with three in the seventh when Voorhees walked, Henderson singled, Elmi chopped an RBI single past short, Bob Guy drilled an RBI double to right center and Kevin Lonergan lifted an RBI sacrifice to left. Then in the eighth, Gibbons, although skidding on his side as he rounded second, alertly recovered to complete a solo homer. Pietruca thumped a triple to center and narrowed the score to 12-9 on Bill Mirto sacrifice fly to right.

Two Jude insurance runs were added in the ninth when Mattson and Ulichny, who both singled, scored on Woodring's two-run single up the middle. In the bottom of the ninth, Chupko demonstrated savvy with a relaxed catch of an infield pop up.
