SPBPA, Rotary to Hold Third Annual Casino Night

SCOTCH PLAINS — The Fanwood-Scotch Plains Rotary Club and the Scotch Plains Business & Professional Association (SPBPA) will hold a Casino Night on Saturday, September 22, from 7 to 11 p.m. at Scotch Hills Country Club in Scotch Plains.

The event will cap off a day of activities in town as part of Scotch Plains Day 2001.

"The evening will provide an opportunity for people who are not necessarily gamblers to learn about games of chance such as Black Jack, Roulette and Craps and practice their skills in an informal relaxed atmosphere among friends," explained Ray Pardon, President of the SPBPA.

There will be no cash gambling or cash prizes. At the end of the evening there will be a Tricky Tray Auction of many fine items donated by local individuals and businesses. Tickets for the evening are $35, the cost of which includes admission, $100 of play money to get started, hors d'oeuvres, buffet, beer, wine and soft drinks. There will also be a 50/50 raffle. Tickets may be purchased at Nuts n' Plenty, 407 Park Avenue, Scotch Plains. Tickets may also be purchased at the door, but attendance will be limited. For more information, please call either Steve Goldberg at (908) 322-5733 or Kim Palmer at (908) 232-4242 or check out the SPBPA Website, www.visitscotchplains.com.

Chelsea Workshop On Financial Issues Planned for Sept. 19

FANWOOD — The Chelsea at Fanwood, located at 295 South Avenue in Fanwood, will present a free workshop entitled "Getting the Latest Answers" as part of its ongoing community education program.

Set for Wednesday, September 19, at 7 p.m., the workshop will feature the latest information regarding long-term care insurance, 529 College Savings Plans and the new IRA laws. Guest presenters will be Elizabeth Fenton, Glenn Guerin and Doris Kesse of United Trust.

Due to limited seating, registration is requested. For further information, please call The Chelsea at (908) 654-5200.

All proceeds from the evening will go towards the SPBPA Scholarship Fund and various youth related programs of the Rotary Club.

Y Offers Walking Group, Drama/Story Telling Club

WESTFIELD — The Westfield Y, located at 220 Clark Street in Westfield, has announced some last minute additions to its fall roster.

Held on Fridays in September, the Y Walkers meet for their exercise program in Tamaques Park. The group meets on Fridays at 9:30 a.m. (weather permitting) for walking and stretching.

The fee is $15 per session and includes a T-shirt and handouts. The session will continue through late October. A Westfield Y membership is required.

Individuals interested in acting may join the Beginning Drama/Story Telling Club. Participants will learn the basics of improvisation and create stories to perform. The club meets on Tuesdays from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and the fee is $35.

Program registration for both activities is conducted on a first come, first-served basis. Registration forms are available at the Westfield Y front desk.

For additional information, please call Barbara Karp at (908) 233-2700, extension no. 335.

SPFHS Alumni Association To Meet on September 17

SCOTCH PLAINS — The regular scheduled meeting of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Alumni Association will be held on Monday, September 17, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 101 at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School.

The meeting date was changed due to the school being closed for Rosh Hashana. All are invited to attend and refreshments will be served.

Cheryl Iaione, a 1976 graduate, will be the guest speaker. She is a teacher and Head Coach of the Hillsborough High School Girls' Basketball Team and she will share her insights on girls' sports.

John Gausz, Membership Chairman, will also be on hand to impart information about becoming a member of the Alumni Association. Membership automatically entitles the individual to a newsletter containing items of interest to graduates of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School.

The Association's 2001 scholarship winners include Katie Blom, the daughter of Stacy Blom, Class of 1981, who will attend Monmouth University, and Michael Franzone, the grandson of Yolanda DiQuollo Schiller and Eugene Schiller, classes of 1951 and 1950, who will attend Cook College at Rutgers University.

For further information, please call Laura Swidersky at (908) 889-2089 or Kathy Van Horn at (908) 232-4132.
